Our portrait is of Master Newman whose mother writes as follows:—"My son suffered from tubercular Right Hip, and was in and out of hospital for 18 months. After undergoing three operations, which did him no good, we decided to try your Clarke's Blood Mixture. After taking the first bottle we noticed an improvement in him, so we kept it up, and now we are glad to say he is quite cured. Everybody we meet marvels how he got well, and we are always glad to say it is your Clarke's Blood Mixture." (Signed) Mrs. Newman, 19 Fonthill road, Finsbury Park, London, N.

CURED BY

If you suffer from any such disease as Eczema, Scrofula, Bad Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Glandular Swellings, Boils, Pimples, Sores of any kind, Piles, Blood Poison, Rheumatism, Gout, etc., don't waste your time and money on useless lotions and messy ointments, which cannot get below the surface of the skin. What you want and what you must have to be permanently cured is a medicine that will thoroughly free the blood of the poisonous matter which alone is the true cause of your suffering. Clarke's Blood Mixture is just such a medicine. It is composed of ingredients which quickly expel from the blood all impurities from whatever cause arising, and by rendering it clean and pure can be relied on to effect a complete and lasting cure.

Over 50 years Success. Pleasant to the taste.

LAW COURTS.

VACATION APPLICATIONS.

Mr. Justice Gordon sat in King's Bench (Court No. 1) yesterday, to hear pressing applications for the King's Bench Division.

A SOLDIER'S WILL.

In the goods of Lieutenant-Colonel John M'Neill. Mr. W. M. Whitaker, K.C. (instructed by Messrs. Wallace and Co.) renewed an application for a grant of probate to the holograph will of Lieut.-Colonel John M'Neill, and for an order presuming death. It appeared from counsel's statement that Colonel M'Neill was a son of Mr. John M'Neill, of Parkmount, County Antrim. He had been in the Coldstream Guards, and some years ago retired with the rank of major. Subsequently he was appointed to the command of the 4th Battalion King's Own Scottish Borderers, a territorial regiment. When the war broke out his regiment was mobilised, and on 13th May, 1915, they were ordered to prepare for active service. On the same day Colonel M'Neill wrote out his will and signed it, but there were no witnesses. Under this document he gave his property in County Antrim to his son, John H. M'Neill, and £1,000 to each of his daughters, his widow being provided for under her settlement. On 23rd May the regiment embarked for Gallipoli, and on 12th July they were engaged in an attack upon Turkish trenches. Col. M'Neill while leading his men across the open ground was seen to fall, and no further trace could be discovered as to his fate. The War Office had officially returned him as dead. Recently a private soldier named Parker had informed the relatives that he had seen Colonel M'Neill shot, and that he fell dead with a bullet through his head.

Mr. Justice Gordon held that the document was a soldier's will, and ordered a grant of probate, as applied for.

MISSING ROSCOMMON FARMER.

In the goods of John Finneran.

Mr. A. E. Wood (instructed by Messrs. Fair and Murtagh) applied on behalf of Mrs. Bridget Finneran, of Coolfree, Co. Roscommon, for an order presuming the death of her husband, John Finneran, and for a limited grant of administration. Finneran, it appeared, left his wife and seven children on his farm and went to Canada in 1907. Six months later she received a letter from him stating he was on his way home. She had never heard of him since then, and no one, so far as she could learn, knew anything about him.

Mr. Justice Gordon directed that advertisements should be published, and adjourned the application.

OLD MAN'S DEATH.

In the Goods of George Whittaker.

Mr. Hume (instructed by Mr. Wm. Skelton) applied on behalf of Jane Whittaker, daughter of George Whittaker, for an order presuming her father's death. It appeared that, after having left a hospital in Belfast, the father, an old man, disappeared, and that the description of the remains of a man, found drowned, on whom an inquest had been held at Greenisland, Co. Antrim, corresponded with the description of the missing man. Advertisements had been published by direction of Mr. Justice Gibson, asking information as to the fate of the old man, but no replies had been received.

Mr. Justice Gordon made an order presuming the death, and giving a grant of letters of administration to the applicant.

KNOCKED DOWN BY MOTOR CAR.

Davidson v. Keelan.

An application was made on behalf of the defendant, Dr. P. J. Keelan, of Mullingar, for an order remitting the action for trial to the County Court Judge of Westmeath. The action is brought by John Davidson, aged 7 years, suing by his father, a carpenter, residing at Phibsborough avenue, Dublin, to recover damages for personal injuries alleged to have been sustained through the negligence of the defendant in the management of his motor car on the 21st July last. The defence was that the accident was due to the child's own negligence in running into the motor car off the footpath in Phibsborough. It was alleged that the child's jaw had been fractured, but there was a conflict of medical evidence on the subject.

Mr. Justice Gordon made an order directing that the action should be tried before a judge without a jury, and without further pleadings, the costs of both parties to be costs in the cause.

Messrs. Hanna, K.C., and H. Hughes (instructed by Mr. David A. Quaid) appeared for the plaintiff; and Mr. Sealy (instructed by Mr. J. H. M'Loughlin) for the defendant.

BUNDORAN SLANDER ACTION.

Graves v. Hamilton.

Mr. Smylie (instructed by Mr. R. Reid) applied on behalf of the defendant, Mr. George Irvine Hamilton, shopkeeper, of Bundoran, for an order remitting the action to the County Court Judge of Donegal. The action is brought by Mr. William H. Graves, garage keeper, of Bundoran, to recover damages for alleged slander.

Mr. M. C. Maguire (instructed by Mr. Thomas Orr), who appeared for the plaintiff, consenting,

Mr. Justice Gordon made an order directing that the action should be tried at the Spring Assizes in Enniskillen before a judge without a jury.

DUBLIN PORT AND DOCKS BOARD.

THE METAL BRIDGE.

DUBLIN DOCKYARD COMPANY.

The weekly meeting of the Dublin Port and Docks Board was held yesterday, Mr. William Crowe, Chairman, presiding. Other members present were:—

Sir James Murphy, Bart., D.L.; Thomas M. O'Beirne, T.C.; Alderman Alfred Byrne, M.P.; James Vaughan, T.C.; Richard K. Gamble, J.P.; William Field, M.P.; Frederick H. Hall, Thomas R. M'Cullagh, William Wallace, J.P.; Marcus Goodbody, J.P.; George Byrne, J.P.; James W. Hill, J.P.; S. S. M'Cormick, J.P.; John Hollwey, William Hewat, William J. Dollar, J.P., and H. G. Burgess.

DREDGING RETURN.

The Secretary reported that during the week 19,450 tons were dredged for maintenance of the harbour, but none for improvement. The total dredged for the corresponding period last year was 33,540 tons.

THE METAL BRIDGE.

Mr. Wm. Field, M.P., said with regard to the Metal Bridge he would like to know what was the exact state of affairs. He understood the bridge was under the jurisdiction of the Port and Docks Board.

The Secretary—No, that is not the case.

Mr. Field—And the tolls in connection therewith belong to the Corporation.

The Secretary—Yes, from the first of this month.

Mr. Field said the lease had expired, and some other arrangement would have to be entered into with regard to the passage of traffic from one side of the quays to the other.

The Secretary—That is a matter for the Corporation solely.

Mr. Field said that was precisely the point he wanted to get at. He understood they had not anything to do with regard to the transmission of passengers from one side of the quay to the other; at the same time they had an interest in the bridge, and it would be better for both parties if they could facilitate one another. It would be useful to the public to know how they stood, and ascertain from the Corporation, with whom they would be willing to co-operate, what was going to happen.

Mr. Hewat thought the matter raised by Mr. Field was one of public interest. Mr. Field, however, might not be aware that the Corporation invited them not long ago to confer with them on the subject of the Metal Bridge, or perhaps it was the ferry. The leases of the two went together, and he understood they had expired. Personally, he thought the proper thing to do would be to demolish that bridge, and put up a proper bridge in its place. That was an item of expenditure which, however, neither the Corporation nor the Port and Docks Board were going to face at the present time, but one matter they were all agreed upon was that the bridge should be an ornament to the city, and administered in the public interest.

The Chairman said the Board had appointed a committee to consult with the Corporation on the ferry question, and the question of the Metal Bridge was discussed. The matter was simply postponed until the lease expired. He suggested the re-appointment of the same committee to again confer with the Corporation on the subject.

Mr. Field moved that the Chairman's suggestion be adopted.

Mr. Hewat said the onus rested on the Corporation to invite them.

Mr. Vaughan said the position at the present time was that the lessees had refused to give up possession, and the matter had been referred to the Law Agent. When possession was obtained it was the intention of the Corporation to throw open the bridge to the public.

Mr. Field's motion was adopted.

DUBLIN DOCKYARD COMPANY.

Mr. Goodbody said that there was another matter which he wished to bring before the Board. Most of them had doubtless read a statement in the newspapers made by Mr. O'Beirne at a recent meeting of the Corporation in regard to the dealings of the Board and the Dublin Dockyard Company. He desired to relate the facts.

Alderman Byrne—Should we not have notice of this? It should be deferred until Mr. O'Beirne arrives. I ask you, Chairman, to rule the matter out of order, especially as a member is being attacked.

Mr. Goodbody—There is no attack.

The Chairman—I am in the Board's hands.

Mr. Burgess—I propose that Mr. Goodbody be heard.

Alderman Byrne—That settles it. The dictator has spoken.

Mr. Baird—I second that.

Mr. Goodbody then read the following statement:—In 1915 the Dockyard Company applied to the Board for a piece of land on the eastern side, adjoining the graving dock. When this became known, some firms, part of whose business was repairing, wrote protesting, and stating that if this was granted it would give the Dockyard Company a practical monopoly of the graving dock, as they already had all the ground on the west side, and would destroy competition in the ship repairing business in Dublin. In the face of this the Board referred all these letters to a small committee, two of whose members were the Lord Mayor and Sir John Griffith, a director of the Dockyard Company, to examine into and report. This committee has not yet reported. The cause of the delay may be that Sir John Griffith retired from the Board in August. The Board, in spite of the strong protests of these firms, gave the Dockyard Company a temporary letting of a piece of land adjoining, and part of the public slip, though it was stated that this greatly interfered with the business of the other firms. Also the Dockyard Company well knew that the Board are prepared to treat with them on liberal terms for a large parcel of land on the east of the Alexandra Basin, where they will have ample room for large extensions for many years; also that the Board have refused applications for smaller pieces of this land from other people in order to keep it open for the Dockyard Company.

Mr. Field moved that discussion on the matter be deferred until Mr. O'Beirne was present.

Alderman Byrne seconded, and remarked that Mr. O'Beirne would be able to prove his statement.

It was unanimously agreed to postpone discussion.

At this stage Mr. O'Beirne entered the Boardroom.

Alderman Byrne asked when the matter would again come before the Board.

The Chairman—This day week.

Mr. O'Beirne—I understand that a statement has been made here concerning me. If Mr. Goodbody made it we all know what he is capable of saying.

The Board subsequently adjourned.

MARKET REPORTS.

CATTLE.

DUBLIN METROPOLITAN CATTLE MARKET, North Circular road, Thursday, 5th October, 1916.—Supplies of cattle this morning proved a couple of hundred head in excess of last week's offerings, but sheep 300 or so less; in neither divisions, however, was there variation in an ordinary way calculated to disturb the balance of trading. We had another large representative and business-like attendance of home and cross-Channel dealers and butchers. Much less hesitancy, too, was exhibited by shippers in dealing with suitable drafts of stock in view of the better tone governing trade in leading centres at the other side. Market consequently developed a decidedly healthy feeling throughout, values showing corresponding buoyancy and cohesion. For choice qualities of cattle currencies were on a firmer basis, without being quotably dearer in the main, but for good medium classes there was a tightening up of perhaps 10/- per head. For mutton prices here and there were occasionally dearer where home trade wethers and the best type of shipping hoggets were concerned, but otherwise there was little quotable alteration over the week. Lamb season done. Veal calves on easier side.

	Numbers on Sale. This week as compared with last.		Corresponding weeks of 1915.	1914.
Beasts	4,887	Increase 227	4,590	3,767
Sheep and lambs	7,220	Decrease 317	8,043	6,909
Veal calves		7 Increase	22	30

The beast market opened early and active. Choice finished qualities of steers were none too plentiful, and more especially the heavier types fitting certain export requirements, and all got quickly sold up. It was difficult, however, to appreciably better previous terms for best average finished bullocks and heifers, which again repeated from 50/- to 54/- per cwt., and 55/- and 56/- per for occasional extra and fancy lots. Good medium sorts of slaughter cattle, however, recorded a rather better scale average than last week, say 6d. to 1/- per cwt. improvement, or about 10/- per head. At all events, quotations took a narrower range at from 46/6 to 49/- and 50/-, live, whilst on fair, but coarser, drafts, too, there was less irregularity in currencies, and altogether terms were a tighter shade and a good clearance was readily accomplished. Rough and inferior beasts figuring anywhere from 38/- to 45/- per cwt. With regard to fat cows, there was a fair turn in of exhibits, and the nicer lots got relatively more satisfactory placed than other sorts of cattle, there being really good shipping support besides that of local fleshers. Best quality young butchering cows realised 44/- to 46/- and 48/- per cwt.; medium sorts, 38/- to 42/6, and inferior proportionately.

In the sheep department, some revival in the shipping demand, combined with shorter supply to be dealt with, gave considerable impetus to business all round, and pens were well cleared out of all suitable drafts at a comparatively early hour. There were, however, many pens of horny wethers in but middling condition, and some coarse sappy ewes after lambing that did not appear to fit general requirements, and these only put a drag on sales. For choice qualities of wether mutton terms work out again about 9½d. to 10d. and 10¼d. per lb. best ewes, 8½d. to 9d. and 9½d. per lb., and coarser classes of sheep, say 7½d. to 8d. per lb. Lamb season now practically done. Those of hogget type in strong request at from 48/- to 55/- and 56/- each.

Veal calves number but seven exhibits for the pick of which 9½d. to 10½d. per lb. was paid, and for the coarser sorts say 7½d. to 8d. per lb.

DUBLIN STORE, North Circular road, 5th October.—Entrants for various sale fixtures to-day embraced about an average display of beasts in number and quality. Buyers, too, were well in evidence, and altogether business worked more satisfactory to owners than for past couple of weeks. The healthier state governing market for fat cattle gave a certain tonic and impetus to biddings, and very few lots failed to reach or exceed reserves. There was consequently a good general clearance effected. Salesmasters' individual reports will be best guide to run of values.

DUBLIN DAIRY, North Circular road, 5th October.—There were 252 dairy exhibits to be dealt with. Trade was distinctly improved and active for good useful stockers, but particularly so for those of extra merit and milch capacity, on which prices ruled high. However, on the whole, terms were scarcely varied. Choice heavy type springers and fresh calved beasts, £27 to £33 to £35 and £36 each; medium ditto, £22 to £26, and other sorts of cows, £11 to £21 each.

DUBLIN METROPOLITAN PIG North Circular road, October 5.—Number penned, 910, being an increase of 68 over previous Thursday's entrants. Bidding from the commencement was very slow, consequently prices show an all-round decrease of 2/- per cwt. from last market. A clearance was not effected until a late hour. Quotations:—Choice porkers and heavy shipping pigs, 84/- to 90/- and 92/- per cwt.; stores, 70/- to 98/- each; according to size and quality; slips, 50/- to 66/- each; bonhams, 30/- to 45/- each.

GANLY, SONS, AND CO., Cattle Salesmen, Offices and Wool Stores, 18, 19, and 20 Usher's quay, Dublin. Dublin Cattle Market Report, Thursday, 5th October, 1916.—On the basis of last week's quotations, cattle met with a somewhat better inquiry, and a good clearance was effected. Sheep and lambs in better request at slightly firmer prices. Cattle (best), 51/- to 54/- per cwt.; choice Angus crosses, up to 56/- per cwt.; other qualities, 45/- to 50/- per cwt.; mutton, 9d. to 10¼d.; lambs, 28/- to 52/-. Auction dates:—Wednesday next, October 11th—Final Auction of Brood Ewes, Wethers, and Store Lambs in the Dublin Cattle Market. Thursday next, October 12th—Auction of Store Cattle in 63 Prussia street. Thursday next, October 12th—Auction of Aberdeen-Angus Cattle and Black-faced Scotch Sheep (the property of Viscount Iveagh and the Congested Districts Board) will be held at Ross Hill, Clonbur. Turnings, Straffan—The Annual Letting of Grazing Lands for R. J. Mills will be held on Friday, 20th October. Telephone No. 216. Telegrams—"Ganly, Usher's quay, Dublin."—(Advt.)

GAVIN LOW, LTD., 50 Prussia street, Dublin, 5th October, 1916. Market Report.—Supplies.—Cattle, 4,887—increase, 227; sheep, 7,220—decrease 317. Well-finished bullocks were in better demand at an advance of about 1/- per cwt., but there was no change in prices of others. The supply of fat sheep and lambs was smaller than last week, and prices of such were rather higher, but thin and rough descriptions, of which there was a large number, were difficult to clear. Quotations:—Best bullocks and heifers from 52/- to 55/6 per cwt., live weight; others, from 45/- to 51/- per cwt., live weight; mutton 9d. to 11d. per lb.; lambs, 30/- to 55/- each. Fixture:—October 18th—Sale of very valuable Lands in County Meath, in the matter of Laura D. Dyas, a minor, at the Gresham Hotel, Dublin. Conditions of sale on application to Gavin Low, Ltd. Store Cattle Sale every Thursday.—(Advt.)

R. AND J. WILKINSON, 40 and 41 Prussia street, Dublin, 5th October, 1916. Cattle Market Circular.—There was a slightly increased supply today, but the market was composed chiefly of unfinished cattle, which met a slow trade at rather weaker prices, but for best lots the demand was good at recent rates. Sheep were again a small market, and the prices were maintained. Best cattle, 50/- to 55/-; others, 36/- to 49/- per cwt. (live weight); mutton, 8½d. to 10½d. per lb. Beasts, 4,887—increase, 277; sheep, 7,220—decrease, 317. N.B.—All sheep and lambs coming to market must be accompanied by a certificate of having been twice dipped since 31st July. Store Cattle Sale every Thursday.—(Advt.)

LAURENCE CUFFE AND SONS' REPORT, Smithfield, Dublin, 6th October, 1916.—Business was much sharper in our cattle section, and, although prices were very little better, it was a much quieter trade, with everything sold pretty early. Sheep were equally easily sold, and here, also, there were practically none left on hand. Stores very steady, and, now that prices for the autumn are fairly well fixed, there are more buyers coming in to invest. Fat cattle, 35/- to 55/- per cwt.; stores, 44/- to 54/- per cwt.; mutton, 9d. to 11d. per lb. N.B.—Store Cattle Sale every week. Sale of small farm near Dublin on Thursday, 26th October.—(Advt.)

SMITH, GRIFFIN, AND CO., 56 and 57 Prussia street, Dublin, 5th October, 1916.—With an increase of over 200 cattle at this day's market, trade was firmer at an advance of 10/- per head for best finished beasts; others easier sold at late rates. Sheep and lambs met a fair trade at unchanged rates. Small and thin lambs not wanted. Quotations:—Beef, 65/- to 95/- per cwt., or 40/- to 52/-, and fancy lots, 53/- to 54/- per cwt., live weight; mutton, 8½d. to 11d. per lb.; lambs, 28/- to 55/- each. Dipping certificates required with all consignments of sheep and lambs.—(Advt.)

DUFFEY, MANGAN, AND BUTLER, Cattle Salesmen, 37 Smithfield, Dublin, Thursday, October 5th, 1916.—Increase of 277 beasts and decrease of 317 sheep and lambs. With a better attendance of buyers, trade was more active, and full rates of last market were well maintained, with a firmer tendency in better qualities. Sheep easier sold and slightly dearer. Trade for lambs not so good. Beef, live weight, 40/- to 54/- per cwt.; mutton, 9d. to 11d. per lb.; lambs, 25/- to 60/- each.—(Advt.)

HANBURY AND POTTERTON, Smithfield House, October 5th, 1916.—Numbers:—Cattle, 4,887—increase, 227; sheep, 7,220—decrease, 317. Trade continues very slow for cattle at a further reduction in prices. Sheep were dearer, while lambs were much neglected, a large number being turned out unsold. Beef, for best, from 48/- to 52/- per cwt., live weight; others, 38/- to 45/- per cwt.; mutton, 8d to 11d. per lb.—(Advt.)

ARMSTRONG AND SMITH'S REPORT, 25 Prussia street, 5th October, 1916.—Beasts, 4,887—increase, 277; sheep, 7,220—decrease, 317. Well-finished lots of cattle in good demand, and may be quoted a shade dearer. All others sold at last week's prices. Sheep met a better selling trade, although not much quotable change in prices. Beef, 40/- to 50/-, extra to 54/- per cwt., live weight; mutton, 9d. to 10½d. per lb.—(Advt.)

WILLIAM A. WALLIS, Cattle Salesman, Offices, 17 Lower Ormond quay and New Cattle Market, Dublin, 5th October, 1916.—The numbers to-day show an increase of 277 beasts and a decrease of 317 sheep. Beef in better demand to-day at about late rates, and, in some instances, more money forthcoming. Sheep, too, were in better request at increased prices for the better selections. Prices:—Beef, prime, 50/- to 53/-, extra 54/- per cwt., live weight; other grades, 38/- to 48/- per ditto; mutton, 8d. to 11½d. per lb. Numbers—Beasts, 4,887; sheep, 7,220. Telegrams—"Transit, Dublin."—(Advt.)

P. O'CONNOR AND SON, Cattle, Sheep, and Wool Salesmen, 49 Queen street, Dublin, 5th October, 1916. Market Report—Except for finished cattle, we cannot say that prices were any better in our market to-day, but with owners conceding more willingly to sell at the reduced prices current at from 47/- to 50/- per cwt., a good clearance was established, and the market finished satisfactorily. There were many buyers for fat cows, and at the present reduced prices of bullocks and heifers, young fat cows make as much money. In the sheep department, there was a marked improvement in classes suitable for export. Lambs also sold well, and prices were well maintained. Telephone No. 535.—(Advt.)

ROBERT CRAIGIE'S REPORT, 37 Prussia street, Dublin, 5th October, 1916.—Supplies:—Cattle, 4,887—increase 227; sheep, 7,220—decrease 317. Cattle trade very firm, best lots of bullocks and heifers making an advance of from 10/- to 20/- per head, with a better inquiry for secondary sorts. Sheep and lambs also shared in the general improvement, prices advancing about 2/- per head. Quotations:—Cattle (best), from 50/- to 55/- per cwt., live weight; secondary, from 44/- to 49/- per cwt., live weight; cows and bulls, from 38/- to 49/- per cwt., live weight; sheep, from 8½d. to 11d. per lb.; lambs, from 32/- to 58/- each. Telegrams—"Craigie, Dublin." Telephone 2553.—(Advt.)

REPORT OF MESSRS. BERGIN, O'CONNOR, AND CO., Cattle Salesmen, 11 St. Joseph's road, Dublin, Thursday, October 5th, 1916.—Supplies:—Cattle, 4,887—increase, 277; sheep, 7,220—decrease 317. Demand for choice bullocks was well sustained at prices favouring sellers, but this did not extend to middling or inferior sorts, for which last week's rates were in many cases not quite obtained. Sheep rather easier sold, but prices not quotably altered. Quotations:—Cattle (best), 50/- to 53/- and 54/- per cwt., live weight; secondary, 46/- to 49/- per cwt.; cows, bulls, etc., 37/- to 45/- per cwt., live weight; mutton, 9d. to 11d. per lb.; lambs, 28/- to 58/- each. N.B.—Between 1st September and 15th November sheep and lambs exposed for sale in Dublin Cattle Market must be accompanied by a declaration that they have been twice dipped since 31st July. Telephone No. 3860. Telegraphic address—"Approve, Dublin."—(Advt.)

JOHN F. CUFFE, Auctioneer, Cattle and Sheep Salesman, 73 Prussia street, Dublin. Cattle Market Report, 5th October, 1916.—With a seasonable offering of cattle at market to-day, and a good attendance of cross-Channel and local buyers, trade was better for all classes of finished goods by 1/- and 2/- per cwt.; rougher sorts easier sold at late rates, and a good clearance effected. Sheep also met a better trade, with prices slightly in sellers' favour. Lambs out of season, and hard to sell. Finished beef, 50/- to 54/-, except stores, up to 56/- per cwt.; mutton, 9½d. to 11d. per lb. Sale of Holdings at Coolock on Thursday, 12th inst. Sale of Farm at Corballis, in the City Arms Hotel on the 10th inst. Telephone 4840. Telegrams—"Bullocks, Dublin."—(Advt.)

LONDON METROPOLITAN, October 5.—The market exhibited quite a nominal state of affairs, only 76 beasts and 7 sheep being offered.

BIRMINGHAM, October 5.—Not many beasts on offer, and mutton also scarce. Good supply of pigs, but trade was slow, and prices declined. Quotations:—Beef from 10d. to 11½d. per lb.; mutton, 10d. to 1/1; lamb, 1/1 to 1/2 per lb. Bacon and cutting pigs 18/3 per score, sows 16/3.

PROVISIONS.

LIVERPOOL, Thursday.—BACON—Chicago advices were again very irregular, values of live hogs giving way to a further considerable extent, but speculative products on a decidedly higher level, but the bacon here appeared to be unaffected one way or the other. Buyers operated to a moderate extent, while holders were firm and offered sparingly, the prices being repeated for all sizes. HAMS unchanged. Irish, Danish, and Canadian sides quiet, without material change in values. SHOULDERS were firm, with a moderate demand. [illegible] suggesting an occasional advance of 1/- per cwt. [illegible] reduced about 1/- per cwt. HAMS firm, and long cut American was in small supply, with recent advance fully maintained. LARD on the spot, following the sharp rise in Chicago, was held for 6d. to 1/- cwt. advance, though not [illegible]. CHEESE continued to be firmly held at recent rates for finest white and coloured, though business was of only a moderate character. BUTTER quiet, and purchases could be made on easier terms. 2668 full for Irish, but Canadian steadily held. REFINED LARD FUTURES—The sharp rise in Chicago was reflected here, and initial transactions showed 9d. to 1/- advance. Business was experienced, and values further improved, with slight fluctuations, prices at the close being 1/- to 1/1½ cwt. over last night. October realised 81/9 to 82/-, November 81/7½, and 81/6, December 79/9 to 80/-, and January 78/6 to 78/7½ cwt. General quotations:—New Lincolnshire clover and clover mixture nominally up to £7 10s.; new meadow hay, £7 7s. 6d. Old straw still firm at 86/8 to 87/6; new, 75/- to 80/- per ton; all delivered Manchester.

WOOL.

BRADFORD, October 5.—Merino tops continue to show an upward tendency, and, owing to the shortage of labour for civilian trade, topmakers will not promise delivery before January on new orders. Crossbred tops are steady, and there is a fair demand for carded and prepared sorts. The outlook is considered healthy. Free home wools are well held, with Downs at from 23d. to 24d., and Lincolns and Notts 20d.

DUBLIN WEEKLY, 5th October.—The general tone of wool markets rather favours holders. The coarser grades of cross-breds in fact command stiffer rates, but it is difficult to see any change in other descriptions of wool. Anything doing at this side of Channel, however is in the taking up of Government commandeered parcels on the fixed scale of charges.

STORE CATTLE SALES.

MESSRS. GANLY, SONS, AND CO.

The usual weekly sale of store cattle was held yesterday by Messrs. Ganly, Sons and Co., in their lairs, 63 Prussia street, adjoining the Cattle Market. There was a fairly large display of stock, and buyers being numerous and keenly anxious to obtain suitable stores, there was spirited bidding for all lots. Aged cattle were sought for, and good prices were paid for those showing quality and forward condition. Well-bred two-year-olds and yearlings also met a good demand. Best bullocks sold at from £21 10s. to £25 10s.; other sorts £17 5s. 6d. to £19, and best heifers to £21 10s. Some nicely bred Aberdeen Angus crosses made top live weight quotation of 50/- to 53/- per cwt.

MESSRS. GAVIN LOW.

Although the attendance of buyers was almost entirely confined to local feeders, trade for store cattle to-day was on practically the same firm basis which prevailed during the past three weeks. The entries at this week's sale totalled 381, the majority of which were forward conditioned aged bullocks, for which prices ranged from 47/- to 53/- per cwt. There were also plenty of buyers for well-bred one and a half and two year olds, and a very good clearance was effected of all descriptions. Best forward bullocks and heifers made £23 10s., £23 5s., £22 17s. 6d., £22 12s. 6d., £22 7s. 6d., £22 5s., £22, £21 15s., £21 7s. 6d., £21 5s., £21, £19; polies, £23 10s., £22 10s., £21 10s., £19 10s., £19 7s. 6d., £19; A.A. crosses, £18 17s. 6d., £18 7s. 6d. Heraford crosses, £21 10s.; one and a half and two year olds made from £12 10s. to £17 10s.

MESSRS. L. CUFFE AND SONS.

Following on a fairly good beef market, the demand for stores was well sustained to-day, and pretty nearly all the lots entered were sold. For feeding bullocks, at £24 10s., £24, £22, £21 10s., £21 and £20, prices were from 48/6 to 54/-, polies making no more than a normal price. For heifers and bullocks under £20, rates ran from 48/- to 49/-. The best customers again were local feeders; the cross-Channel trade, and more particularly so for polies, being again rather quiet. The above firm will hold the usual weekly sale on next Thursday.

MESSRS. R. AND J. WILKINSON.

DUBLIN COUNTY COUNCIL.

Mr. P. J. O'Neill (chairman) presided at the meeting of the County Dublin County Council meeting held yesterday. There also attended Mr. James Mahony (vice-chairman), Messrs. J. Bagnall, M. Broderick, T. Clarke, J. Collins, A. B. Coyle, J. Doyle, M. Dunne, W. Field, M.P.; M. Flood, A. Graham, M. F. Judd, J. J. Lawlor, W. McCabe, Joseph O'Neill, J. F. O'Farrell, and P. Reilly.

Before the Council proceeded to deal with its business the Chairman referred to the death of Mr. A. J. Kettle, a loss which was national rather than local in its character. In his early youth Mr. Kettle, said the Chairman, had determined by diligence and study in the pursuit of his education and career to make good what the facilities of the time seemed to render impossible. It was natural that a study of the land question should be the first to engage his brilliant intellect. No man in Irish life had a more profound or intimate knowledge of land tenure in Ireland. (Hear, hear.) It was largely owing to him that land reform became such a burning question in Irish politics that it could be no longer ignored by those who were responsible for the conduct of its political affairs. He moved a vote of condolence with Mrs. Kettle and family, and that the Council record their grateful appreciation of Mr. A. J. Kettle's long and arduous labours in promoting the Irish national cause.

Mr. Dunne seconded the motion. He remarked "the head of the house has left us," and that his memory would live for generations to come. Mr. Kettle's name was a household word in Dublin and Galway. For the benefit of his fellow-countrymen he had sacrificed many things, and it was a lesson to them not to forget any other noble-minded man who stood up to serve his country.

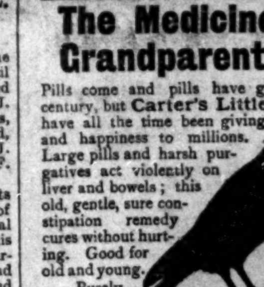

Mr. Field said that as an old associate of Mr. Kettle's he desired to express his concurrence with the resolution and the tributes paid to his memory by the proposer and seconder.

Messrs. Lawlor and Reilly also supported the resolution, and it was passed in silence.

The following letter to the Lord Provost was read at the Glasgow Corporation yesterday from the Chancellor of the Exchequer:—"You may assure the citizens of Glasgow that they are being treated as regards sugar supplies on exactly the same footing as all other parts of the United Kingdom." In a postscript Mr. McKenna said: "As soon as sugar becomes more plentiful I will do the utmost to see that Glasgow gets an adequate supply."

COLLIERY WORKERS AND ABSENTEEISM.

The executors of the Miners' Federation of Great Britain yesterday concluded a two days' private conference at Southport. The principal subject discussed was absenteeism by colliery workers. The Home Office is arranging a big delegate meeting representing each pit in the United Kingdom on lines similar to that held at the London Opera House last year to take place in London on the 25th inst., the day before, it is expected, the representatives of the Coalowners' and Miners' Executive will meet, when reports will be presented from central and local committees established in various colliery areas, before whom colliery employés neglecting their work from time to time are summoned, showing whether or not improvement has resulted since the committees' establishment.

FUNERAL OF THE ZEPPELIN CREW.

The remains of the crew of the Zeppelin which was brought down near Potter's Bar on Sunday night were buried yesterday afternoon in the small parish cemetery just outside the village, the spot selected for the interment being close to the graves of the crew of the airship wrecked at Cuffley. The time of the funeral was kept a close secret by the Royal Flying Corps, which had charge of the arrangements. Consequently there were but few spectators. A large force of police were in attendance, but their work was not very onerous. The body of the officer who was in command of the airship was enclosed in a coffin of Japanese ash, and this was covered by a black pall. The members of the crew, whose remains were placed in similar coffins, without palls, were buried together in one big grave, the body of the commander being interred in a single grave at the head. The commander's coffin bore a plate upon which was the inscription: "Commander Mathy, died on service, October 1st, 1916." At the graveside the Funeral Service was read by the Vicar of the parish, assisted by an Army Chaplain, and it was noticed that the latter, in committing the body of the commander, used the phrase, "The body of this German officer, so departed," instead of the usual ritual. Whilst the ceremony was proceeding at the graveside an aeroplane flew overhead.

The members of the crew, whose remains were placed in similar coffins, without palls, were buried together in one big grave, the body of the commander being interred in a single grave at the head. The commander's coffin bore a plate upon which was the inscription: "Commander Mathy, died on service, October 1st, 1916." At the graveside the Funeral Service was read by the Vicar of the parish, assisted by an Army chaplain, and it was noticed that the latter, in committing the body of the commander, used the phrase, "The body of this German officer, departed," instead of the usual ritual. Whilst the ceremony was proceeding at the graveside an aeroplane flew overhead.

MILITARY SERVICE.

IRISHMEN IN GREAT BRITAIN.

THE QUESTION OF ORDINARY RESIDENCE

The question of whether or no an Irishman who has worked in Great Britain for a limited period is ordinarily resident there, and consequently compelled to serve in the Army, was argued yesterday before Mr. MacInerney, K.C., in the Northern Division of the Dublin Police Court. The case was one in which Frank M'Grane, residing at 21 Jane place, off Oriel street, was charged by Police Sergeant Carroll (25 C) with absenting himself from the Army. When it came before the magistrate on Tuesday it appeared that the sergeant had arrested M'Grane in consequence of a document signed by a Glasgow recruiting officer and forwarded to the Superintendent of the Dublin Police. Having worked for nine months in Glasgow M'Grane returned to Dublin at Christmas, 1915, and was now with his former employers, Brooks, Thomas and Co., Ltd.

Mr. John Cusack, Barrister-at-Law (instructed by Mr. John Robertson) now prosecuted on behalf of the Crown; and Mr. Jas. Brady, solicitor, defended M'Grane.

Alderman Alfred Byrne, M.P., who had interested himself in the matter, was again in court.

Mr. Cusack stated the Crown case. He cited as bearing upon the case, Section 154 of the Army Act, 1881; Section 16 of the Reserve Forces Act of 1882, which prescribed the mode of dealing with a deserter or an absentee from the Army. His worship was not asked to try the man for the offence; all he had to do was to hear evidence that the defendant was an absentee, and if he decided that was so, to hand him over to the military authorities, by whom he would be tried in accordance with Section 14 of the Military Forces Act.

Mr. Brady—Those Acts do not apply to Ireland.

Mr. Cusack—Nobody has suggested that they do. If a man commits a felony in Scotland, and then comes over here, do you suggest that he cannot be sent to Scotland for trial?

Mr. Cusack proceeded to quote the recent Military Service Acts. He argued that the man came within the first Act, as being resident in Great Britain on the 15th of August; and within the second as being resident since the 15th of August, and hence transferred to the reserve. The only exemptions were those in the first section of the latter Act. The defendant could put forward that he had not been ordinarily resident in Great Britain, or that he had gone there for some special purpose. The controversy in such cases had turned on the point of a man being ordinarily resident in Great Britain. Mr. Brady seemed to think that Irishmen were exempt from these Military Acts. Irishmen ordinarily resident in Great Britain were subject to them. That a man was a domiciled Irishman did not, ipso facto, exempt him from military service. If a man went across for a few days he was not ordinarily resident there; but if he went across in the pursuance of his mode of life, and worked there day by day, he was ordinarily resident. The test was not whether he was permanently or temporarily resident there; it was not a test of time. It was a test of whether he was carrying out his ordinary livelihood and living there for that purpose. He might be a domiciled Irishman or have a home in Dublin; but residence was not the same as domicile. The Act applied to a man who had been, or was for the time being, ordinarily resident there.

The Magistrate—But suppose he went over there and worked for one day?

Mr. Cusack—If he went over to earn his livelihood, worked there for one day, and got disgusted with the work, or something of that sort, I would not say that he is ordinarily resident for that time. But I say that, in the case of this man who worked there for six months, he is ordinarily resident. I said that time is not the test, but you must take time into consideration. Men who go over to help with the harvest, who reap the harvest, and come home, go for a special purpose. But a man like this, who, I believe, is a sawyer, cannot be said to go for a special purpose.

The magistrate raised the point of a man who went across to take the place of another engaged in munition work.

Mr. Cusack answered that the defendant had not gone to take the place of a man in Army, but for the purpose of earning his livelihood. A man who went across to instal electric light went for a special purpose. The onus lay on the defendant to show that he had gone for a special purpose. The real object of his going to Scotland was to earn higher wages.

MR. BRADY'S DEFENCE.

Mr. Brady said that if Mr. Cusack's contention was held to be good the Government would succeed in capturing as soldiers 10,000 Irish trade unionists who were, at the Government's request, carrying out munition work in Scotland and England. Now that was rather an alarming stand for the Government to take at this hour of day. Mr. Cusack had admitted that the Military Service Acts did not apply to Ireland. There was an extraordinary defect in the Army Act. This country was now the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. Ireland was a separate and distinct kingdom, and was prescribed to as such under the Act of Union. Therefore, any statute which the Government sought to have enforced in Ireland must be a statute which applied to the United Kingdom. The Army Act only applied to Great Britain, strange to say; it did not apply to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland. But it was applied to the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man as if they were part of Great Britain.

The magistrate observed that the Army Acts of 1881 was the one upon which the Crown relied.

Mr. Brady, continuing, said that Great Britain, as a nation, before the Act of Union had been England, Wales, and Scotland; and then by the Act of Union Ireland was captured. None of these statutes, in any sense, brought the defendant into their clutches. In the Dublin Labour Exchange and elsewhere there was posted a notice that any trade unionist who consented to go to England to perform munition work should not be subject to military service. A solemn undertaking had been given.

Mr. Cusack—But you forget that your man went over there before the Act was passed at all.

Mr. Brady said that was the game to capture 10,000 men who had wasted their energies in making munitions. He had there Mr. Alfred Byrne, who deserved credit for the stand he had taken both in the House of Commons and elsewhere. He had there the opinion of Sir Edward Carson, which he gave for what it was worth. He was reading, at all events, the statement of an eminent Irishman, who was a personal friend of his own, though he disagreed with him politically. Sir Edward Carson was a man for whose opinion he had great respect as a lawyer.

Mr. Cusack—But in the House of Commons?

Mr. Brady read the following excerpt from a speech which Sir Edward Carson delivered on the 11th of January, 1916, in discussing the Military Service Act:—"As the bill at present stands a man in England, in a good job, may be seized hold of by the recruiting sergeant, and he may be sent to the front, and an Irishman may be lent for, just from over the Channel, and be brought over to take his job, and he can stay here and carry out the other man's work, and not a word can be said to him till the end of the war by the recruiting sergeant. (An hon. Member—I do not think it is so.) That is absolutely so, because, unless he is living here permanently, and was here on the 15th of August, he cannot be touched. I will be glad if it is not meant to be so; but the hon. member may take it from me, as a matter of construction of the bill itself, that it is so, and very clearly so."

Mr. Cusack commented that the gentleman whose opinion Mr. Brady had read used the word "permanently," but that there was no such word in the Act.

Mr. Brady rejoined that he was only showing what had at the time been the intention of the Act. Mr. Walter Long had said the same thing, and Mr. Tennant had repeated that the Act did not apply to such men. Mr. Brady referred to a letter which the latter gentleman had written to Mr. Byrne.

Mr. Cusack objected that a private letter from Mr. Tennant to Mr. Byrne was not evidence.

Mr. Brady said that if an Irish member of Parliament went across to the House of Commons he would be resident in Great Britain for the time being, and would be captured. Perhaps it was intended to capture some member of the Irish party.

Mr. Cusack—A member of Parliament is across there for a special purpose.

Mr. Brady—And so is my man.

A UNION OFFICIAL'S EVIDENCE.

Mr. Patrick Gavin, local secretary of the Amalgamated Society of Machinists, of which M'Grane was a member, said that in March, 1915, the General Secretary wrote from England saying that he objected to have so many men idle in Dublin. M'Grane had then his choice either to go to munition work in Manchester or in Glasgow, or to have his benefit stopped. It was a permanent rule of the society that if a man refused to go to a job his benefit was stopped. M'Grane happened to be single at that time. As the other idle men were married they were not forced to go. When M'Grane had come last to Dublin, at Christmas, 1915, he was re-employed by Brooks, Thomas, and Co.

Cross-examined by Mr. Cusack, the witness said that members of the union always liked to come back to Dublin.

Mr. Cusack—I suppose some of them stay across for years and years, and are satisfied? I only know of one man.

And you say that no Dublin worker would stay across there? They would sooner come back here.

Re-examined by Mr. Brady, Mr. Gavin said that the Act was under discussion at the time M'Grane went across.

M'Grane made a statement. He said that the Secretary of the Union had given him nine shillings to pay his travelling expenses to Scotland. He had been "sacked" only temporarily by Brooks, Thomas, and Co., and when he was again in Dublin he was asked to go back. He had not been out of Ireland in his life until that time.

Mr. Cusack submitted to his worship that the defendant had not gone to Scotland specially for munition work. Being idle in Dublin, he went to Scotland to practise his ordinary trade, and the fact that his trade happened to be munition work did not make that a special purpose. On the second point, Mr. Cusack submitted that the defendant had ordinarily resided in Scotland for nine months doing his work. He asked the magistrate to put the man into military custody.

Mr. Brady said that the form which the defendant was supposed to have signed on the 15th of August, 1915, was not forthcoming. He was instructed to say that the defendant had written on that form "Permanent residence, so-and-so, Dublin." He supposed that was why the form was not there. Everybody knew that munition work was special work brought about by the war.

The magistrate said that the only question he had to decide was whether the defendant came under the exception to the rule; and, forming the best opinion he could, he thought that the defendant had gone there for a special purpose—namely, to work at munitions. It had been held by everybody that munition work was a special purpose. He did not know about the defendant's being "ordinarily resident." If the word had been "domiciled" it might have been different. He held that the defendant had gone over for a special purpose, and discharged him.

"CARMEL."

A meeting of the Executive Committee was held in the Priory, Whitefriar street, last Tuesday night. The Committee had before them the selection of a suitable venue for the Bazaar, which is to be held in May next, and it was unanimously decided that it should be held at Terenure College Park. In order that every advantage should be taken of the splendid facilities offered, a Planning and Decorating Sub-Committee, consisting of Messrs. C. Powell, C.E.; T. J. Cullen, C.E.; M. Cullen, C.E.; C. Fallon, J. J. Shell, H. Gorevan, G. Moonan, W. Early, J. P. Kenny, and J. A. Smyth, was appointed to draw up a plan for the decoration of the grounds and the erection of suitable buildings. The meeting adjourned to Monday next at 8 p.m.

SPORTING NEWS.

LIMERICK MEETING, YESTERDAY.

Heavy rain fell throughout racing hours at Limerick yesterday, and the course towards the end of the day became very holding, with the result that there were some upsets to form. Newpark and Minstrel Park, the joint favourites for the Directors' Plate, were both beaten by the outsider, Supremacy, who, in company with his stable companion, Loch Stack, was in front practically all the way. Newpark looked like scoring when he drew up to Supremacy half a mile from home, but, striking the next hurdle and cutting a tendon, he dropped completely out of the reckoning. I See, the favourite for the Greenpark Plate, was in front all the way, and won in easy style, subsequent to which she was submitted to auction, but failed to elicit a bid. Lautus, carrying a 7lb. penalty for Wednesday's win, had an easy journey for the Limerick Plate. Hill of Camas, who was a strong favourite, made the running to the last fence, where Golden Fleece headed him, but Lautus, who up to this stage was some distance behind, quickly overhauled both, and taking the lead in the straight, won in runaway style. Yet another outsider scored when the lightly-weighted Kafue, revelling in the deep going, led all the way in the Autumn Plate; but in the Three Miles Steeplechase The Cardinal readily landed the odds laid on him. Treaty Stone was fourth, and Aunt Anna last.

LONDON BETTING—YESTERDAY.

SANCTUM A FIRM FAVOURITE.

At the opening, 700 to 100 was laid against the Cesarewitch favourite, Sanctum, but late in the day, after he had finished second for the Jockey Club Stakes, 500 to 100 was booked, which left 4 to 1 the best offer to money. Prawle Point was second choice at 8 to 1, and Golden Rule and Cornsheaf were saleable at their quoted rates. Regal and Salamandra advanced from 100 to 3 to 20 to 1. Prices:—

SPORTING PARAGRAPHS.

Augur will shortly leave the Curragh for Gilpin's place at Newmarket, where he undergoes his final preparation for the Cesarewitch.

My Ronald, who is strongly fancied in some quarters for the Cambridgeshire, was on the walking list yesterday morning.

Subsequent to his victory in the Thetford Handicap at Newmarket yesterday, Golden Dagger was sold to Mr. J. Jarvis for 430 gns., which was only 10 gns. less than the amount paid to buy in By Jingo after his success in the Camp Selling Plate.

The re-investigation by the Stewards of the Irish National Hunt Steeplechase Committee of the objection to Gurkha, who came in first for the Newbrook Hurdle at Mullingar, and was subsequently disqualified, will be gone into at Baldoyle to-morrow before racing begins.

Captain C. H. L. Beatty, D.S.O., has been appointed temporary major in the Army while employed as aide-de-camp. The gallant officer, who won the D.S.O. in the Boer War, is well known in racing circles, and trained the horses of the late Colonel H. McCalmont, who was his commanding officer.

The German St. Leger has been won by the Royal Graditz Stud's filly, Adresse, by Nuage out of Antwerp, from four others. The race was worth 40,000 marks, but owing to the great depreciation in value of the mark it may be well not to give the English equivalent. The Royal Graditz Stud also won the Barbarossa Rennen at Berlin-Grunewald by the aid of the filly Circe, who is also by Nuage.

JOCKEY CLUB STAKES.

CANNOBIE WINS AT 100 TO 7.

SANCTUM'S FINE EFFORT.

The combined facts of yesterday being early closing day in Newmarket and the valuable Jockey Club Stakes of 10,000 sovs. figuring on the card, doubtless contributed to the augmented attendance on the Heath. The weather was delightfully fine for the period of the year, and with the majority of the events attracting large fields to the post, an excellent entertainment was furnished.

The keynote of a busy afternoon was struck when a party of nineteen assembled at the post for the Thetford Selling Handicap. Of these Stainton opened with the call, but gave way to The O'Neill. The latter cut up the best, but the race fell to the share of the 100 to 14 chance, Golden Dagger, who was then disposed of to Mr. J. Jarvis for 430 guineas. Golly Eyes was the medium of a plunge in the Thursday Nursery, and no mistake had been made with the gelding, who scored in hollow fashion. For the Clare Welter Polly's Jack and Sir Eager settled down equal favourites at 3 to 1, after as much as 7 to 1 had been laid against Polly's Jack. The pair managed to get into the first three, but were beaten by Pennant, who started at 100 to 6.

The big event of the afternoon, the Jockey Club Stakes, attracted a party of twelve to the post, the Manton stable being trebly represented with Kwang Su, Plymouth, and Grosvenor. Although rumours adverse to Kwang Su were in circulation, he was throughout a sound favourite, with Argos and Hasta next in demand, while Plymouth and Ferox had a goodly following. Kwang Su figured in the van throughout, but seemed to run his race in snatches; and in an exciting finish, in which Sanctum looked like winning, Cannobie, running with great gameness, worried him out of it, and secured a neck victory. The performance of Sanctum was regarded with such favour, considering he was carrying 8st. 12lb., and conceding 12lb. to the winner, that it was no wonder to find inquiries made on his behalf for the Cesarewitch, in which his impost is but 7st. 3lb., and as little as 4 to 1 was accepted about him.

By Jingo defeated two more fancied candidates in Melinda and Stop Watch in the Camp Selling Plate, and another blow was dealt backers when Margarethal, who started favourite for the Triennial Produce Stakes, was left at the post, and the heavily backed Wells failed to get placed, Planet securing the verdict for Mr. Leopold de Rothschild. For the concluding event neither Torloisk, Pomerania, nor Dulce Domum, the fancied candidates, proved equal to the task of winning, the spoils going to the share of the 100 to 8 chance, Charcoal. MEETING OF JOCKEY CLUB.

No Additional Fixtures This Year.

A meeting of the Jockey Club was held at Newmarket on Wednesday.

Lord Jersey stated that Mr. Runciman had informed him that he could not suggest to the Stewards that they should grant any additional fixtures for this season beyond those at Newmarket already advertised. He had, however, received from Mr. Runciman a letter saying that His Majesty's Government was at present advised to raise no objection to a limited number of meetings under Jockey Club Rules in addition to the meetings provisionally arranged for next season, under the same conditions and restrictions as were in force during the present season.

The meeting was adjourned.

MESSRS. SEWELL'S BALLINASLOE AUCTION.

Following Ballinasloe fair, Messrs. Sewell, Son, and Simpson held their annual Ballinasloe auction yesterday in the Repository, Lower Mount street. The catalogue, consisting of over seventy lots, embraced thoroughbreds, hunters, harness, and draught horses, etc., and attracted a very large company, with the result that bidding ruled brisk throughout, particularly for the hunters, which owing to the near approach of the hunting season realised very satisfactory prices, several being knocked down at 60 gns. The competition for the harness and draught horses was equally keen. Owing to the motor restrictions there is at present a big demand for good harness horses, as was evidenced at yesterday's auction, but evidently the supply is not equal to the demand.

ANGLING.

NORTHERN RIVERS.

Early yesterday morning and the previous night heavy rain fell generally over the North of Ireland, putting the rivers into good order after a long drought. Chief amongst the rivers yet open are the Maine, Co. Antrim; Blackwater, Co. Tyrone; Mourne, in the same county; and some of the Donegal rivers. Plenty of sea trout are now running the latter rivers.

50 years before pneumatic tyres were introduced——

Moseley rubber was world-famous for its quality.

Moseleys were handling, testing, shaping and experimenting with rubber as far back as 1832—more than 84 years ago.

This enormous advantage has never been lost. To-day its results are evident in the magnificent quality of Moseley Tyres and in their remarkably low prices.

BILLIARDS.

INMAN v. REECE.—These players resumed their match of 16,000 up, Reece receiving 900 start, in Glasgow yesterday afternoon with the scores:—Reece, 3,923; Inman, 3,741. Inman began with his overnight item of 412, which he converted into 469, falling at a red loser at the bottom pocket. His other breaks included 137, 60, and 253, a masse cannon terminating the last item. Inman aggregated 587, and averaged 49. Reece's best efforts were 192 (45 cannons), 170, 156 (32 cannons), and 102 (unfinished). He aggregated 724 for an average of 66. Interval scores:—Reece, 4,647; Inman, 4,328.

STEVENSON v. NEWMAN.—Yesterday afternoon's session of the match between Newman, who receives 750 start, and Stevenson, at Sheffield, was easily the best to date, for each had only nine completed innings for an aggregate of 667 and 605. Stevenson's average being 74, and Newman's 67. Each made a fine top-of-the-table break, Newman's being 258, which ended by his missing a cushion cannon, and Stevenson's 276 (unfinished). The latter's close cannon play was brilliant. Stevenson also made 108 (twice), 88, and 56; Newman adding 139 and 109. Interval scores:—Newman, 4,598; Stevenson, 3,313. At night Stevenson's best efforts were 548 (a brilliant display), 219, and 132 (unfinished); and Newman's 207. Closing scores:—Newman, 4,807; Stevenson (in play), 4,000.

FALKINER v. CHAPMAN.—Both the above professionals played moderate billiards yesterday afternoon at Leicester square, London, where Falkiner is giving Chapman 2,000 start in 6,000 up. Falkiner averaged 27 to his opponent's 11, the respective aggregates being 501 and 201. The highest breaks were 177 (full), 87, 63, 82, and 55 by Falkiner; and 35 by Chapman. Interval:—Chapman (rec. 2,000), 3,681; Falkiner (in play), 3,501.

War and Winter.

The mystery of Rumania's operation south of the Danube is in one sense removed and in another sense increased. It is removed in so far as we know, from the evidence of both sides, that it has come to an end; but as to the circumstances of its ending there is the most violent conflict of testimony. According to the Bulgarian report, the Rumanian force which crossed the river amounted to the strength of about a division, without artillery. It advanced and occupied six villages on the Bulgarian side of the river. It was then attacked by Bulgarian troops, operating in two columns along the bank from the west and east, and in the meantime its pontoon bridge was destroyed by Austrian monitors. With its line of retreat thus cut off, the Rumanian force, according to Sofia, was surrounded and completely destroyed. The Rumanian report, however, puts an entirely different complexion upon the affair. It describes the crossing of the Danube as a "demonstration," and declares that upon the conclusion of the enterprise the force engaged was withdrawn to the northern bank. Probably there is this much truth in the Bulgarian report—that the small Rumanian force suffered severe losses. Such losses would be deliberately invited in a "demonstration" of this nature, and would be worth the sacrifice if it achieved its purpose. The Rumanian statement that the operation was no more than a "demonstration" is supported by the fact that apparently only one pontoon bridge was thrown across, and even this was not repaired immediately after its destruction. Rumania's pontoon companies rank among the most expert in the armies of Europe, and fresh bridges could, and would, have been constructed if a serious invasion of Bulgaria was intended. It is possible, of course, that something more than a "demonstration" was projected, and that the larger enterprise was abandoned in the face of unexpectedly strong opposition; but we need have no great difficulty in accepting the Rumanian statement that the operation had the character merely of a diversion, designed to draw off strength from Marshal von Mackensen's front in the Dobrudja and to embarrass his dispositions. In any case, the frontal attack on Marshal von Mackensen by the Russo-Rumanian forces has made good progress.

On all fronts—except possibly in Transylvania, where the situation is obscure—the enemy are being vigorously pressed by the Allies' offensive. If they succeed in holding fast at one point, it is only at the cost of giving way at another. Thus, while Marshal von Mackensen is so far able to maintain his front in the Dobrudja, the drafts which he has made upon the strength of the Bulgarian forces in Macedonia have been instrumental in compelling those forces to retreat. The Allies' offensive in Macedonia goes well. General Sarrail announced yesterday that "the battle is being pursued in our favour along the entire front." On the right wing the fight for Jenikoi beyond the Struma has resulted in a complete success for the British troops, in which an Irish battalion is mentioned as having especially distinguished itself. On the left wing the Allies' advance is general. Advanced guards have begun to cross the Cerna, and are within a few miles of Monastir. The pressure of the Allies in the Balkans is matched by the Russian pressure on the main eastern front. For several days a tremendous battle has been in progress over the whole front in Volhynia. The enemy are offering a most stubborn resistance to the renewed Russian offensive, and are delivering furious counter-attacks at every opportunity. The Russian assaults, however, continue, and there is still no sign of a decision. Russian military critics agree that the Germans have concentrated a number of divisions to defend the approaches to Kovel and Lemberg. Some of these divisions appear to have been transferred from the western front; but that process, we may believe, has come to an end, now that, as Sir Douglas Haig announced in his review of the recent operations on the Somme, the exhaustion of twenty-nine German divisions finds the British Army occupying commanding positions for its next attack. Marshal von Hindenburg is aware, too, that the material losses of the Germans on the Somme, in men, in guns, and in position, are matched by a moral deterioration. He cannot further weaken his western front, although the heavy rains have for the moment interrupted the Allies' offensive.

It is upon the approach of the winter season, however, that Marshal von Hindenburg is counting for some relaxation of that remorseless pressure of the Allies on all fronts which, if it continues, must ultimately produce a break in his tightly stretched defensive lines. The time has come when we may consider to what extent his hopes in this respect are likely to be realised. They may be partly realised; but it is not probable that we shall see this year that approximation to the old conditions of "winter quarters" which prevailed in the past two years. The inactivity of the Allies in those years was due less to climatic conditions than to their inferiority in men and munitions. There is no reason this year for such a conservation of their resources as was imposed upon them during the past two winters, and we may expect that in the coming winter active campaigning will be continued on all fronts where it is at all practicable. There are, of course, some fronts where active campaigning will be made virtually impossible with the coming of winter—the northern Russian front, for example. We need not exaggerate, however, the general effects of the winter season in limiting offensive operations, in view of the superiority which the Allies now possess. In mountainous country, especially, surprising things have been done in this war during the winter months. It was in the depths of mid-winter that last year the Grand Duke Nicholas fought and won the campaign for Erzerum, and, twelve months earlier, achieved the crests of the Carpathians. The enemy's conquest of Serbia was not complete much before last Christmas, and we may infer from that experience that the winter will not prohibit the pursuit of General Sarrail's offensive in Macedonia. On the western front the present scene of operations, the watershed between the Ancre and the Somme, will be less affected by winter conditions than were the flats of Flanders in the past two years' campaigns. Bad weather, and the consequent difficulty of observation work, may interrupt the Allies' offensive for longer periods than hitherto; but, if Marshal von Hindenburg supposes that the winter will stop their pressure altogether, he is likely to be disappointed.

Profitable Neutrality.

"Peace and prosperity" is Dr. Woodrow Wilson's election cry, and Americans like the cry well enough, understanding, as they do, that the peace and prosperity of the United States are meant. In his mind at present, however, the American is coupling war and prosperity—other people's wars and his own prosperity. In the past two years the United States has taken much of the old wealth of Europe, and that wealth represents so much new capital which will be reproductive for many years to come. Figures which are given on the authority of the Governor of the United States Federal Reserve Board are quoted in a New York telegram that we print to-day. They are so large as to leave no impression on the mind except the general impression of enormous wealth. It is stated that the wealth of the United States has increased during the last two years by 40,000 millions of dollars. The fortune of Mr. John D. Rockefeller is said to be reckoned now not in millions, but in billions, of dollars. In his case, however, the increase of wealth is largely on paper. Mr. Rockefeller holds a quarter interest in the Standard Oil Company. Because of the large amount of money available for investment, the market prices of all stocks and shares have risen rapidly, and the value of Mr. Rockefeller's holding at the market price of the day is so much greater. It is important to distinguish between the inflation of share values on the Stock Market and the increase of the country's real wealth. Even the great increase in the stock of gold in the country—an increase of more than 700 million dollars—is not a sufficient clue to the extent to which America has absorbed the wealth of Europe. She has taken payment for goods and services not only in the form of gold, but also in the form of securities. Hitherto the development of America has been carried out very largely by European capital, and America has had to render a large annual tribute to Europe for the use of that capital. Now, by taking back dollar securities, the United States has not only repaid a large amount—perhaps, almost the whole—of the capital, but, having taken up others besides United States securities, has become a creditor nation herself. Indeed, she has reversed the former position, for she is lending to European Governments, municipalities, and corporations, at highly profitable rates of interest, the money which has become due to her for goods and services in the past two years. Nevertheless, it is reported that money is cheap in the United States market, and greatly in excess of what the country can absorb in spite of vast industrial expansion. What that expansion has been we can tell from the statement that in the past twenty-six months new companies, with an authorised capital of £160,845,400, have been formed. The total is divided as follows:—Cotton, oil, and gas companies, £91,248,800; ship companies, £17,290,000; war munitions and aeroplanes, £25,983,000; dye and chemical, £26,323,600. European nations will require all their own capital for reconstruction and commercial and industrial expansion in the next few years. The United States, apart from European loans, has a great chance of supplying capital for the development of all the countries which formerly looked to Europe, and of obtaining the orders for material and services which always go to the country that supplies the capital. Thus, American concessionaires have just secured the contract for 1,100 miles of Chinese railway; Americans are building the first motor highway in China, and getting the monopoly of motor traffic on it; and American engineers and contractors are now in China preparing schemes for the reconstruction of the Grand Canal. This is to say nothing of United States development schemes in South America.

The French Guard's Band.

The visit of the Band of the Garde Républicaine to Dublin has been cancelled—or, to speak quite accurately, it was never really arranged. The citizens will be deeply disappointed. A reception committee had been formed and subscriptions were coming in freely. Music, heavenly maid, had achieved a new triumph by uniting the names of Sir Edward Carson and Mr. Redmond. The visit would have given great pleasure to Dublin, and its appeal to the historic relations between France and Ireland might have quickened the flow of Irish recruits. So far as we can see, nobody can be gravely blamed in the matter: it was the result of an unfortunate, but not unnatural, misunderstanding. We have much sympathy with the Lord Mayor of Dublin, who did exactly what the citizens wished him to do. We thank him for his efforts to bring the famous band to Dublin. He could not have acted more promptly, and, if the visit had taken place, he would have been chiefly responsible for its success. We think, however, that the Lord Mayor is hardly just in holding the War Office entirely to blame for the unhappy hitch. Our reading of the matter is this: The Lord Mayor had to act quickly; there was no time for correspondence with the French Government. He communicated with the War Office, and was informed that the visit could be arranged. He assumed that this statement implied the assent of the French Government. The War Office may have made a similar assumption—namely, that the Lord Mayor had secured already the French Government's assent to the Dublin visit. On the other hand, it may have known that the Lord Mayor had not communicated with Paris, but may have assumed that the project would be pleasing to the French Government and people. The War Office, it must be remembered, was also pressed for time. Unfortunately, the French Government had made its own plans for the band, which is due in France on Saturday. We are sure that it would have been very glad to be able to oblige Ireland, but considerations of military duty were paramount. Nothing is to be gained by censure of the War Office. If it erred at all, its error was the result of a keen desire to gratify the Lord Mayor and citizens of Dublin. Its good-will was proved by its readiness to defray the cost of the band's journey to Ireland.

LORD FRENCH.

Lord French will pay a visit to Leeds on October 24th and 25th, when, among other things, he will inaugurate a campaign for raising in Leeds and district £25,000 on behalf of the war work of the Young Men's Christian Association. Lord French was to have visited Leeds in the early part of the year, but, it will be remembered, he was held up by a severe snowstorm.

EXCITING MOTOR ACCIDENT.

The Earl of Wilton had a remarkable escape while motoring from London to Newmarket yesterday afternoon. He was driving a powerful car, with his chauffeur beside him, and a friend, Mr. Lynch Bloss, the latter's son and daughter on the seat behind. About seven miles from Newmarket the back tyre burst, and the car turned completely over twice, and the occupants were thrown out. The earl and his two male friends escaped with slight abrasions. Miss Bloss was rendered unconscious, and was removed to Newmarket, where later in the day she regained consciousness. The chauffeur was treated at hospital for cuts.

C. S. PARNELL'S DEATH.

THE TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY.

Few people in Ireland seem to have remembered that to-day is the twenty-fifth anniversary of the death of Charles Stewart Parnell. The news of the event reached Dublin on the morning of Wednesday, the 7th, and cast a deep gloom over the city. The funeral through Dublin, from Westland row, was one of the most remarkable scenes ever witnessed in the Irish capital. Men tramped in the mud and fog for five hours, and in the moonlight, amidst crushing crowds, put him in the grave. The emotion was by no means confined to Parnellites. It was common to Anti-Parnellites and to Unionists also, who all recognised that one of the greatest figures in Irish history had gone to his grave in the most tragic circumstances. An old Fenian leader, the late John O'Leary, who attended the funeral, stated that the funeral of Parnell was the most emotional demonstration he had ever seen, and even more so than that of Gambetta, which he had witnessed as an exile in Paris.

Perhaps, Mr. Redmond's choice of this twenty-fifth anniversary as the date of his important speech at Waterford was something more than an accident

LONDON CORRESPONDENCE.

153 FLEET STREET, LONDON, THURSDAY NIGHT.

There is a comparative lull on the western front, and for the moment the chief war interest centres in the Balkans. The Serbians have scored a handsome victory over the Bulgarians, and are rapidly approaching Monastir. The Italians have landed further forces in Albania, and, before many weeks are out, should be in a position to link up with the Serbian left, while on the Serbian right the French and English forces are making steady progress. Further east the Bulgarians are falling back in the Dobrudja before the Russo-Rumanian onset.

The British Army is now well across the Struma, and is making its presence felt. The capture of Jenekoi is an important event. We have now secured the crossing of the Struma along a broad line, and can pass large forces across unmolested. We are in a position to threaten the railway line by which the Turks and the Bulgars can bring troops and supplies into Macedonia. If we once get astride this, the Bulgar will have to retire from Macedonia, and when he retires it will be hard for him to keep in touch with his right wing.

The situation in the south-east is developing rapidly. So far as we know, there are no Austrian troops in South-East Serbia. Von Mackensen is using Germans and Turks in the Dobrudja, but no Austrians have been reported there. Indeed, Austria cannot spare any more men now that she is sadly pressed on her own frontiers. On the other hand, Bulgaria can spare none either. It follows that, if Serbia is to be held, it must be held by Turks and Germans. Can Germany spare any more men for this far-off portion of an enormous battle line, and can Turkey send any more troops into Europe? Upon the answer to these questions the fate of the war in the Balkans depends.

The news that Mr. Redmond intends to make a speech at Waterford to-morrow has been received with great interest here, and the speech, when it arrives, will be eagerly read. Mr. Redmond is now being watched by the working people of this country as he has never been watched before. These people look upon Ireland as a lost sheep, and the word "Irish" is as often as not preceded by an expletive. Their sons and relatives are fighting for the Empire, and they are beginning to believe that Irishmen are not. The many cases in which young Irishmen have figured of late when circumstances have brought them under the Military Service Acts, and have claimed Ireland as an excuse for not serving, have had a very bad effect. It is impossible not to recognise the feeling that is rising, and Mr. Redmond is, perhaps, the only person who can stay its course.

At the end of a long leading article on the need for more men, the Westminster Gazette says: "We must discuss on some other occasion the vexed question of recruiting in Ireland. In some quarters we now have a demand that compulsion should be applied to get the Irishmen who are not coming forward voluntarily, but past experience should teach us how easy it is to make a false step in dealing with the Irish people. It might well be that the so-called simple plan of extending the Military Service Act to Ireland would prove to be fruitful of complications. But the subject is one to which we must return when we can discuss it in more detail." This timidity in dealing with the burning question of the hour is the more remarkable, seeing that the same journal prints a long letter on the subject from Mr. Robert Lynd full of abuse of Sir Edward Carson and Lord Lansdowne.

The Westminster Gazette is generally regarded as Mr. Asquith's organ. It should not be assumed, however, from its gingerly handling of the question that Mr. Asquith has definitely decided not to extend conscription to Ireland. Never has his "wait and see" policy been more pronounced, and, in the opinion of his admirers, more successful, than throughout the long controversy upon compulsory service. He has always adhered religiously to the fence until the march of events has compelled him to come down on the side of compulsion. It may be so again.

The Secretary for War has received an encouraging report from the Canadian Government regarding the new recruiting arrangements in the Dominion. A compromise of an effective character has been reached between voluntaryism and conscription, and it is hoped that all the men required may be obtained without interference with the industries deemed to be essential. Under this arrangement great constructional works, such as the Welland Canal and the rebuilding of the Parliament buildings at Ottawa, are to be stopped, releasing over four thousand men for war or other national service, and aiding economy.

Among people who know there is little sympathy with the popular demand that the airmen who are fortunate enough to bring down a Zeppelin should at once be named by the authorities. The fact is that in this, as in all other deeds of heroism, there must be a degree of luck as well as courage. On the occasion of the last raid I am told that some forty airmen took their lives in their hands and ascended into the clouds to attack the invaders. One succeeded, and all honour to him, but the others equally deserved the gratitude of the public, as do the unnamed heroes who are daily flying over the German lines in Flanders and Picardy.

Great difference of opinion prevails as to whether the general public should be warned of probable air raids. If the expected raids always came off, the warning would be a good thing, for the timid could then betake themselves betimes to their cellars, while the adventurous would sally forth to points of vantage in the hope of seeing another blazing Zeppelin crash to earth. In point of fact, however, the expected raids often do not materialise or are stopped at the coast line, so that a good deal of unnecessary anxiety would be caused by a general warning. There is something to be said for the suggestion that, so soon as it is apparent that no raid is to be expected on any particular night, an indication to that effect should be given by means of coloured lights, or in some other way for the information of the public.

That Mr. McKenna has no intention of issuing a new British War Loan in the near future is indicated by the exceptional facilities given to the new French Loan to tap the resources of the British and Irish money markets. The terms are attractive—something over 6 per cent., free of all French taxation now or in the future. Apart from the general desire to help our Allies, it is probable that the Treasury's encouragement to our investors to put their money into the French Loan is partly due to the fact that a good deal of the money thus raised will be transferred to the Exchequer in repayment of previous British advances to the French Government.

Germany's real financial position is unknown in this country, but that it is bad may be judged from the fact that the Empress has given the gold ornaments of the Crown jewels and of her own private property to the Reichsbank. Another interesting fact has now become known—namely, the difficulties suffered by the insurance companies. Last year they did great business, but this year new business has been almost at a stand-still, and, owing to the very heavy death claims, many of the large companies are threatened with insolvency. Much of the business done in the past was in endowment policies, but the number of these which has been allowed to lapse is extremely high. The companies freely parted with their money to the German War Loans, hoping, with the high rate of interest, to offer tempting bonuses, but instead they have had to suspend the low bonus usually paid. They can have had little fresh money to put into the latest War Loan.

MR. DUKE IN BELFAST.

THE IRISH QUESTION.

GREAT OPPORTUNITIES BEFORE THE COUNTRY.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)
BELFAST, THURSDAY.

The Right Hon. H. E. Duke, K.C., M.P., Chief Secretary for Ireland, concluded his tour in Ulster this evening, and returned to London, travelling by the Larne and Stranraer route. It had been originally contemplated that his visit would extend till to-morrow afternoon, and the Chamber of Commerce had invited him to luncheon, but on account of business associated with the re-assembling of Parliament he was obliged to cancel this and other engagements.

Mr. Duke to-day inspected Belfast Harbour and shipbuilding yards, and was the guest of the Harbour Commissioners at luncheon in the Harbour Office. Right Hon. Robert Thompson, M.P., Chairman of the Board, presided, and the Harbour Commissioners and a number of leading citizens and public men were invited to meet Mr. Duke. The guests included:—

The Lord Mayor (Sir Crawford McCullagh), Brigadier-General Hacket Pain, C.B.; Captain H. D. Wilken, R.N., D.S.O.; the Recorder of Belfast, Sir Thomas Dixon, Bart.; Sir William Crawford, Messrs. George S. Clark, D.L.; J. Milne Barbour, D.L.; J. W. Kempster, D.L.; Henry Musgrave, D.L.; James McConnell, J.P.; J. H. Stirling (President of the Chamber of Commerce), and Mr. George Herbert Ewart.

After luncheon, the Chairman gave the toast of "The King," which he said specially commended itself to the loyal men of Ulster.

The toast was loyally honoured.

PROSPERITY OF BELFAST.

The Chairman, in proposing the toast of "Our Guest," said that Mr. Duke had had the courage to accept a position which was universally recognised as one of the most difficult within the disposition of the British Government—a position which had been metaphorically referred to as the political grave of many distinguished men. But it was not his intention to refer further to the post, but merely to add that those of them who knew something of Mr. Duke's antecedents were full of hope as to the future welfare of all interests in Ireland—North, South, East and West. The Belfast Harbour Commissioners were not concerned with party politics; their chief concern was to provide such conditions as might enable the port to go ahead, and develop to the fullest extent the resources at their command. He might add, for the information of the Chief Secretary, that the Harbour estate consisted of over 2,000 acres, including docks, harbour, wharfs, and shipbuilding yards, and he thought he might hurriedly glace at the nature of the imports and exports in percentages. Their imports consisted of farm produce, foodstuffs, etc., 36 per cent.; manufactured goods, 49 per cent.; raw material, 15 per cent. Their exports consisted of farm produce, foods, drinks, including mineral waters, etc., 54 per cent.; raw materials, 6 per cent.; and manufactured goods, 40 per cent. The port of Belfast was an outlet for a large proportion of goods manufactured throughout the country, as well as goods manufactured in Belfast, and was also the distributing centre of a large portion of the country's imports. Take, for example, the linen goods exported from Ireland during 1914. They amounted to the total value of £14,353,032, and of this amount over £14,000,000 went from Belfast. In addition to this special textile industry, they had a gigantic shipbuilding trade. They had large engineering, ropeworks, milling, distilling, and other minor industries. The Harbour Commissioners up to the present had been greatly exercised to provide accommodation for the continually increasing trade of the port. He might mention that during the past year over 2,639,000 tons weight of goods came in and 674,000 tons weight went out; that the tonnage of vessels which used the port amounted to 3,238,000 tons, and that these figures were quite double those of 30 years ago. He would like also to mention the great progress that was being made in shipbuilding, which was evidenced by the fact that within the past few weeks 50 acres of additional land have been taken on the Harbour estate for the further development of this trade. As Mr. Duke was obliged to leave Belfast that evening, and had yet to see something of the Harbour, and more especially of Messrs. Harland and Wolff's shipbuilding works, he regretted that he could not detain him with further particulars as to the prosperity of the port.

The toast was honoured with enthusiasm.

MR. DUKE'S SPEECH.

Mr. Duke, who was cordially received, said that he had tasted of the hospitality of the North more than once during his short stay there. He had seen in country and in town as much as he could crowd into the short space of time he had had of the activities and fruitful energies of the North, and, with the help of many indulgent friends, he had come in contact with a large number of the leaders of commerce and industry, and representative men in various parts of this island. He was bound to say that a great deal of indulgence had been extended to him which he could not overvalue. He came amongst them, as the Chairman had said, as a member of the Government who had undertaken a difficult task, but they were all accustomed to undertake difficult tasks from day to day. He was quite sure there was no man in that assembly who did not take up his daily work confronted by difficult tasks, and there was no man who since they were confronted by this crisis in their national destinies had not been ready to make every effort and to face every sacrifice for the achievement of the great and profound objects which they had at heart. (Applause.) So he did not think he was entitled to take any credit for having undertaken a difficult task. He was endeavouring to the best of his ability to understand the dimensions of it, and he believed with Francis Bacon that "knowledge is the first element in appropriate human effort, and ignorance is the paramount disqualification." So he was grateful to those in Ireland, not merely in the North, but in the South, not merely in Belfast, but in Dublin and in all parts of Ireland, to those who had been ready to put him in the way of obtaining first-hand information. He brought now, fortunately or unfortunately, a good many years of acquaintance with public affairs; a good many years' application to intellectual pursuits of one sort or another; a good many years of steady effort, but, what the Chairman had been good enough to say, he also brought an honest desire to promote the welfare of Ireland, and that, so far as he was conscious of his own mind, was true.

FIRST BUSINESS OF IRISHMEN.

It was a great satisfaction to him to meet men who regarded tasks and difficulties as he regarded them, whether it be here in the North or in any other part of Ireland, and honest men who saw that the first business of Irishmen to-day was to endeavour so to arrange the public affairs of the country that quiet life and settled industry should have a fair chance. (Hear, hear, and applause.) He was grateful to them, as he had been to so many, for the opportunities that they in a surpassing measure had afforded him. As the Chairman had said, his stay had been somewhat abbreviated. He must be a little candid about that. When he originally planned that journey it was to have begun earlier and finished earlier, for, as they knew, Parliament met at the beginning of next week, and the Government was in very intimate relations with Parliament, and having originally made such arrangements he thought he might not have had a fair opportunity of meeting men of the North during the journey, and he extended the visit until Wednesday, and then until Thursday, and some of his friends had extended it for him into Friday. The extension did not hold. It had not been magisterially approved. He had had to forego some opportunities which he had looked forward to with satisfaction, and more than satisfaction, of extending his knowledge of the North. Other opportunities might arise, but that was as events might turn out. He looked at their map, the plan of their harbour, and with an eye which had seen a good many cities he looked at their city, and with the help of sturdy limbs which had passed through many workshops and factories, he had gone through their workshops and factories, and no citizen of the Empire could fail to feel delight and pride in those things which he had seen in Belfast. He wanted to say that, because he should not do justice to his own feelings if he did not. He wanted also to say two or three other words.

THE IRISH QUESTION.

Some people had supposed that he was so infatuated that he had come across the Irish Sea with the wild supposition that he could settle the Irish question. (Laughter.) Well, he did not wonder that they smiled at that. He looked back over all the years of endeavour—and he remembered vividly more than thirty years of close conflict on this matter—and he was not infatuated enough to suppose that any one man, and especially an Englishman, could settle the Irish question. But a man who had a part in public affairs must endeavour to discharge it. (Hear, hear.) He had, perhaps, been too frank in expressing in various parts of the country the reflections which had occurred to him in regard to this and that aspect of Irish affairs as they had presented themselves to his mind. He had been accustomed during long years of public life to speak frankly about things which were in his mind, if he might speak lawfully about them. But let him remind those who observed these things that reflections were not conclusions, and that if there were no deliberate reflections there could never be any sound conclusions. As to the possibilities of Ireland, there was no Irishman in the country who did not feel how great they were, and there was no loyal Irishman whose heart would not ache if he saw them wasted. Some day it might be his (the speaker's) duty to formulate conclusions. He was not in a position to do so now, but if he had stated, with even excessive confidence, the reflections which arose in his mind with regard to their affairs, he did not think there was an Irishman who had the interests of his country at heart, who would grudge it. He did not intend to launch forth into any utterance, even of political reflection. The problem was before them and familiar to them—more familiar to them than to him in some of the closest aspects. The opportunity arose. He could only say, please God, all of them might be doing their best if it did arise to take advantage of it. (Applause.)

The proceedings then terminated with the singing of the National Anthem.

Mr. Duke then left to visit Messrs. Harland and Wolff's shipyard. Prior to the luncheon he visited the shipbuilding works of Messrs. Workman, Clark and Co. Afterwards he went to Lismara, the residence of the Lord Mayor, and subsequently joined the Larne boat train at Whiteabbey, en route for London.

A SAGE OF SOLOVETZ.

PEEP INTO A RUSSIAN DREAMLAND.

BY A. L.

I met him at Solovetz, that lonely island Lavra in the White Sea, which for eight months in the year lies immersed in the darkness of the Arctic winter. One would imagine that such a spot could offer but scant attraction to the foreign visitor, yet the part it has played in the evolution of the Russia of to-day alone hallows it to the Slav and to those who love him, while its wonderful beauty, its loneliness, speaking irresistibly of the Infinite, and the simple kindness of its monkish inhabitants make of it a spot memory loves to recall. Nature must have fashioned it for dreams, and the Russians being, above all, dreamers, it is not strange that through long centuries the gaunt granite walls of its monastic fortress, capped with innumerable cupolas of green and gold, should have harboured an army of men to whom contemplation has become second nature. True, they occupy themselves during the fleeting summer with all manner of work; they ply their own steamers to the mainland, they have a saw mill run on American lines with American machinery, they weave, they plough, and they harvest. But withal there are hours and days and weeks when books, pens, and thoughts must supply their companionship. The ripples of the great war, I learn, quickly reached them. Their treasury was removed to Kazan, and a goodly few of them have gone forth to bring inspiration, comfort, and consolation to the soldiers of their Fatherland. And that is what recalled to my mind a conversation I had with one of their number only a couple of short months before war was declared.

It was late; the quiet of the "white night" had descended upon the lagoon upon the shores of which the main building of the monastery is situated, and the eerie green waters mirrored the fantastic cupolas and domes with their many colours. "This is like fairyland," I mused, "a veritable dreamland." And then I turned, and my eyes caught the western wall of the monastery, whereon are painted a score or more of round black marks, looking for all the world like gigantic plums in a fairy pudding. Actually they are mementoes of the Crimean War, when a British naval force rather uselessly bombarded Solovetz.

The actual damage was, of course, repaired, but some quaint spirit of humour prompted the good monks thus to commemorate every individual shot fired on that memorable occasion. And as I stood and looked, an old, a very old, monk approached me. He followed my gaze and smiled slightly. "A reminiscence of our English friends," he hazarded; "I hear you are English." I admitted the impeachment. "It is long since we have had an Englishman here," he continued; "but, after all, we have not much to offer visitors. You English, however, go everywhere; distance and difficulty matter not with you, and so I hope we shall welcome some of you some day." Then, after a pause, with a wave of the hand towards the plums in the pudding: "All that's forgotten long ago. We Russians don't bear grudges, and, besides, we have always really liked the English."

A GERMAN VISIT.

"But," and he became reflective, "we had one pleasure party this year—a great big German liner crammed with tourists! What they wanted I know not. They showed plainly that they despised our ways. They laughed at the decorations in the refectory—perhaps not good according to Western ideas, but the work of holy hands. A Herr Professor told me that we did not understand how to chant our litanies properly, though our melodies have descended from the days of the Holy Nikon; and one lady kicked a seagull, because it came too near." (The seagulls at Solovetz, it should be said, are carefully preserved by the monks, and are treated as pets.)

"No, they did not leave a nice impression, those Germans. I may not know much of the outside world, but I know those I like. They fished in our harbour; without our permission, you know, that is even forbidden to the fishers from Archangel and from the Murman coast. They did other things also; they seemed interested in the depth of the lagoon, why I know not."

"Sounding," I suggested.

"Sounding," he queried, "what is that? And why should they do that here? Yes, they are a curious people, and unsympathetic. I am a simple old man, but my long life has taught me one lesson; let others dispute over creeds and philosophies, we Russians want none of them. A simple life, a simple faith, the faith which comes from simplicity, that is the key-stone of happiness. You English can teach us many things, and we are anxious to learn; but, after all, maybe we can teach you something. All this bustle and effervescence, is it essential? I doubt it. Peace is life as it should be lived."

"Ah," I said, "that is the dogma of the dreamer. This place fosters dreams. Yet in front of the great main gate of your monastery you have a sign post whereon is written the distances to all the capitals of Europe. It gave me a shock when I saw it; it seemed to wrench open the doors of this dreamland and to show a vision of toil, worry, conflict of ideas, personal as well as international; all that which makes life ugly—and you talk of peace; what if war were to come? Come it must some day!"

"Yes," agreed my friend, "war will come some day, and it will be a great war. It will deliver Russia for ever from the shackles of German domination. German materialism has broken down our natural simplicity, ruined our faith, and intoxicated our youth. We must be purged, and it will be war which will accomplish it. You and I, my friend, we shall yet fight side by side, and we shall learn from each other, as I have said."

From the distance arose the sound of a chant, the evening litany, one of those rolling sonorous appeals to the Guardian of the world, which will one day reach and astonish the West by the richness of their melody. We listened in silence. Behind us lay the little cemetery, each grave marked with a plain wooden cross upon which was inscribed the name of its occupant.

"Gospode, Pomagaite nas"—(O Lord, come to our help)—came the refrain from the monastery. Out in the lagoon the seagulls were tucking themselves away for the night, the light became more opalescent and unearthly, and still we listened. There are moments when one's thoughts are one's best companions. Life, death, eternity, the three mysteries of existence! Then my old friend broke the silence. Very gently he said to me, "Yes, my friend, you will see, you will see that I am right. I shall not witness the war, unless it be vouchsafed to me to watch from the beyond. But it will come. Some day come back to Solovetz and remember me!" With raised hand he gave me his Benediction and passed from my vision.

Neither shall I ever see him again, even if I do return to Solovetz—land of Dreams—since he has travelled beyond into the Infinite.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
NEW YORK, SEPT. 22.

American scientists studying the source of infection of poliomyelitis (infantile paralysis) have indicated a line of investigation that may prove the rat-flea to be the real carrier of the disease. All the theories that other parasites, such as flies and mosquitoes, transmitted the malady have been virtually eliminated. If the theory concerning the flea is proved correct, it will mean that infantile paralysis is spread in the same manner as bubonic plague, through rats which are infected with fleas. It should be added, however, that the "accusation" against the flea is at present unverified, and that it is still the strongest conviction of the majority of health officers that the transmission of the disease is from person to person. While the epidemic apparently is waning, an average of about 50 new cases a day still continues in New York City. Altogether there have been close on 9,000 cases, and more than 2,000 deaths.

THE WEALTH OF THE UNITED STATES.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
NEW YORK, SEPT. 22.

The wealth of the United States has increased during the last two years by $40,000,000,000. Bank deposits have increased between $6,000,000,000 and $7,000,000,000, and the stock of gold has increased more than $700,000,000, it is estimated by the Governor of the United States Federal Reserve Board, in a statement urging conservatism upon American business men in order to prepare for the inevitable reaction. "Never again will the United States see a collapse of credit such as we have often seen in the past," he added.

FROM "THE TIMES" OF TO-DAY.

(BY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH THE PROPRIETORS OF THE TIMES.)

THE RETURN OF THE SERBIANS.

With what feelings of rage and disappointment, says The Times, must the Bulgars have witnessed the advance of the Allies from the south, their capture of Florina, their instant threat to Monastir. Their dismay is, to some extent, the measure of our gratification at this success. But not wholly, for the Allied peoples have a special reason for gratification in the proof that the recent fighting has given of the spirit and determination of the Serbian Army. The heroism of the Serbians is no more than was expected of their proved gallantry and known devotion to their native soil. But it has for all of us a supreme appeal. To no other of the Allies, not even to long-suffering Belgium, has the war brought ruin so wholesale or loss so bitter and irreparable. That the Serbians should rise from this ruin to fight their way back into their own country, that they should be again within hailing distance of Monastir—ground consecrated for them by noble memories of their valour in the first Balkan War—is itself an inspiration to the other peoples of the Alliance.

GERMAN PRESS COMMENT.

The German Press comment, says The Times, on the present position on the Western front continues to find in every pause in the attack—whether, in fact, due to the weather or the necessity of moving forward the guns—a sign of exhaustion on the part of the Allies, and a fresh disappointment of their alleged hope of finishing the war this year. Major Moraht asserts that the total Allied loss incurred in taking Combles, with 43 villages and six hamlets, containing altogether 15,000 inhabitants, has been enormous. At the same time, he says, no military expert in Germany expects at present a cessation of attacks in the West, and he admits that "the enemy's penetration into Combles was a success of a tactical kind." In the multiplication of calibres in the new French artillery, however, he sees a weak spot. "This mass of artillery seems more dangerous than it is."

DEPRESSION IN GERMANY.

The Times publishes to-day the impressions of Germany by the German-born wife of a Yorkshire man who left Germany not long ago:—"When I left Germany there was no general alarm over the war, although everybody is sick of it and is eager for peace. It was never believed in the early days that fighting would go on into the third year, and the dragging on of the war and the food shortage together are having a depressing effect. The belief that Germany cannot be defeated has not yet been seriously shaken, but there is no longer any real enthusiasm for the advertised victories of the army. People were suspicious, too, about the Jutland battle. Then the entry of Rumania into the war on the side of the Allies also produced a gloomy effect, for the people had been told continually that Rumania would join the winning side. But not much is said, for to talk about Germany's achievements and present position in the war in a doubtful way may lead to trouble with the authorities. People, therefore, keep their misgivings to themselves. It is unquestionable, however, that everybody, the women most of all, want the war to end."

THE CABINET AND PENSIONS.

It is understood, says The Times, that a Committee of the Cabinet has been appointed to inquire into the whole question of war pensions and their administration. Nobody pretends to regard the present position as satisfactory. The work is at present distributed among six authorities, with an aggregate staff of 2,000—the Admiralty, Greenwich Hospital, the War Office, Chelsea Hospital, the Statutory Committee, and the Civil Liabilities Commission. The result has often been delay, waste, overlapping, and inequality of treatment. The ideal system would seem to be a single pensions authority, with all its departments collected under one roof, and with a Minister responsible to Parliament. The Committee will, no doubt, consider this scheme. The final regulations for supplementary pensions will be issued in a few days. The Mayor's Committee has made several excellent suggestions, and nearly all of them have been accepted. Schemes have been approved for all the 299 areas for which local Committees have to be appointed, with the exception of 13 Irish counties, and one Irish county borough. In 264 cases the appointment of the local Committees has been reported. One of the most difficult branches of pension administration, therefore, is now well under way.

THE STOCK EXCHANGE.

Business, says The Times, was more active yesterday, the number of bargains recorded rising from 3,010 to 3,630. British Government Stocks improved, Consols rising ¼, and the old War Loan ⅛. American Shares reflected the overnight advance in New York. In the speculative sections, Lobitos continued to advance, and Rubber Shares were rather firmer. Rio Tinto advanced sharply on the increase in dividend.

STEAMER FRANCONIA SUNK.

NO TROOPS ABOARD.

The Secretary of the Admiralty last night made the following announcement:—

"The Cunard steamship Franconia, employed on transport duty, was sunk in the Mediterranean yesterday (Wednesday) by an enemy submarine. She was carrying no troops at the time.

"Twelve of her crew are missing, and 302 were saved."

The Franconia was a steamer of 18,150 tons gross. Her dimensions were:—Length, 600 feet; breadth, 71 feet; depth, 40 feet, and her speed was 16 knots. She was built in 1911.

COAL SUPPLY FOR ITALY.

The Board of Trade makes the following announcement:—Mr. Runciman, President of the Board of Trade, had a conference with representatives of the coal owners on Thursday afternoon, on the question of the supply of coal to Italy, and arrived at a satisfactory arrangement. Details of the new scheme will be issued in due course.

WAR COMMITTEE.

The following official communiqué was issued last evening:—A meeting of the War Committee was held at 10 Downing street at 11.30 a.m. to-day. The Prime Minister presided, and the following members were present:—Mr. McKenna, Mr. Montagu, Earl Curzon of Kedleston, Mr. Bonar Law, Mr. Lloyd George, and Mr. Balfour. The undermentioned also attended:—Viscount Grey of Fallodon, Mr. Chamberlain, Mr. Long, Mr. Runciman, Lord Hardinge of Penshurst, Earl of Derby, Admiral Sir H. B. Jackson, General Sir W. R. Robertson, Rear-Admiral F. C. T. Tudor, Lieutenant-General Sir Nevil Macready, Lieutenant-Colonel W. Dalby Jones, Acting Secretary, and Major C. L. Storr, Assistant Secretary.

DOVER A SPECIAL MILITARY AREA.

The public are reminded that by an Order of the Army Council, the text of which has already been published, Dover (i.e., the Municipal Borough of Dover and part of the rural district of Dover comprised within a semicircle drawn from Lydden Spout to the old lighthouse on the South Foreland) has been declared to be a special military area under the Defence of the Realm Regulations. Persons desiring to enter this area are required, unless they come within the exemptions specified in Regulation 29 B of the Defence of the Realm Regulations, to obtain a permit from the Commandant, Special Military Area, Dover. The necessary forms on which to make application for a permit may be obtained gratis from the police, and application should be made to the police station nearest to the person's place of residence.

It is understood, says The Times, that a Committee of the Cabinet has been appointed to inquire into the whole question of war pensions and their administration. Nobody pretends to regard the present position as satisfactory. The work is at present distributed among six authorities, with an aggregate staff of 2,000—the Admiralty, Greenwich Hospital, the War Office, Chelsea Hospital, the Statutory Committee, and the Civil Liabilities Commission. The result has often been delay, waste, overlapping, and inequality of treatment. The ideal system would seem to be a single pensions authority, with all its departments collected under one roof, and with a Minister responsible to Parliament. The Committee will, no doubt, consider this scheme. The final regulations for supplementary pensions will be issued in a few days. The Mayor's Committee has made several excellent suggestions, and nearly all of them have been accepted. Schemes have been approved for all the 299 areas for which local Committees have to be appointed, with the exception of 13 Irish counties, and one Irish county borough. In 264 cases the appointment of the local Committees has been reported. One of the most difficult branches of pension administration, therefore, is now well under way.

THE STOCK EXCHANGE.

Business, says The Times, was more active yesterday, the number of bargains recorded rising from 3,010 to 3,630. British Government Stocks improved, Consols rising ⅛, and the old War Loan ⅛. American Shares reflected the overnight advance in New York. In the speculative sections, Lobitos continued to advance, and Rubber Shares were rather firmer. Rio Tinto advanced sharply on the increase in dividend.

STEAMER FRANCONIA SUNK.

NO TROOPS ABOARD.

The Secretary of the Admiralty last night made the following announcement:—

"The Cunard steamship Franconia, employed on transport duty, was sunk in the Mediterranean yesterday (Wednesday) by an enemy submarine. She was carrying no troops at the time.

"Twelve of her crew are missing, and 302 were saved."

The Franconia was a steamer of 18,150 tons gross. Her dimensions were:—Length, 600 feet; breadth, 71 feet; depth, 40 feet, and her speed was 16 knots. She was built in 1911.

COAL SUPPLY FOR ITALY.

The Board of Trade makes the following announcement:—Mr. Runciman, President of the Board of Trade, had a conference with representatives of the coal owners on Thursday afternoon, on the question of the supply of coal to Italy, and arrived at a satisfactory arrangement. Details of the new scheme will be issued in due course.

WAR COMMITTEE.

The following official communiqué was issued last evening:—A meeting of the War Committee was held at 10 Downing street at 11.30 a.m. to-day. The Prime Minister presided, and the following members were present:—Mr. McKenna, Mr. Montagu, Earl Curzon of Kedleston, Mr. Bonar Law, Mr. Lloyd George, and Mr. Balfour. The undermentioned also attended:—Viscount Grey of Fallodon, Mr. Chamberlain, Mr. Long, Mr. Runciman, Lord Hardinge of Penshurst, Earl of Derby, Admiral Sir H. B. Jackson, General Sir W. R. Robertson, Rear-Admiral F. C. T. Tudor, Lieutenant-General Sir Nevil Macready, Lieutenant-Colonel W. Dalby Jones, Acting Secretary, and Major C. L. Storr, Assistant Secretary.

DOVER A SPECIAL MILITARY AREA.

The public are reminded that by an Order of the Army Council, the text of which has already been published, Dover (i.e., the Municipal Borough of Dover and part of the rural district of Dover comprised within a semi-circle drawn from Lydden Spout to the old lighthouse on the South Foreland) has been declared to be a special military area under the Defence of the Realm Regulations. Persons desiring to enter this area are required, unless they come within the exemptions specified in Regulation 29 B of the Defence of the Realm Regulations, to obtain a permit from the Commandant, Special Military Area, Dover. The necessary forms on which to make application for a permit may be obtained gratis from the police, and application should be made to the police station nearest to the person's place of residence.

GUNS CAPTURED

IN SOMME ADVANCE.

FRENCH SUCCESS AT MORVAL.

GERMANS ADMIT LOSSES.

Sir Douglas Haig, in his communiqué last night, announced that during the Somme advance our troops captured from the enemy 29 heavy guns, 92 field pieces, 103 trench pieces, and 397 machine guns.

On the British front, with the exception of intermittent bombardment, there has been little activity. A London Territorial battalion carried out a successful raid in the Vimy area.

East of Morval the French took nine cannon, while on points of military importance at Zeebrugge shells were dropped.

The German communiqué admits the loss of "some trenches" in fighting between Frégicourt and Rancourt.

BRITISH OFFICIAL.

BRITISH GENERAL HEADQUARTERS,
FRANCE, THURSDAY, 11.20 A.M.

On our front south of the Ancre there was intermittent shelling during the night.

North of the Schwaben Redoubt our artillery caused many casualties on enemy infantry on the move.

A successful raid was carried out by a London Territorial Battalion in the Vimy area.

The enemy attempted unsuccessfully to enter our trenches east of St. Eloi.

10.35 P.M.

There is little to report from the battle front, except enemy shelling in the Guedecourt neighbourhood and two counter-attacks in the Thiepval area, which were severely handled and repulsed.

Between July 1st and September 30th, besides large quantities of other war material, we have captured and recovered from the Somme battlefield:—

29 heavy guns and howitzers,
92 field guns and field howitzers,
103 trench artillery pieces, and
397 machine guns.

FRENCH OFFICIAL.

Yesterday afternoon's Paris communiqué:—

The night was calm on the whole of the front. In the course of our progress to the east of Morval during the day of yesterday we captured nine cannon and 80 men.

Despite the very bad weather one of our aeroplanes bombarded the aviation ground at Colmar in the course of a night flight.

Ninety shells were dropped on the searchlights and military buildings of the fort of Zeebrugge.

Last night's communiqué:—

To the north of the Somme we continued our progress to the east of Morval. We repulsed a strong German counter-attack on trenches recently conquered by us to the north of Frégicourt.

To the south of the Somme enemy artillery continued to display great activity, chiefly in the Barleux-Belloy-Deniecourt sector and in the Quesnoy sector.

In the Woevre, near St. Benoit, our heavy artillery caught under its fire a military station where great movements were reported, and caused a large fire.

There was nothing to report on the rest of the front.

GERMAN OFFICIAL.

Yesterday's Berlin communiqué:—

Army Group of Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria.—In the battlefield north of the Somme the strong artillery activity increased to the greatest violence. Previous to the enemy infantry attacks at most of the points the enemy infantry ready to assault was held down by our fire. A British attack thus completely collapsed between Mouquet Farm and Courcelette.

The enemy attacking between Eaucourt and L'Abbaye succeeded in getting into positions in Pastle Sars, where the British infantry was overcome by our infantry in hand-to-hand fighting with heavy enemy losses.

A French attack along the line Rancourt-Bouchavesnes also failed before our lines. Yesterday morning there was heavy fighting between Frégicourt and Rancourt. Here we lost some trenches.

Army Group of German Crown Prince.—Astride the Meuse there was vigorous artillery fire.

ANOTHER TRIUMPH FOR THE TANKS.

The Press Association's Special Correspondent at British Headquarters in the Field in France telegraphs on Wednesday:—The outstanding feature in the story of the taking of Eaucourt l'Abbaye is yet again the triumph of the Tanks. From the south of Flers, towards Le Sars, was found to be full of Germans, and on the rising ground flanking the lower cuttings were many machine-gun positions. Moreover, on account of shelter provided by the rising ground the wire was but slightly cut, and offered a formidable obstacle. The consequence was that our advance was checked along a considerable width of front, and the troops meanwhile were exposed to a heavy combined machine-gun and artillery fire. Under these circumstances they were temporarily withdrawn to the best available cover, and a pair of Tanks, which were in reserve, ordered to move forward and clear the trenches. They came along at what is described as a record sprint for these laborious moving structures, each getting into position to go right up along and through the wire of the two trenches. Blazing away at the Germans as they proceeded en echelon, they not only cleared the enemy all before them, but squatted the wire into the earth, and so opened the ground to our infantry for a further advance. This time our troops went right through the stumps of a group of buildings, which have been erroneously referred to as the village, and established touch with the new British line to the north of the place.

FRENCH NATIONAL LOAN.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

PARIS, THURSDAY.

The first day on which the second French Loan for National Defence has been opened for public subscriptions gives promise, says the Temps, on the authority of the directors of one of the principal banks, that before the month allowed for the receipt of subscriptions ends the sum invested in the first War Loan will be surpassed. Despite a day of heavy rain the public showed its confidence in the national credit, justified by the fact that last year's loan stands at a premium, by crowding to the various establishments appointed to receive subscriptions. For the convenience of the public and the Treasury authorities, not only the banks and savings banks are receiving cash or convertible stocks, but municipal treasurers, tax collectors, post offices, and even lawyers are doing so. It will be impossible for several days to give a real indication of the popular movement in favour of the loan, but by to-morrow the Bank of France may possibly state the approximate result of its first day's working. To stimulate patriotism each subscriber will receive a document recording his action, and this will, no doubt, be handed down to future generations as a memory of the great war and of a duty done.

OBITUARY.

The death is announced at Charlton, near Bristol, of Mr. Ernest Mayo Gunn, managing director of Messrs. Wills, tobacco manufacturers, and a director of the Imperial Tobacco Company. Deceased, who was about 65, was a cousin of the late Lord Winterstoke. Some years ago he was engaged in London journalism, and was for a time manager of the St. James's Gazette.

The King has been pleased to approve the appointment of Rev. Samuel Bickersteth, D.D., Vicar of Leeds, to be Canon of Canterbury, in succession to the late Dr. Moore.

IRISH TROOPS IN MACEDONIA.

STRIKING OFFICIAL TRIBUTE.

MONASTIR MENACED.

THE CAPTURE OF JENIKOI.

The Allies are pressing on in Macedonia, and are now menacing Monastir.

The British official report from Salonika states that the fighting at Jenikoi ended on October 4th in a complete success for our troops. The village is now completely in our hands.

During the recent fighting an Irish battalion and a Lowland Scottish battalion "especially distinguished themselves," as the official communiqué states.

The Bulgarian communiqué admits that our infantry approached and burned Jenikoi.

BRITISH OFFICIAL.—The fighting at Jenikoi, which ended at 3 a.m. on October 4th, resulted in a complete success for our troops. Not only did we hold a portion of the village south of the Seres road, but we also occupied the position north of the road. The whole of the village is now in our hands. The remainder of the 4th October passed without incident, and the day was spent in consolidating our new positions, which extend from the Orljak Bridge along the Seres road to Jenikoi, and thence up the river to Karadzakoi village. During the fighting of the last few days a Lowland Scottish battalion and an Irish battalion especially distinguished themselves. The enemy suffered heavily in the recent fighting.

FRENCH OFFICIAL.—The battle is being pursued in our favour along the entire front. Allied advanced guards have begun to cross the Cerna, in the region of Dobroueni-Brod, and, advancing, in spite of the slippery condition of the Baba Mountains, have reached Buf and Popli.

ITALIAN OFFICIAL.—On October 3rd our cavalry units from Argivo Castro advanced to Gjorgucati and Ediskopi and Episkopi, in the Drynos Valley, which they occupied, while other cavalry units moving from Delvino established communication with the Argivo Castro garrison.

BULGARIAN OFFICIAL.—Between Prespa Lake and the Vardar there has been lively artillery and infantry activity. We nipped in the bud enemy attempts to advance north of the line of villages Strupino and Rafova. East of the Vardar to Doiran Lake there has been weak gun fire. Our artillery dispersed two enemy companies which had thrown up trenches south-east of Doldcheli, at the foot of Briasica Planina. On the Struma front calm prevails. Bitter fighting has taken place for the villages of Karadjakoi, Jenekoi, and Kadrich. Enemy infantry, which during the morning succeeded in approaching and burning the village of Jenekoi, was attacked and repulsed to its old positions. Off the Ægean coast enemy warships have been cruising.

GERMAN OFFICIAL.—The height of Midze Planina is held by the enemy. Otherwise the situation from Presba Lake to the River Struma is unchanged. In the continual fighting for the left bank of the Struma the village of Yenikoi has again been lost.

SERBIAN GRATITUDE.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

PARIS, THURSDAY.

M. Vesnitch, Serbian Minister at Paris, interviewed by a representative of the Echo de Paris yesterday, laid stress on the marked improvement in the situation compared with last year, and expressed his gratitude to the Allies, especially France. We Serbians, he added, will never forget the French statesman who planned the expedition to Salonika, and the French Navy, which rescued the Serbian troops.

THE SERBIAN ONRUSH.

The Times correspondent with the Serbian Army writes:—The rout of the Bulgarians and the lightning onrush of their pursuers in the regions to the north of Kajmackalan continue unchecked. Although the enemy has destroyed the bridges over the Cerna, the ingenuity of the Serbians seems to have been equal to the occasion. They have extemporised means of re-establishing communications of some sort, by which strong bodies of our troops have succeeded in crossing the river, apparently without opposition. Some fighting took place near the ridge of Planina, whence, however, the enemy quickly decamped, flying towards Sokol. On the extreme left flank, Kenali Station fell into our hands. It is calculated that twenty-five miles of frontier are now open to the Serbian Army, and that 90 square miles of Serbian territory, containing seven villages, have already been recovered.

REPUBLICAN GUARD'S BAND.

DUBLIN VISIT CANCELLED.

The news that the band of the Garde Républicaine has been ordered to return to France to-day will be received with great regret by the large number of people who were looking forward to the band's arrival in Dublin. The expectation that the famous combination would visit the city was founded on the assumption that the consent of the French Government would be forthcoming for the band to prolong its stay in the British Isles. Negotiations proceeded through the military authorities in Dublin, and so little time was available for making arrangements for the entertainment of the band that steps had to be taken on the presumption that the French Government would sanction a visit of the band to Dublin. That the War Office anticipated no difficulty in that respect was shown by the fact that they intimated their willingness to defray the cost of transporting the band to Dublin. It is military considerations which have weighed with the French Government in its decision that the band shall return to Paris to-day.

LETTER FROM THE LORD MAYOR OF DUBLIN.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

SIR,—It was with extreme regret that I was obliged to announce the fact of the cancelling of the visit of the above famous band to Dublin, and I feel sure that the citizens generally will share my regret.

On the evening of the 3rd instant I received, through the Army Headquarters in Ireland, a communication intimating that, in reply to my letter of the 26th of September, a visit of the band could be arranged. The terms of the communication were as follows:—

"If you can arrange and be responsible for all expenses, except cost of transport, which alone will be borne by Army funds, reply at once, as band would cross to Ireland on Friday."

I, therefore, proceeded to call a public meeting, which has already been reported in your paper, and all the necessary arrangements for entertaining the members of the band, and for their public performances, were completed.

At a late hour last evening I received a communication from the Military Headquarters, Dublin, informing me that the visit of the band had been cancelled. Immediately upon receipt of this unexpected communication I telegraphed to the French Ambassador at London, expressing upon behalf of the citizens my deep regret, and asking him to assure me that the three days' visit, as promised, would be confirmed. I have this afternoon received the following telegram from the French Ambassador:—

"I am deeply sorry for this misunderstanding about the band of the Garde Républicaine. They came to London to return the visit of the British Band to Paris, and are due in France this week. It is a question of military duty, and the War Minister finds it impossible to grant them any further leave. I was greatly surprised by the information published in the papers, and deeply regret that I am unable to give you satisfaction."

A meeting of the Executive Committee was held here this afternoon, and the members expressed astonishment that any misunderstanding should have been possible in face of the communication which I received from the Army Headquarters on the 3rd instant, and upon the strength of which I took action. It will, therefore, be obvious that the blame for the present hitch must be placed upon the War Office authorities. I beg to add that all cheques received and guarantees given will be returned in due course.—Yours, etc.,

JAMES M. GALLAGHER, Lord Mayor.

Mansion House, Dublin,
October 5th, 1916.

Official intimation has been received in Glasgow from the Ministry of Munitions prohibiting mid-week trotting matches. It is understood that a similar veto will be applied all over Great Britain. The final mid-week trotting meeting in Glasgow was cancelled, but Saturday afternoon races may be substituted.

THE DANUBE EXPEDITION.

RUMANIAN OFFICIAL STATEMENT.

FIGHTING IN DOBRUDJA.

In the Prajd region, after three days' fighting, the Rumanians captured enemy fortifications.

According to the Bukharest communiqué, the recent crossing of the Danube between Rustchuk and Turtukai was in the nature of a demonstration. Having served its purpose, the troops have been withdrawn to the left bank.

In the Dobrudja, after violent fighting on the whole front, the Rumanians captured five officers and one hundred men.

The German report admits that on the Danube, near Orsova, a Rumanian attack gained ground.

Yesterday's Bukharest communiqué:—

North and North-West Front.—In the Prajd region, after three days' hard fighting, we carried the enemy fortifications, driving the enemy back towards the west. There have been partial engagements on the west of this front.

On the south the demonstration made by us between Rustchuk and Turtukai being concluded, we withdrew to the left bank of the Danube.

In the Dobrudja, in a very violent struggle along the whole front, we have captured five officers and 100 men.

Yesterday's Petrograd communiqué:—

Dobrudja—The offensive of the Russo-Rumanian Army continues. We have captured six guns and the Rumanians seven.

AUSTRIAN OFFICIAL.—Rumanian Front—In the region of Orsova our troops were pushed back in a westerly direction. South of Petroseny the enemy is retreating towards the frontier passes. The Allied forces advancing near Fogaras reached the other side of the town.

From the Transylvanian eastern front there is no news except the repulse of a strong Rumanian attack near Szovata.

The result of the Rumanian attack on the Lower Danube is known from the reports of the Allied General Staffs. The enemy left Bulgarian territory more quickly than they were able to enter it. According to intercepted Rumanian wireless messages the result was principally due to the brave interference of our Danube flotilla.

GERMAN OFFICIAL.—Transylvania Theatre of War—West of Bavajid repeated Rumanian attacks were repulsed. The Rumanian Second Army, which was still attacking on Monday last near Bekokten, eight miles north of Fogaras, is now retreating in the Alt Valley, behind Sinca, and is also retreating further to the north.

Eight miles south-east of Fogaras, after unsuccessful efforts in the Hoetzing Mountains, on both sides of the Strell Valley, in which the enemy suffered great losses, the Rumanians are now retreating towards the frontier heights.

Near Orsova, on the Danube, a Rumanian attack gained ground.

Army Group of Field-Marshal von Mackensen—On Monday enemy attacks east of the Kara-Orman-Cobadina Railway line were repulsed.

BULGARIAN OFFICIAL.—On the Danube front 15 or 16 Rumanian battalions, without artillery, which crossed the Danube near Rahovo, advanced and occupied the villages of Silwopol, Kajamhle, Boroissawo, Malkowranowo, Golemowranowo, and Breschlien. In order to repulse them we sent against them two columns from Rustchuk and Turtukai. On the 3rd inst. the troops from Rustchuk attacked the enemy and speedily forced him to seek refuge in the direction of his pontoon bridge, which was destroyed by Austrian monitors. The battlefield was covered with enemy dead. Towards evening we occupied the villages of Rahovo and Babowo. The enemy troops retreated in disorder eastwards, consequently meeting our troops advancing from Turtukai, and were surrounded. The enemy was dispersed in several directions, our troops to-day completing his destruction. In the Dobrudja there has been great activity by the enemy artillery and infantry of the entire front. All attempts of the enemy infantry to advance were frustrated by our fire and by successful counter-attacks. A Russian war vessel shelled the heights near the village of Tatladchokoi (Black Sea). Our seaplanes attacked with great success an enemy aeroplane shed on Tachawlu Lake, north of Constanza.

GERMAN INFAMY.

(PRESS ASSOCIATION WAR SPECIAL.)

BUKHAREST, TUESDAY (DELAYED.)

The semi-official Indépendance Roumaine concludes a leading article on the war with the following words—"If on the threshold of the twenty-seventh month of the war victory is beginning to smile upon the ten Allied States of the Entente, they owe it to the indomitable stubbornness of the French soldiers, who, under the inviolate walls of the citadel of wounded Lorraine have taken as their motto 'no thoroughfare.'"

The popular newspaper Universul, discussing the cowardly German air attacks on Bukharest, says the name of Germany is henceforth hateful in Rumania. The storm will become calm, and peace will again descend on a Europe reconstituted according to human and Divine law, but in the Rumania of to-morrow there will be no longer room for Germans. The voices of the innocent victims will always cry aloud as a reminder. A boycott will be established against anything coming from Germany. The existence of German economic influence will no longer be possible in Rumania, not owing to any decision taken by the Government, but owing to the inevitable result of popular feeling which the Germans have raised against themselves. Their infamy will never be forgotten as long as Rumania exists.

GERMAN STORY OF ROTER TURM FIGHT.

AMSTERDAM, THURSDAY.

According to a telegram from Budapest, the newspaper Az Est has received from an authoritative source the following description of the battle of Hermannstadt:—

After pointing out that before the battle began the Rumanians occupied a semi-circular position south of Hermannstadt, their left wing extending to Orlat, their right to Holemany, with Schellenberg as their centre, the journal continues:—"Our troops were posted in a semi-circle north of Hermannstadt and St. Elizabeth, and our flanks were held by the Germans. For two days minor artillery engagements and infantry skirmishes took place. At the same time, a Bavarian column left our position, and, after surmounting extraordinary difficulties, reached the Roter Turm Pass. Once they were there we attacked the Rumanians on the whole front, forcing them to fight an enemy on four sides, a desperate strategical position for any army. All reports agree that the Rumanians behaved surprisingly well, although they saw they were in danger of being surrounded. There was complete absence of panic.

First of all, they tried to break through to the north, then to the south, by Schellenberg, but our artillery and infantry pursued them, and forced them to turn aside and take the road towards the Roter Turm Pass. Here they were met by the brave Bavarians. Meanwhile, the ring grew tighter, and early on Friday morning their resistance was clearly seen to be weakening.

MR. REDMOND'S MEETING TO-DAY.

"A PURELY LOCAL ONE."

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

CORK, THURSDAY.

The visit of Mr. John Redmond to his constituents in Waterford City, after a long absence, to address them upon the political situation, is regarded with deep interest by his supporters in Cork, in view of the fact that the Sinn Feiners have now a large majority over the Redmondites in the South, and that they lose no opportunity of avowing their hostility to the Irish leader and his constitutional methods. There has been a recrudescence of activity among Cork Sinn Feiners since the agitation arose for the application of the Military Service Act to Ireland. Some Redmondite public bodies in the South took steps to send delegates to Mr. Redmond's meeting to-morrow. Writing to a Cork correspondent, Mr. Redmond says:—

"I have received your letter of 2nd inst., and I need not say I am much gratified at the suggestion that some of the other Munster municipalities should attend my meeting in Waterford on Friday. The meeting, however, is really a purely local one, and, under the circumstances, I think it would be as well not to interfere with the local character."

The Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs is informed by the United States Embassy that remittances by money order to British prisoners of war in Germany will now be paid in full, and that the sums previously deducted by the German military authorities will be credited to the payees.

EASTERN FIELD OF WAR.

FIERCE FIGHT ON WIDE FRONT.

SECTIONS OF ENEMY POSITIONS CAPTURED.

The Russians state that fierce fighting continues on the front from Vladimir Volynski as far as the Dniester, and at many places sections of enemy positions have been captured. On the Bystritza enemy advanced posts have been overwhelmed.

RUSSIAN REPORT.

The following communiqué was issued in Petrograd yesterday:—

On the front from Vladimir Volynsky as far as the Dneister fierce fighting continues.

At many places our troops captured sections of enemy positions.

On the River Bystritza, in the region of Bogorodtchany, we overwhelmed some enemy advanced posts and took some prisoners.

Caucasian Front—In the coast region our forces suddenly resumed the offensive, and, with the aid of the fleet, made progress on a wide front, capturing an organised position in the region of the River Kerabutney.

West of Kalkit Tchifflikour our advanced troops broke through the Turkish advance guards.

They inflicted heavy losses, captured prisoners, arms, cartridges, and munitions, and destroyed shelters and trenches behind the enemy lines.

GERMAN DESPATCH.

The German communiqué issued in Berlin yesterday is as follows:—

Army Group of Prince Leopold of Bavaria—On the Stokhod front several unsuccessful attacks were made by weak enemy detachments. Again and again the Russians repeated their furious assaults west of Lutsk. They had no success. Each time their attacking waves were shot to pieces by artillery, infantry, and machine gun fire.

Only north of Zubilno weak parties penetrated our position, but were at once ejected.

Our airmen, who had already on preceding days, by successful attacks, caused damage to stores, troop camps, and railway premises, yesterday dropped numerous bombs, setting fire to the railway station of Kozyaszoze and the buildings on communication lines in the vicinity.

Front of Archduke Karl—No important events.

KAISER GOES EAST.

AMSTERDAM, THURSDAY.

A Berlin official telegram says that the Kaiser has left for the Eastern front on a visit to the troops of General Linsingen, against whom the principal Russian attack is being directed.

According to the Echo Belge, General von Bissing, Governor-General of Belgium, has ordered the liquidation of all British firms in Belgium.

HORSELESS ARTILLERY IN THE UNITED STATES.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

WASHINGTON, SEPT. 23.

Following upon reports of the wonderful achievements of the British "tanks" in the great Somme offensive, plans are announced by the United States Army for the formation of a horseless regiment of heavy artillery—the first of its kind in the world. The guns will be hauled from point to point, and then put into the firing line by means of "caterpillar tractors," described as similar in construction to the giant motor-cars used by the British. The new regiment is to have many distinctive features. Its colonel and other regimental officers will ride in a military automobile instead of on horseback. Its heavy field guns, and their ammunition caissons will be hauled by powerful tractors, which, unlike the "land Dreadnoughts" on the British front, will not be armed, and will be armoured only for protection of their machinery. The battery and store wagons of the regiment will also be hauled by tractors, so as to be able to follow the tractor-drawn field howitzers into action over rough country. The artillerymen, who heretofore have ridden horses, will hereafter ride on motor cycles with "bathtub" attachments, each cycle carrying three men.

GERMAN WAR LOAN.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

AMSTERDAM, THURSDAY.

The Vossische Zeitung says:—The number of applications for the War Loan at the great banks is so large as to justify expectation of very satisfactory results. If the applications in the country are on the same scale, the complete success of the fifth War Loan may be regarded as assured.

SIR OLIVER LODGE AND INDUSTRIAL STRIKES.

At the Assembly of the Congregational Union of England and Wales at Birmingham yesterday, Rev. Dr. W. M. MacGregor, of Edinburgh, preached the Union sermon. He spoke of the national awakening as a task being thrust upon the people. John Bull, the earth-bound farmer, with nothing of the ideal in look and attitude, has awakened somehow at the call of an intolerable wrong, and stood before the world to-day strong, indomitable, heroic.

Presiding at the conference to consider business organisation, as viewed in the light of war-time experience, Sir Oliver Lodge said that improvement in food supply and home agriculture was one of the great ends to be borne in mind. Another was the termination, not piecemeal, but wholesale, of those terrible industrial disputes which were ruining the enterprise of the country. The Government had invited the co-operation of scientists in the present crisis, and valuable work was being done. He took it that after the war the nation would continue these services in some permanent organised manner.

BONUS FOR RAILWAY WORKERS.

The Committee, which has been in conference with the President of the Board of Trade regarding an increase of wages for men and boys employed by the railway companies other than those engaged in the manipulation of traffic, completed their negotiations last night. A settlement was reached on the basis of a special war bonus being granted to all men employed in the workshops at the rate of five shillings per week, and to all boys similarly employed, under eighteen years of age, at the rate of half-a-crown a week. These advances, it is understood, will be made retrospective, and will be made payable for the week ending September 16th, 1916. The Committee has also been in communication with Sir Sam Fay, General Manager of the Great Central Railway. At this interview proposals were made by Sir Sam Fay for a full recognition of the standard district rates, and negotiations are still pending in regard to this company.

GENERAL NEWS ITEMS.

Lloyd's Agency states that the Russian steamer Tourgai has been sunk.

The War Pensions Statutory Committee met yesterday. They heard with satisfaction the result of the conference on Tuesday with the Lord Mayor's Committee. The Committee had before them certain amendments to instructions on regulations which had been agreed to by their Sub-Committee at a meeting held after the conference.

No further licences will be issued in the United Kingdom or in British possessions overseas for the exportation, until further notice, of grass seeds to Norway or asbestos to Sweden. Privy Council licences will similarly not be accepted by the Customs as authority for shipment without special authorisation from the War Trade Department.

The Mercantile Marine Service Association have received a reply from the Foreign Office concerning the captain and chief engineer of the sunk Wilson liner Thurso, stating that inquiries are being made through the United States Embassy to ascertain if these men were taken prisoners; if so, where they are interned, and further, how they are being treated, and if either or both are to be brought to trial.

Dr. M. O. Forster, the distinguished scientist, who was selected prospective Unionist candidate for Blackburn in May, 1913, has resigned. He is engaged in assisting State-aided organisation for producing dyes, a work which absorbs all his time, and in his letter of resignation he says that the energy and resources of those occupied in British dye industry must, if possible, be increased on the advent of peace. The Unionist Executive have accepted the resignation with great regret.

SPECIAL EXTRA.

NATIONALIST MEMBERS AND RECRUITING.

Writing from Dublin on Ireland's contribution to the Army, the Special Correspondent of the Daily Chronicle has formed the following impressions:—The one chance of success for a new recruiting campaign is the enthusiastic co-operation of the Irish Parliamentary Party. The co-operation will not be forthcoming. The Nationalist members are furious with the Government. They complain that before and since the rebellion their advice has been disregarded, that their efforts to help in the war have been thwarted or discouraged, and that they have been snubbed and ignored ever since the Coalition Government came into being. Such being their temper, they are in no mood to embark on a recruiting campaign. Conscription and voluntaryism are thus equally impossible.

AN APPEAL TO MR. REDMOND.

Even now, says the London Daily Express, a blunt, straightforward measure for compulsory service would be welcomed by thousands of men who are more affected by the death of Professor Kettle, who fell heroically on the field of battle, than by the death of Connolly. Indeed, Ireland is far more concerned with the fate of her Army than England can be. We do not minimise the wondrous courage of the Irish soldier, but it is none the less a fact that the Empire will win this war, even if every Irish division were withdrawn from the line. But what would happen to Ireland? What would her position be if, alone among the nations in the Empire, she failed to do her part? Mr. Redmond knows that there is no future for Ireland outside the Empire. He is a practical politician as well as an Irish patriot. The word is with him.

CHIEF SECRETARY AND MILITARY SERVICE.

The problem of Ireland and military service is engaging the serious attention of the Government, writes the Lobby Correspondent of the London Daily Express, and Mr. Duke, the Chief Secretary for Ireland, has altered his immediate plans in order to come over and consult with Ministers in London to-day.

YOUNG IRELAND AND THE ARMY.

The Morning Post asks the Man-Power Distribution Board to consider the somewhat notorious fact that there is in Ireland at this moment a number estimated at from 400,000 to 500,000 of young and able-bodied men of military age. When those people have been brought under the obligations of military service the Government will have the right to raise the age for compulsory service in this country. If such an extension is then found to be necessary there is no more to be said. The considerable loss and inconvenience in which it would involve all trades and professions must be cheerfully encountered. But they will not be accepted merely for the purpose of enabling young Ireland to continue to attend race meetings. Upon the Irish aspect of this matter we have already expressed some opinions which, in fact, are shared by every honest Irishman. What is at least as important is the relation of England, Scotland, and Ireland to the present unjust and dishonouring conditions. This country is not now playing at politics, but is fighting a war, and it cannot afford to adopt measures which will undoubtedly involve a financial and a productive loss for the sake of considerations which are wholly irrelevant to the war. We are glad to note that the Distribution Board are now considering "further measures for the release of men of military age in Government departments." Let the Board begin with the Government departments in Ireland.

IRELAND AND THE WAR.

The Daily Chronicle devotes a leading article to Ireland and the war. It has never been definitely stated, observes our contemporary, but we assume it to be the intention of the Government that the Imperial Conference which is to be summoned "immediately after the war," and which is to consider the future government of Ireland as a factor in the settled relations of the Empire, is to precede the European Peace Congress. Into that Congress we must go, if we can, as a united and harmonious Empire, and it will be for the Imperial Conference, Ireland being represented, to give our plenipotentiaries at the Congress their vote and their programme. What vote or what programme would the Imperial Conference give them with one of the nations at the very heart of the Empire in virtual revolt?

After pointing out that neither Mr. Redmond nor Sir E. Carson has closed the door to a resumption of the negotiations for settlement at the point at which they broke down, that Ireland is more prosperous to-day than ever she has been in her history, and that she is fighting side by side with Great Britain for the first time in a common cause, the Chronicle says:—It is difficult to guess why a small party in England has chosen to complicate the question at present, with the suggestion of a conscription law for Ireland imposed from Whitehall. The difference between conscription in England and Ireland is that while it takes unwilling men in England, in Ireland it would take some—not many, but a substantial number—who wish for a German victory. If it is intended to persevere with this mischievous proposal, let its authors as a beginning confine it to the six counties which desire to remain outside Home Rule in Ireland. When they have carried it for that British part of the country it will be time to inquire whether it would be feasible for the portion of Ireland which is less enamoured of the British connection. When this ill-advised agitation has been disposed of we hope that Parliament will address itself once more to the real Irish problem, and arrive at a solution of it, which will be in the interests of the Empire in peace as in war.

THE SOUL OF IRELAND.

"A Call to the Nation" is the caption of a leader in the Daily Telegraph, which says—We desire cordial co-operation between country and country—we have it to perfection between Britain and France, between Britain and Russia, between Britain and Italy. We have it to perfection between England, Scotland, and Wales, and between Great Britain and the glorious Dominions overseas. It is only absent when we look across St. George's Channel to Ireland, and there we find a state of feeling which we would rather not attempt to designate, but which certainly cannot be described as cordial co-operation. It has been drifting to this for some time past, and matters have now come to the point at which they must either get much better or much worse. For it is to be observed that all the hopes and all the warnings contained in Sir William Robertson's speech were addressed to Ireland, just as much as to England, Scotland, and Wales. This is Ireland's war as much as theirs. Her political leaders solemnly declared at its outbreak that the future welfare of Ireland was as closely bound up with the success of the Allies' arms as the future welfare of England. Has anything happened to change or modify the truth of that declaration? Nothing whatever. The destiny of Ireland depended then, as now, on the triumph of the Allies, and of the principles for which they are fighting. It is, therefore, in itself a deplorable thing that we should have to ask the question: "What reply will Ireland make to Sir William Robertson's appeal for more men to fill the gaps in the firing line?" Whatever excuses and explanations may be offered there is the naked fact that the Irish Divisions are dwindling away, and those who might go, and ought to go, stay at home. The generous, chivalrous soul of Ireland will surely never endure so ignoble a reproach. Who, then, will make the soul of Ireland? The Irish Nationalist leader speaks at Waterford to-day. We hope he will call on Ireland to be true to her noblest self.

MR. HAZLETON AND CONSCRIPTION.

Mr. Hazleton, M.P., contributes a lengthy letter to the Daily Mail, in the course of which he says—As to compelling Ireland by conscription to do what she was doing until English blundering and bad faith so much disgusted her, it is utterly impossible. Conscription by England would be as fiercely resisted in Ireland as it would be in Canada or Australia, or South Africa, were England mad enough to seek to impose it upon any of those countries by an Act of the Imperial Parliament. If conscription is ever to come in Ireland it is an Irish Parliament alone that could enforce it. These are the facts of the Irish situation. The Government realised that when it exempted Ireland from the Military Service Acts. Were it now to shut its eyes to the facts, and attempt conscription, it would be met everywhere with unbreakable resistance. No doubt the result would be to ruin for many generations all prospect of a friendly settlement between the two countries.

Sir Leo C. Chiozza Money has informed the East Northamptonshire Liberals that he will not offer himself for re-election in that division.

SOUTHERN FIELD OF WAR.

AUSTRIAN ATTACKS REPULSED.

The Italian official war communiqué, issued yesterday, says:—

In the Travignolo Valley, during the night of the 3rd, the enemy, after several demonstrative actions against our lines, on the heights north of the stream, launched new attacks again and again in the Colbricon region, on the southern side of the valley. Everywhere they were driven off.

On the 4th, after intense artillery fire, the efforts were renewed, with fresh troops, who succeeded in retaking one advanced position towards Mount Colbricon Piccola, which we had captured on the morning of the previous day.

Along the remainder of this front the enemy were repulsed with heavy losses.

In Upper Cordevole Valley a surprise attack on the slope of Mont Sief was driven off.

The enemy artillery has shelled inhabited places on several points of the front. Some damage is reported in the villages of Sano (Adige Valley), Forni Avoltri (Upper Degano), Timao, and Pajlavo Hut, and also in Gorizia. Our batteries effectively retaliated, destroying enemy hutments in Berseoaum (Gail Valley), besides wrecking the enemy's lines on the Carso.

AGRICULTURE AND MAN-POWER.

IMPORTANT ENGLISH REGULATIONS.

The following official announcement was issued last night:—

The President of the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries (England) desires to call the special attention of farmers to the following extracts from a letter which has been issued by the Army Council to General Officers Commanding-in-Chief Districts and officers commanding recruiting areas:—

(1) I am commanded by the Army Council to inform you that, in order to maintain production of food supplies, to allow of autumn cultivation, and generally to review the agricultural situation, it has been agreed that, subject to any decision of the Man-Power Board, and subject to any revision which developments of the military situation and further information in regard to the agricultural situation may demand, no more men from among those now employed in agriculture will, till 1st January, 1917, and in case of men whose whole time employment on a holding is necessary for maintaining milk production, till 1st April, 1917, be called to the Colours, except in return for men released from the Colours for work at agriculture. Prior to those dates, however, so far as is feasible, direct substitution of men not fit for general service, now with the Colours, will be made for men fit for service now in civil life. But it is recognised that cases will occur where it is more in the national interest to call up a man now employed in agriculture from one place, and to send from the Colours a man not fit for general service to work at agriculture in another. The procedure to be followed in carrying out this substitution will be laid down in a subsequent circular letter.

Under this general agreement the cases of certain men who have been refused exemption by the tribunals, but who, at the urgent request of the President of the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries, have been allowed to remain for a further stated period in civil life for agricultural work, will be treated as exceptions, and their retention in civil employment should be considered by the local military authorities, together with the representative of the Board of Agriculture on the County Appeal Tribunal.

The President of the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries will instruct his representatives throughout the country to co-operate in every possible way with recruiting officers in securing men fit for general service under this arrangement.

(2)—The foregoing extracts apply to all persons engaged in agriculture, including those men whose whole-time employment on a holding is necessary for maintaining milk production.

The War Office has decided, subject to any decision of the Man-Power Distribution Board, that, in order to keep up the supply of milk, and as far as possible to prevent its rise in price, the existing labour scale for such men will be maintained until 31st March, 1917.

(3)—Before the new year steps will have been taken by the War Office to obtain a census of the men of military age still engaged in farming, and the President of the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries desires to emphasise that in each of the cases referred to in the first extract from the letter of the Army Council there is a definite terminal point.

The President of the Board accordingly thinks it his duty to urge in the clearest possible manner that farmers should strain every nerve to prepare for changes which may become necessary during January and April, 1917, and do their very utmost to further a scheme which has been framed in the national interest, with a view to enable the land to be cultivated and the heads of stock maintained, while releasing men who are fit for general service. A period of respite is afforded during which every effort should be made to prepare for replacing the men who may be lost later on, and no available alternative should be neglected, either as regards women or elder men.

ACROSS THE SOMME.

ON THE FRINGE OF THE GREAT BATTLE.

NEW ZEALANDERS EN ROUTE.

The following are extracts from an article written by Malcolm Ross, war correspondent with the New Zealand Forces, and issued by Sir Thomas Mackenzie, the High Commissioner for New Zealand:—

"September 8th.

"We have crossed the Somme. We are on the fringe of the great battle, and, as day follows day and march follows march, the finger of fortune seems to point steadily to the fact that our small force from the most distant part of our far-flung Empire is going to have the great good luck of taking a part in momentous and historic fighting.

"A fortnight ago the New Zealanders arrived at Hallencourt, and did further training. They had had a long spell in the trenches at Armentières, and, what with night raiding and a good deal of German bombing and shelling, had an anxious and trying time. They were not in the limelight, but they held a part of the line, and, in spite of considerable losses, held it well. The enemy gained no advantage. On the contrary, he suffered greater losses than he had been accustomed to in that sector for some time previously. The daily training and the change of scene and incident are steadily improving the moral and physique of our men, and at the present moment, taking them all in all, they are just about as fit for battle as troops could be.

SIGNS OF WAR AND PEACE.

"From Hallencourt and district we marched to Belloy-sur-Somme. Down in the flat shallow valley ran the swollen Somme. At a bend in the pathway you passed a peasant girl herding her kine and crooning an old song. You came suddenly upon a silent Frenchman, fishing amidst the sedges with great patience, yet with little success. But, even in such a peaceful scene, you could not altogether get away from the thought of war. A small enclosure, fenced in with rudely-cut posts of poplar and two strands of barbed wire, was labelled with a bit of board and some black paint, 'British Cemetery.' Two patches of raw, brown earth showed only too plainly that it had not been fenced in vain. In days to come some English mother will, perhaps, come here on a pilgrimage. Near the river was another sign, 'Danger. Keep clear.' Beside it the railroad was marked by the steam and rumble of many passing trains, day and night, carrying one way guns and food and ammunition to the battlefield, and the other way the wreckage, animate and inanimate, from scenes of incessant strife. Beyond, the valley rose in gentle slopes, with woods and fields, in which the old men and the women were gathering in the harvest of peace. Behind the woods I lay for the half of one morning listening, fascinated, to the continuous rumble of the guns in a great bombardment. It was as the beating of a thousand drums without interval, but, with every minute or so, the louder boom of some bigger instrument more fiercely beaten.

"Doves were cooing softly in the woods; butterflies were flitting about in the warm sunshine. Overhead there came the droning noise of a flight of aeroplanes, high up, and looking like white butterflies in the clear sunlight. A reaper and binder at work in an adjacent field made a similar droning noise. All this was but the prelude to scenes and incidents of a strangely different character and battle music with a more Wagnerian sound.

MARCHING TO THE STRICKEN FIELDS OF PICARDY.

"Next day our troops marched out again towards the great contest. They marched by diverse ways, trending all in the one direction—the main artery leading to the great battle which is raging in Picardy. New Zealanders have not yet thoroughly acquired the strict discipline of the route march, and there is a tendency to straggle over the road, but this day the men marched very well, and seemed very fit. In the evening we were established in our new headquarters. For some days now the guns had been thundering in one continuous cannonade. There were several shots per second, so that in the great noise you could scarcely distinguish one report from another, except when some bigger or nearer gun broke in upon the general pulsation. A division was attacking High Wood, and in their first attack had not succeeded. No one had any doubt that, sooner or later, the Germans would be driven out of that strong point, just as one had seen them driven out of Fricourt and Mametz and La Boiselle and other strong points in the early days of the great advance. The best of the enemy's troops could not withstand the fury of such an attack, driven home with the force of our tremendous artillery and the heroism and determination of our infantry.

"In July all the ground now covered by this vast camp was green fields. Now it was mostly bare, hard earth, trodden hard with the hoofs of horses and feet of many thousands of men. The traffic rumbled past continuously. Our planes flew overhead, and our captive balloons swayed in the breeze, straining at their steel ropes. Seldom did we see an enemy plane or balloon. The mastery of the air remained with the British firmly established since the first days of the great battle of the Somme. In the darkness of the night the flashing of the guns added a strange picturesqueness to the scene."

AUSTRALIA AND CONSCRIPTION.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)

MELBOURNE, Thursday.

Eleven thousand six hundred single eligible men have been examined in Victoria during the last two days. Four thousand five hundred and eighty have been accepted. There were thirteen hundred exemption applications yesterday. Additional flying men are being raised in Australia, apart from the monthly reinforcements for squadrons already abroad. The Parliamentary Labour leaders in New South Wales, Tasmania, and South Australia have written lucid articles outlining the case for conscription. Mr. Holman, Prime Minister of New South Wales, says—"If we do not win now we must adopt militarism permanently."

SYDNEY, Wednesday.

Mr. Holman, Premier of New South Wales, addressing a crowded and enthusiastic meeting in North Sydney, said that the defeat of the conscription Referendum would be a disgrace. Such a thing he hoped he would never live to see. Mr. Holman, in an interview, said that there had been an excellent response to the call for men by the Federal Government, and the feelings shown at meetings during the campaign indicated that a large number of men had not volunteered, not because of personal disinclination to take part in the war, but because they wanted the Government to decide for them.

BRISBANE, Wednesday.

Mr. Hughes, Federal Premier, responding to a civic welcome at Brisbane, said that Australia would be safe and free only so long as it was part of an undefeated British Empire. Australia had not been asked to do too much. She was fighting for her liberty and in defence of liberty. The audience were tremendously enthusiastic.

NO SUNDAY WORK IN MUNITION FACTORIES.

The Ministry of Munitions announces that as a result of the examination of the question of Sunday work, in its relation to the maintenance of output, the Minister of Munitions has decided, so far as possible, to prohibit Sunday work in establishments in which munitions work is carried on. As a first general step he has accordingly issued general instructions prohibiting, as far as possible, Sunday labour through the north-east coast on and after October 8th. Exceptions are, however, made in cases where work is necessarily of a continuous nature, or where repair to plant and machinery can only be performed during the week-end.

Captain F. B. Ellis.—Captain F. B. Ellis, Northumberland Fusiliers, reported missing, and believed to have fallen in action, is a son of the Rev. the Honourable William Charles Ellis, Rector of Bothal-with-Morpeth, and a connection of the family of the Earl of Caledon, County Tyrone, and of Lady Mary Stewart, and a grandson of the sixth Lord Howard de Walden, who for many years was British Ambassador at Stockholm, Lisbon, and Brussels. Captain Ellis joined the "Fighting Fifth" in October, 1914, as a subaltern of one of the service battalions, and was promoted Captain the following December. A brother, Captain R. A. Ellis, also serving in the Northumberland Fusiliers, was wounded last year.

Lieutenant H. H. Cochrane.—Lieutenant H. H. Cochrane, Canadian Infantry, wounded in action, is one of the three sons of Mr. John Cochrane, Cushendun, County Antrim, serving under the Colours. Lieutenant Cochrane served in the Boer War with the City of Glasgow Imperial Yeomanry, and afterwards in the South African Constabulary. He was in Canada holding a sergeantcy in the North-West Mounted Police when the war began, and shortly after joining the Canadian Contingent he got his commission. One of his brothers was killed in November last.

Lieutenant G. Arbuthnot.—The Grand Council of the Primrose League yesterday passed a resolution of sincere sympathy with Mrs. Arbuthnot and family on the death in action of its Vice-Chancellor, Lieutenant Gerald Arbuthnot, Grenadier Guards, on September 25th, in France, and gratefully acknowledged his great services to the League. Mr. Walter Long, in moving the resolution emphasising Mr. Arbuthnot's remarkable devotion to duty, said that for sixteen months he was associated with rough, but gallant, comrades in mine-sweeping duties in the North Sea. When taking up a commission in the Guards at the age of 44 he realised that he was absolutely offering his life for his country, but his natural determination and devotion to duty never faltered. Now that he had been taken from them, it was for the Primrose League to carry on the work to which he addressed so much energy and enthusiasm. Lord Midleton remarked that it was some consolation that their late Vice-Chancellor had given his life at a period in the war when the prestige of Great Britain was being raised to its highest level on the Continent. What was being achieved now by our Armies was worth fighting for, and he had died for the securing of a victory which would end an awful danger.

Second Lieutenant A. J. Cathie.—Second Lieutenant Cathie, of the Royal Flying Corps, wounded in France, is the eldest son of Commander R. A. Cathie, R.N. (retired), of Corrig House, Dalkey. Lieutenant Cathie joined the Army as a private in the Mechanical Transport Corps, and was promoted to a Second Lieutenancy in June of this year, being transferred to the Royal Flying Corps. He was on leave just four weeks ago, and was wounded almost immediately he returned to the front. He is at present in the Royal Flying Corps Hospital, London, and progressing satisfactorily.

Second Lieutenant F. A. Harrison.—Second Lieutenant Frederick A. Harrison, Leinster Regiment, is reported missing since 9th September, during the advance on Ginchy. Lieutenant Harrison is the only son of the late Arthur T. Harrison, of the firm of C. W. Harrison and Sons, Dublin. He was well known in Cork City, and was on the staff of the Provincial Bank there up to the time of being gazetted to his regiment, in October of last year. His relatives are most anxious for any information concerning him, and any letters sent to Mrs. Harrison, 8 Herbert road, Sandymount, Dublin, will be most gratefully acknowledged.

Second Lieutenant J. C. B. Harris.—Intelligence has reached Limerick that Second Lieutenant J. C. B. Harris, Lancashire Fusiliers, second son of Mr. J. W. A. Harris, Ballykisteen, Limerick Junction, has been seriously wounded.

Mr. W. C. Harewood.—Mr. C. W. Harewood, Riversdale, Dundrum, County Dublin, has been officially informed that his son, Mr. Walter C. Harewood, has been wounded in action, and is at present in hospital in Lincoln. He was a member of the police force in Winnipeg when he joined the Canadian Highlanders for active service. He has two other brothers at present in action.

LIEUT.-COL. J. W. HILLS WOUNDED.

The Press Association says that news has been received that Lieutenant-Colonel J. W. Hills, M.P., was wounded on October 1st, and according to the latest accounts he is progressing favourably.

HOME RULE AND CONSCRIPTION.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

Sir,—In your columns there have been discussions on the position of Ireland with regard to recruiting and conscription; but it seems to me that no conclusions have resulted, either because your correspondents have not understood the motives which influence Irishmen or they have not ventured to lay the matter bare and free of disguises. The exposure of naked facts is always resented. If we are to understand the problem before us, we must compare the position of Englishmen and Irishmen in this war, and, in pursuance of this investigation, I will imagine an inquiry from a Foreign Office official as to the causes that brought England into this dreadful conflict.

I have no doubt that he would reply frankly that England is fighting in defence of her interests; to protect the manufactures that give employment to the people, the commerce that enriches them, and the liberty which has made England a great country. All nations have fought for these objects from the beginning of the world, and rarely for any others. It does not suit her policy that a powerful State should obtain control of the ports near her shores, or on the lines of her trade routes, or should be so dominant in Europe as to be in a position to attack her single-handed. She fought to keep Russia from Constantinople, and Napoleon and Germany from Antwerp; she sees clearly that, if France and Russia were crushed, she might be the next victim, and that her capital might be transferred from London to Berlin, with, at most, permission to send a delegation to the Bundesrat. Manufactures, trade, and liberty are in danger; she must either lose them or defend them with her last pound and her last soldier.

I now turn from the Foreign Office official to an Irishman, who loves his country sincerely, and is prepared to defend with his life what he believes to be her interests. I am not recounting an imaginary conversation, but one I have heard occasionally at the beginning of the war and everywhere lately. Ireland, he would say, has neither manufactures nor commerce to defend. England, against her will, has taken over the management of these matters, stating that she understands Ireland's interests very much better than she does herself, and that it is not necessary to follow the wishes of an ignorant and troublesome people.

It was also, he would say, the policy of England to support a land system, designed, as it was euphemistically stated, to make Ireland "the fruitful mother of flocks and herds" to feed the manufactures of Manchester, Birmingham, and London, instead of the sturdy Gaelic race, which at one time supplied 50 per cent. of the Army. The result of her management is—argue it how you will—that there are no manufactures and no commerce in Ireland; hardly a ship sails from Ireland to foreign ports; and the population has decreased from eight to four millions. As to liberty, the Irish Constitution which the English Parliament had promised to defend was taken away a hundred years ago by force and fraud, and the only privilege left was permission to send a delegation to London.

A lot of argument, no doubt, may be expended on all the propositions laid down in this conversation, but they will not affect the matter in hand. Irishmen are convinced, after a fair and full trial which has lasted over a hundred years, that Irish interests are always subordinated to those of England, and that the rule of the London Parliament has failed to ensure either the moral or material welfare of Ireland. They have struggled against this domination, and shown their dislike by every means in their power; they have suffered death and imprisonment; and, finally, when, after a long constitutional struggle, the Home Rule Bill was passed through the House of Commons, it was held up by the menace of an unpunished rebellion. Ireland has neither her own Parliament nor the rights of the English Constitution.

Under these circumstances, and in face of these facts, it is useless to make sentimental appeals to Irishmen to fight in the defence of the liberty of small nations, their own small nation being denied the same liberties they are called on to secure for others. In the beginning of the war, believing, on the advice of their leaders, that English politicians would keep faith, they volunteered, both in England and Ireland, as freely and well as Englishmen; but they have learned the value of promises: the promises have been broken, and in future they require facts, not promises. Conscription will be resisted in every hamlet. If England wants soldiers, she must first do justice. She is fond of planning new Constitutions for Poland and Bohemia. Polish and Bohemian patriots, even rebels, are heroes in England. Liberty, like the mountains, is beautiful in the distance, but harsh and disagreeable within sight of her shores.

The Irish will fight in defence of their own manufactures, trade, and liberty just as freely as Englishmen, but neither they nor Englishmen will sacrifice their lives in defence of foreign interests and foreign liberties which are denied to themselves. The Colonies, even South Africa, have come to the defence of the Empire because they possess all those things which Ireland lacks. Place Ireland in the same political position (facts, not promises) as Newfoundland and New Zealand, and conscript soldiers will not be wanting. The treatment of Ireland has been a gibe in the mouth of every enemy. An immediate settlement has been urged by the Colonies; it would be pleasing to France, an example to Russia, and a recruitment to our own forces. It is resisted only by those who, being the political successors of the statesmen who lost America, have themselves opposed the settlement which saved South Africa. I see a letter from Sir E. Carson in The Times to-day advocating conscription; but only he and the Orangemen stand in the way. Grant the freedom to which I have alluded, and enact conscription next day.—Yours, etc.,

DUBLIN'S VEGETABLE SUPPLY.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

Sir,—With reference to the recent correspondence on the retail prices of potatoes, vegetables, etc., in Dublin, I can corroborate what many of your correspondents say as to the way the producer is treated in Dublin. We are blamed for exploiting prices for our produce against the city folk, and everyone says that we are taking advantage of the war to raise prices. No doubt, prices are higher because everything we have to buy is higher; likewise wages, taxes of all sorts, and the raw materials. If we are able to get a living profit for our produce now, it is more than in many cases we were able to do before the war. What was the retail price of potatoes in Dublin last year up to the month of March? I can give you figures to show that I sent upwards of 100 tons of potatoes to Dublin factors, and was rewarded with the magnificent sum of 50s. per ton, equal to 2s. 6d. per cwt, or 3½d. per stone. Carriage and bags could not amount to more than 15s. per ton, so that the cost to factors would be 3s. 3d. per cwt., or, say, 5d. per stone. I ask you if we can be accused of exploiting at these prices. On the other hand, I can assure you that we were not making any profit at those prices, but it was actually a loss.

No doubt, prices for potatoes will be higher this year, as the crop is bad; but is that any reason why Dublin people should pay unreasonable prices?

I have known in the past Dublin hotels and others paying 7s. 6d. to 8s. 6d., and even more, per cwt., when the producers were getting from 2s. 6d. to 3s., or, at the outside, 3s. 6d. free on rail. Carriage would range from 2s. 6d. to 10s. per ton, and bags about 5s. This would leave the price to Dublin factors at 4s. 3d. free on rail at Dublin. I ask you do they do any service to the community such as would warrant them charging a commission of 3s. 6d. to 4s. per cwt.? Co-operate among yourselves, and you can have your potatoes and vegetables at a very much less cost, and the producer will be better paid, and will be encouraged to produce more. But when he sees the profits from his labours pocketed by others it is not much wonder that he sometimes in disgust lays the land out in grass and feeds cattle on it, instead of producing food for the people.—Yours, etc.,

"A PRODUCER."

Co. Donegal, October 4th, 1916.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

Sir,—So far as we can see, most of your anonymous correspondents are straying from the original issue which was raised in the Irish Homestead, and worked into a leading article by your paper. It was there clearly stated that some person or persons unknown had been compelled to sell certain wares at a very low price to some members of the vegetable "ring" in the wholesale market, while the retail vendors who had bought this produce sold it at a high rate. This was patently a grower's grievance, in that the grower had not got the high price charged to the public. The grower had no qualms about what the consumer might pay, but he felt aggrieved that he had sold his whistle too cheaply. This grower should not sell his produce to the merchant, but should have it placed upon the public market, where it would be auctioned to the highest bidder. The consumers who write to you feel no bowels of compassion for the grower; they want the goods at a cheap rate, and yet both these warring tribes are for the moment in the same camp. Is not this absurd?

The whole question is merely the old one of the middleman. Is the middleman wanted, or is he not? Can the producer deal direct with the consumer? If he can, there is no "ring" in Dublin that can prevent him, and, indeed, the wholesale merchants and the retailers could afford to look on while Greek met Greek in a tough tug-of-war. Let us picture the housekeeper's morning as she prepares to obtain her vegetables direct from the grower. One grower is marketing cabbages to-day. His cart comes along, and dumps down three heads of York cabbage. Cash down is the necessity, for a whole staff of clerks would be necessary to deal with the volume of small transactions, while the farmer or his son must accompany the loads to act as cashier and salesman. The turnip man comes along with a load of Swedes. Our housekeeper gets four Swede turnips from him. Parsnips, carrots, celery, etc., arrive in penny numbers during the day, until our wearied housekeeper longs to go back to her greengrocer, who will give her a bit of everything in one delivery, and mark her purchases in a pass-book, to be paid for at convenient times. The farmer, through his horses, men, and himself being out all day, loses his home work, and will need to charge as much as the greengrocer, and yet will find no profit in the transaction. So the middleman is necessary in this, as in all other trades, both to assemble the different commodities into one shop and to retail them out in small quantities to suit the public wants.

Let us now see if there really is a "ring" in the wholesale market which buys cheaply from the producer and sells dearly to the shopkeeper. The merchants in the fruit and vegetable trades buy very little from the growers. The great bulk of the stuff is sent to the salesmen to be sold on commission for the growers, and thus it behoves the salesman to get as good a price as the market warrants, as the amount of his commission depends thereon. The goods are offered to buyers at public auction, and are knocked down to the highest bidder, as every shopkeeper knows right well, and no shopkeeper need buy anything which goes too high for his needs. If produce is plentiful at the sales, prices drop; if scarce, they go up, just as they do in the trades in which your grumblers are making their own living.

All those grumbles come from private people, who have little cat-runs of gardens, and think, because their little lots of surplus produce meet no attention from good buyers in the markets, that there is something rotten in the state of Denmark. It would save a great deal of your valuable space and time if you would send a representative to the markets to see the conditions under which vegetables are sold. He could also interview the many properly equipped market gardeners and farmers who bring their stuff here, who will be able to tell him that their goods bring just what they are worth on the market, and that they can always change their salesman when not satisfied with results.—Yours, etc.,

D. DEVINE AND SONS, Fruit Salesmen
Corporation Market, Dublin,
October 5th, 1916.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

Sir,—The correspondence on this subject in your columns shows that, while there are plenty of producers of vegetables and fruit who find a great difficulty in securing a fair price for their produce, the consumer is not getting cheap supplies. Each grower by himself is helpless to alter this situation, but, if all acted together, they would form a very strong body.

Since you were good enough to publish my previous letter I have had communications from many persons who are interested in this subject, and a very important market is open to receive supplies direct from the growers as soon as the latter are in a position to give regular supplies of standard produce. It is proposed to have a conference of producers in Dublin very soon to consider the whole question. Notices will be sent to persons interested who send me their addresses.—Yours, etc.,

T. H. BUCHANAN.

Sidmonton House, Bray, October 5th, 1916.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

Sir,—Messrs. Knowles and Sons must be very unfortunate in the choice of their assistants who can weigh only 11lb. out of a 12lb. basket. There are places in Dublin where the assistants manage to re-sell and weigh 13lb. from a basket that originally contained 12lb.—but that is a tale for another time. One reason given in their last letter for the difference between the prices paid and those charged is that wastage is bound to take place. Where people buy in the market twice a week the margin of unavoidable waste is very small—so small, in a properly managed shop, as to be negligible. But, admitting that there is waste, why do they ask us—the producers—to pay for it? We have already lost more through weather, insects, diseases, and grading than the shopkeepers are likely to lose by over-ripeness. Besides, they can always clear out their stocks by reducing the prices.

I am warned by Messrs. Knowles and Sons that it is a dangerous procedure for a controversialist to give details: I still believe that it is the proper thing to do. They also have condescended to details in the matter of tomatoes, and try to justify their prices by comparing them with the wholesale rates given in my first letter. May I point out that the prices quoted by me were those current nearly a month ago? Since the retail price fell to 8d. the wholesale price also fell, leaving the shopkeepers' profit unaltered.

The next item of importance is "the ring." While admitting that the shopkeepers and forestallers buy only at their own prices, they also practically admit that there is little or no competition between them. In their own words, "experienced buyers . . . and also the auctioneer will know, instinctively, within a fraction what the cauliflowers will make." Not, you will notice, what they are worth, but "what they will make." The fact that there is no "Shopkeepers' and Forestallers' League of Brotherly Love" registered under the Friendly Societies Act does not disprove the fact that, to all intents and purposes, they constitute a "ring" and manage to buy and sell at their own prices. Go to Mincing lane, I am told, and see "the merchant princes robed in their silk hats and frock coats" doing the same thing. It is a very poor excuse. There are as many undesirables in silk hats as in any other style of headgear. Lest there might arise any misunderstanding, I would like to say that my reply is addressed to Messrs. Knowles and Sons, not because I have any personal grievance against them; but as they took up the defence of the system which has made the Corporation Market almost useless to the growers of fruit and vegetables in County Dublin, it seemed best to confine my reply to their statements.

As all the charges made by me have now been unconsciously admitted—even the forestallers not having been explained away—it rests with the growers to take the matter into their own hands. They have an opportunity now that will never occur again. While the war lasts Dublin is depending on local supplies, and it is desirable both from the growers' and consumers' points of view that fruit and vegetables get from one to the other with as little intermediate profit as possible.

A last word: If the public would study the Market reports published in the papers, and compare the prices given there with what is asked in the shops, it would be to their own interest and to ours. The more their money buys the more they will buy.—Yours, etc.,

THE PRICE OF SUGAR.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

Sir,—What seems to me to be a case of injustice to the poor came under my notice to-day. In one of our local shops sugar is sold at 6s. 4d. a stone, but, if bought by the pound, it costs 6d., which works out at 7s. a stone. When I pointed out to the girl in charge how heavily this pressed upon the poor, who buy in small quantities, she agreed with me, but at the same time informed me that, if tea were bought along with it, the sugar could be obtained for 5½d. a pound. Perhaps, some of your readers could enlighten me as to whether this procedure does not contravene the Government regulations with regard to the terms on which this commodity is supplied to merchants. There must be many occasions when a poor woman finds it necessary to purchase sugar without a proportionate amount of tea, and it seems hard that she should have to pay at the rate of 8d. a stone more than the large consumer.—Yours, etc.,

WOOL AND THE WAR.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

Sir,—Last June the Government closed on the wool crop of the Kingdom. In Ireland the police went round and took statements of the amount of wool held by each grower. The returns were, I think, fairly accurate, because people thought they were going to get an enhanced price, and, in the main, told the truth. Then schedules were published, and the Government prices proved to be less than current rates. Protests followed, and the responsible Minister replied that there could be no increase; that the Government required all the wool crop; that France and the other Allied nations had taken the same step, and were allowing a smaller price than England was paying. That statement has not been denied, and well-disposed people at once started delivering their wool at scheduled rates. They were losers—that was clear—but they acted well for the good of the cause, and much wool went in.

Much, however, did not. It is notorious that many are hiding their wool "until the clouds roll by," and grinning in derision at the growers who promptly and loyally delivered theirs. What effect can that have? You inserted of late two articles by "Viator," headed "If France Ruled Ireland"; so I am tempted to invite "Viator" to tell us what would happen to a wool-hider in France, if such could be found there to-day.—Yours, etc.,

THE DUBLIN AND SOUTH-EASTERN RAILWAY SERVICES.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

Sir,—I am writing to the manager of the D. and S.E.R. with regard to the new Time Table which has come into force since 1st October.

(1) It is at present impossible to travel from County Wexford to Carlow or Kilkenny in the early part of the day. Formerly one could travel by the mail to New Ross, and return thence to Palace East in time to catch the 10.15 a.m. train to Bagenalstown. Now this cannot be done. The down mail has to slow down at Palace East to change the staff, and a stoppage would not take more than a minute. This would enable a connection to be made with the G.S. and W.R. train, which would be a great convenience to many.

(2) The 10.15 a.m. train from Harcourt street arrives at Waterford at 3.10 p.m., while a train leaves Waterford for Limerick at 3.0. If the train left Harcourt street at 10.0 a.m., it could pass the 10.0 a.m. up train at Avoca, instead of Rathdrum, and arrive at Macmine at 1.30 p.m. Leaving Macmine at 1.40, it would reach Waterford at 2.50, in time to catch the train for Limerick. There is the more need for this change because connection is no longer made by the morning mail with the train at 10.15 from Waterford to Cork and Limerick.

(3) The 4.30 p.m. train from Harcourt street has been changed to 5.30, a change which will, I think, meet with general approval. The train has, however, been slowed down, seven minutes more than formerly being allowed for the stop at Bray. If the train were delayed to leave Harcourt street at 6.0 it would then connect at Bray with the 5.45 from Westland Row, bringing passengers from the Holyhead boat, reaching Kingstown about 5.20. This would be a very great convenience. It is absurd that, for the sake of a few minutes, passengers from England for Wicklow and Wexford should be delayed all night at Kingstown. The new Time Table may be only tentative; so I make these suggestions, which could be very easily carried out.—Yours, etc.,

H. C. LYSTER.

Enniscorthy, October 5th, 1916.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE IRISH TIMES.

Sir,—Would you kindly permit me, through your columns, to draw the attention of the directors of the D. and S.E. Railway to the present inadequate morning train service between Bray and Harcourt street? Under the present conditions people who have to start business at 8 a.m. are compelled to travel by the 6.30 a.m. train from Bray, which arrives in Harcourt street at 7.5 a.m., there being no other train which will get them into town before 8 o'clock. Consequently numerous people who are averse from rising at this early hour stay in town for the winter months.

Would it not be possible for the directors to alter the 6.30 train to leave Bray twenty-five minutes later—viz., 6.55 a.m.—arriving in Harcourt street at 7.30 a.m., which would enable it to start the return journey from Harcourt street at the new scheduled time, 7.40 a.m.? If this could be done, or an additional train run, leaving Bray at, say, 7 a.m., it would be greatly appreciated by the numerous residents along the line, who have to travel in every morning by the early train. I write as a season ticket-holder on the line for the past nine or ten years, and feel sure that the directors will give the matter their kind consideration.—Yours, etc.,

ARDFERT DIOCESAN SYNOD.

THE NATIONAL MISSION.

DR. ORPEN AND IRISH POLITICS.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

TRALEE, Thursday.

The annual Synod of the Diocese of Ardfert and Aghadoe was held in Tralee to-day at two o'clock.

The Bishop of Limerick and Ardfert, who presided, said, in the course of his address—Some of our laymen are absent from us to-day, being engaged in military service, and some of our members who are with us, both of clergy and laity, have lost their noble sons in the defence of our country and all that we hold worth defending. I am sure I express your feelings when I say our sympathy goes out to them, and our prayer is that God may comfort them. I am thankful to say that, as regards our financial affairs, the past year has been by no means a discouraging one. Also, our Diocesan Education Board carries on its excellent work with much success. The Committee of Missions show that the evangelisation of the heathen is not neglected in our diocese. The temperance report explains what is being done to combat one of the great social dangers to our people. You are aware that a great National Mission is being held throughout the United Kingdom in connection with the war—a Mission of Repentance and Hope. We believe that the war has been forced upon us, and every consideration of national honour and high principle compelled us to take up arms. But the war has come to teach us sharp lessons, to awaken us to a more lively sense of our own condition of carelessness and indifference about spiritual things. The nation was too much absorbed in acquisition of wealth and indulgence in pleasure. The mission has for its object to call the nation to repentance, to a realisation of its neglect of what it owes to God. Surely I may take it for granted that each one of you, cleric and lay, is anxious to lift up our people from a state of deadness to a higher conception of their position, and I would charge all of you to co-operate in this attempt to forward the cause of Christ. It is a mission of hope—also a trust that a whole nation, humbling itself before God, shall find the truth of the promise, "He exalteth the humble and meek."

THE CHURCH AND POLITICS.

With regard to our country of Ireland, he would be a wise man that could foresee its future—with a Statute passed that all admit cannot work without substantial changes in its finance. Further legislation must take place. Amidst all this doubt and uncertainty, what has the Church to do? To throw herself into the ranks of any political party would, I believe, be to lose much of her spiritual influence, and tend to lower the standard of her teaching. While politicians and parties strive to attain their end, the prayer of the Church should be to God, "That the course of this world may be so peaceably ordered by Thy governance that Thy Church may serve Thee in all godly quietness."

The Archdeacon of Ardfert presented the Diocesan Council report. The following are the totals of the capital of the various diocesan funds, on which the incomes of the clergy mainly depend:—Commutation, £2,804 13s. 9d.; Stipend Fund No. 1, £79,395 11s. 7d.; Stipend Fund No. 2, £20,000; Superannuation Fund, £8,037 18s. 4d. Total, £110,238 3s. 8d.

The report stated that the assessment subscriptions for 1915 are nearly £100 below the average (£1,689) for the previous ten years. The average for the first half of the decade was £1,790 and for the second half of same £1,587. This shows a steadily progressive decrease in the amount of subscriptions, largely to be accounted for by the falling off of non-resident subscribers, who have sold their properties. We have lost annual subscriptions of this class to a considerable amount within the decade, and there is a further amount of £300 to £400 which we still receive, but which we are likely to lose from similar causes in the near future. We must, therefore, look to local sources to make further efforts to keep up the necessary funds for supplying the very moderate incomes of the clergy in this diocese. A grant of £122 10s. has been made to this diocese out of about £5,000, specially allocated by the General Synod this year for increase of income to those clergy having the smaller incomes. The average income of those of our clergy entitled to the glebe grant (as being under £300 a year) is £231, and of these the incomes of twelve are under that average, and a scheme for the allocation of this money amongst these twelve has been submitted to the Representative Church Body.

The report was adopted.

The Board of Education report was presented by Rev. R. P. Ronan. The education fund again shows a deficit balance. A special appeal for help had to be made towards the close of the financial year, and only that a generous response was given the deficit would have been serious, and would have rendered it necessary for the Board to have reduced the grants made to poor schools.

The Rev. George Maxwell presented the missions report, which showed that the amount contributed by the diocese for missionary purposes during the year shows a slight increase on that of the previous year. The actual increase, however, is greater than appears in this report, as no return of sums subscribed has been received from some of the parishes.

The Rev. C. V. Rooke presented the temperance report, which stated that, in spite of the many calls upon our purses, we ought to see to it that the work of the society is not hampered by lack of funds. As regards the work of the society in our diocese, not having received reports from nine parishes, it is impossible to judge of the number of members or meetings held.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

AMSTERDAM, Thursday.

A telegram from Constantinople to the Cologne Gazette says that the General Commanding in Constantinople has officially issued the report of the death sentence passed upon Essad Pasha. It says that during the trial it was proved in a letter that Essad Pasha had conspired with bands against the Turkish Empire, and had declared war on Turkey, and by doing so, and by his hostile attitude, he had rendered service to Turkey's enemies. The sentence was confirmed by the Sultan.

SHORTAGE OF FOOD IN GERMANY.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

AMSTERDAM, Thursday.

According to the Frankfurter Zeitung, a new order has been issued regulating the consumption of paper in Germany. In consequence, the newspapers will now only be entitled to one half the quantity which was supplied to them during the period from July 1st to August 31st this year. The Vorwaerts complains of the great deficiency which is making itself felt in the provisioning of Berlin. The potato supply, it says, has again stopped during the last few days, which is attributed by official quarters to a lack of field labourers. The decrease of the milk supply is already the subject of anxious discussion by the authorities. Many big milk contractors in the country have discontinued their consignments to town owing to lack of milk, because when they supply small quantities the profit is too small. Apparently great consternation has been caused by the announcement that for the next three weeks only two eggs will be available for each inhabitant. All these troubles have contributed, perhaps, to the rush which is made on the soup kitchens, which now distribute some 54,000 portions daily.

SAVING PETROLEUM.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)

AMSTERDAM, Thursday.

The Berliner Tageblatt says:—The war with Rumania has placed considerable obstacles in the way of Germany's finding an adequate supply of petroleum. The existing supplies are, first of all, to be devoted to the needs of the Army and Navy, railways, and official requirements generally. The Minister of Public Instruction has issued a special order to those under his jurisdiction urging the utmost restriction of the use of petroleum for lighting purposes. The question whether any change in work day hours, such as the abolition of the midday interval, should be introduced to save daylight is under consideration.

KINGSTOWN URBAN COUNCIL.

THE HOUSING QUESTION.

A meeting of the Kingstown Urban Council was held yesterday, Mr. J. J. Kennedy presiding.

A vote of condolence was tendered to Mr. John Rochford, C.E., on the death of his son, and to Mr. Edward Kelly, Foresters' Hall, Kingstown, on the death of his son, who was killed in action.

The Chairman presented certificates on vellum to Mr. Herbert Lewis and to Mr. Frank Cronin, Kingstown, for their gallant conduct on September 11th in trying to save the life of Mr. D. O'Gorman, who dived into shallow water when bathing. The Chairman tendered the thanks of the Council to Messrs. Cronin and Lewis for their courageous conduct. (Applause.)

A resolution was adopted that poliomyelitis be added to the list of notifiable diseases.

There were eleven applicants for the vacant position of Inspector of Weights and Measures, and Mr. Michael Hart, Dalkey, was elected by 12 votes to 5, for Mr. W. J. M'Donnell, Kingstown.

KINGSTOWN HOUSING.

The Chairman said that he desired to make a few observations in reference to the visit of the Association of Municipal Authorities to Belfast, at which he and Mr. Murray represented the Council. He referred in complimentary terms to the hospitality and courtesy with which they had been received, and tendered his thanks to the Lord Mayor of Belfast for his generous hospitality. They had the privilege of the presence of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, who appeared to agree that the housing question in this country urgently required attention, but that the public boards were restricted by red tape. His Excellency expressed sympathy with the efforts of the various bodies in providing decent homes for the working-classes, but in his (the Chairman's) opinion action more than goodwill was needed. In Kingstown they had a scheme for the better housing of the working-classes, and had forwarded it to the Local Government Board for approval, but it was locked up somewhere waiting consideration. They practically said it was difficult to get money for such purposes. He appealed publicly to the Lord Lieutenant to undo the knot of this red tape. There were hundreds of men who had gone from Kingstown to fight their battles, and when they come back, as he trusted most of them would, were they to be sent to the slums or the alleys? Now was the time to build houses for them, so that on their return they would find the country in a better condition and decent houses to live in.

On the motion of the Chairman a vote of thanks was passed to the Lord Mayor of Belfast.

Major-General J. A. L. Haldane was, last night, gazetted temporary Lieutenant-General under date August 8th.

BABY SOWERSBY.

Had given up all hope.

61, Brownlow Street,
Park Grove, York.
Sirs, 19th June, 1916.

I could not feed my baby myself, and by the time he was thirteen weeks old we had given up all hope of rearing him. I carried him about on a feather cushion, and twice to all appearances he lay dead in my arms. Our doctor recommended Virol, and I got some at once. From the first feed with Virol he has gone on, until now, at fourteen months, he is a fine, healthy little fellow. I shall continue to use it while he is teething.

Yours faithfully,
K. SOWERSBY.

Canon Lindsay, who acted as Archbishop's Chaplain; H. B. Good, Gerald Elliott, and J. E. Preston, Rector of Julianstown. DUBLIN METHODIST COUNCIL.

The meeting of the Dublin Methodist Council held last night in the Centenary Church parlour was largely attended by ministerial and lay members. After a social hour, Rev. W. R. Budd presided, and the business was introduced by the Secretary, Dr. H. G. Smith. The election of officers and committee for the session 1916-17 resulted as follows:—

President, Rev. W. R. Budd; Vice-Presidents, Rev. H. M'Keag, Mr. A. D. Codling, B.A.; Treasurer, Mr. J. L. FitzHenry; Secretaries, Rev. C. S. Greaves, Dr. H. G. Smith, together with the following additional members—Revs. J. M. Alley, F. E. Harte, M.A.; W. B. Lumley, J. N. Spence; Messrs. J. R. Coade, J.P.; W. R. Maconkey, R. Morgan, J.P.; and R. J. H. Walker.

The following resolution was unanimously passed, upon the motion of Rev. J. M. Alley, seconded by Mr. R. W. Booth, J.P.:—

That this Council, representing the Methodist Churches of Dublin and district, desires to express its heartfelt sympathy with the objects of the National Mission of Repentance and Hope. It earnestly prays that the richest blessing of Almighty God may rest upon this great national effort. It rejoices to learn that in some districts the work of preparing for the Mission has already brought about a blessed revival of religion, and it trusts that through the Mission great and abiding good may come to every part of the United Kingdom.

The question of the establishment in Ireland of a Methodist Historical Society was debated, upon the motion of Mr. R. Morgan, J.P.

The subject for the evening's discussion was, "Can we Improve the Organisation of our Church in Efficiency and Economy?"

FAREWELL TO IRISH MISSIONARIES.

The valedictory meeting to outgoing Irish Missionaries of the Hibernian Church Missionary Society was held last night in the Mission Buildings, Townsend street, Dublin. Sir Algernon Coote, Bart., H.M.L., presided over a large attendance, and in the course of his remarks said that he was deeply thankful that he had been spared to preside at another valedictory meeting of the Hibernian Church Missionary Society. (Applause.) In these days when they heard a great deal of war economies he was afraid a great many were inclined to think in what way they might reduce their subscriptions to charities. Real self-denial affected the individual, and there was no self-denial in curtailing their subscriptions to charities. The very last thing which should be touched were the contributions to God's work. He was informed that the Society was about £1,000 behind the position they occupied in the corresponding period of last year, and every endeavour should be made to raise the necessary means for carrying on the work.

Rev. Canon Gibbings announced that the following missionaries had already sailed for their several mission fields:—Right Rev. Bishop Molony, D.D., Chekiang; Dr. J. C. P. and Mrs. Beatty, do.; Miss A. O. Stott, do.; Rev. and Mrs. Sills, Fuhkien; Miss J. C. Clarke, do.; Miss E. E. Little, do.; Miss M. G. Howe, do. They had with them that evening Rev. W. E. and Mrs. Hipwell, of Pakhoi, South China; Dr. C. G. S. Baronsfeather, do.; Miss B. G. Brownrigg, Persia. Rev. W. G. Shorter, Ceylon, and Mrs. Baronsfeather, South China, were unable to be present.

Rev. H. F. Davies, Sudan; Miss Brownrigg, Persia; Dr. Baronsfeather, Rev. W. E. Hipwell, Rev. H. T. C. Weatherhead, Uganda, gave short and interesting accounts of foreign missionary work.

Rev. Canon Day delivered the valedictory address, in the course of which he said that love, manifesting itself through the spirit of sacrifice, was one of the great things of the world—that was the one thing that won victories, and the one thing that brought about whatever little good, charity, and kindness there might be in their lives to-day. They had realised this fact as never before during the past two years, when they had seen the very flower of their youth dying for their country. (Applause.)

FINANCIAL NEWS

DUBLIN STOCK EXCHANGE.

ADJUSTMENT SALES CONTINUE. COATS LOWER. MARCONIS EASY.

DUBLIN, Thursday Evening.

There were further adjustments registered in prices of securities on 'Change to-day to the new level determined by the apparent extravagant terms of borrowing recently announced by the Treasury. The further losses shown may, therefore, be more correctly described as belonging to the immediate past rather than to to-day, although the business done and the actual quotations were registered only this afternoon. There was only one change for the better in the prices of the Funds. Consols improved 1/16 to 59 1/16. War Loan 4½ p.c. opened ¼ lower at 93½, but later ⅛ more was bid. Local Loans 3 p.c. fell 1⅛ to 58⅞, and India 3 p.c. 1⅛ to 58⅞, while do. 3½ p.c. show no change at 69½. Corporation Stocks were offered, but did not quote. The Bank section was again fairly idle. Hibernians eased 1/16 to 4⅞; all others were neglected. Prices in Breweries and Distilleries were weaker. Dublin Distillers Debs. gave way 2½ to 70, while the Ord. and Pref. Shares closed on sale without quoting. Guinness Ord. were not so good in tone as on yesterday, and closed unaltered at 27 for a few shares, but the Pref. fell ⅛ more to 11⅛. The Marconi market was again dull in sympathy mainly with surroundings. The Ord. fell 6d. to 59s. 6d., but the Pref. were wanted. There was still very little business in Home Railways. Great Southern and Western Ord. fell back ¼ to 80, and the Pref. repeated 81¼. Midland Great Western eased ⅛ to 29⅞. Great Northern Pref., at 81¼, show no change. West Carbery Baronial Shares fell 1s. 6d. to 16s. 3d. Tramways were very sparsely dealt in. Dublin United Pref., at 11¼, were steady, but the 3½ p.c. "A" Debs. for a small lot fell 1¼ to 69 x.d. Provincial Ord. were sellers at 18s., or a shade under, with 17s. 6d. apparently bid. Dunlop issues were quiet, but steady. Gas and Bakery Shares were neglected. Drapery Shares were quite featureless. There was a decline of 1/16 to 6⅞ in J. and P. Coats Ord. Shares. Calico Printers marked 1½d. lower at 10s. 10½d. x.d. Lever Bros. "C" Pref. closed firm. Burke Pref. rose 2s. 6d. to 82s. 6d., Bagots Hutton Ord. 2s. to 72s. 6d., and W. Drummond and Sons Pref. 6d. to 73s. An odd lot of Dockrell Ord. was sold at 7s., or about 6d. under last marking. Liverpool Warehousing Shares were still bid for without any shares coming on the market. Components Shares remain very scarce on report rumours. The 7 p.c. Pref., with four years arrears, improved in Birmingham to 20s. 6d., the Ord. to 14s.-15s. 6d., and the Def. to round about 13s. Rempeh (Java) Rubber Plantations fetched 3s.

LONDON MONEY MARKET.

Bank Rate (changed July 13th, 1916) ...... 6 p.c.

Floating balances were increased in the Loan Market by the disbursement of dividends on Gilt-edged securities to a total of about seven millions. Conditions were thus very easy. Overnight accommodation at the finish offered down to 4½ per cent., though the more general rate for the day was 4 to 4½ per cent. Weekly loans were mostly arranged at 4½ per cent. £2,000,000 of French Treasury bills fell due, against which there was a similar amount of new bills to be paid for. The Discount Market was quiet and about unchanged, though the tendency of rates was easy, in sympathy with loans and on the stronger Bank return. There was a good demand for short-dated Treasuries in the open market, November changing hands at 5¼ per cent. and December at 5¼ to 5⅛ per cent. There was also a good demand for short-dated Treasury bills at the Bank of England. It remains to be seen whether any important amount of floating debt will be got rid of by the Government's decision to allow Treasury bills issued prior to this month to be tendered as subscriptions to the new French Loan under discount to those who are paying in full on application.

BABY SOWERSBY.

Had given up all hope.

61, Brownlow Street,
Park Grove, York.
19th June, 1916.

Sirs,
I could not feed my baby myself, and by the time he was thirteen weeks old we had given up all hope of rearing him. I carried him about on a feather cushion, and twice to all appearances he lay dead in my arms. Our doctor recommended Virol, and I got some at once. From the first feed with Virol he has gone on, until now, at fourteen months, he is a fine, healthy little fellow. I shall continue to use it while he is teething.

Yours faithfully,
K. SOWERSBY.

CHURCH OF IRELAND.

The annual sale of work in support of the Church Missionary Society will be held in the Parochial Hall, Rathmines, on November 23rd and 24th.

The Rev. Dr. Thomson is at present in charge of the parish of Billy, Diocese of Connor, in the absence of the Rector, Rev. R. M. Morrow, who is serving as an Army chaplain.

The Diocesan Council of Cork, Cloyne, and Ross has requested the Bishop of Cork to allocate the sum of £137 which the Representative Church Body has granted for the augmentation of the incomes of the clergy.

The Bishop of Down invites help from the clergy of the South and West of Ireland to replace those of his clergy who have gone to the front, as well as to deal with the large and increasing church population of Belfast and district, in need of greater spiritual supervision.

HARVEST THANKSGIVINGS.

St. George's, Balbriggan.—The Archbishop of Dublin was the preacher at the Harvest Thanksgiving at St. George's Church, Balbriggan, and there was a large and very attentive congregation. The Archbishop was received at the door of the church by the churchwardens, Messrs. A. W. Archer, J.P., and T. Cashell, and the clergy present were:—Rev. Dr. Benson, Rector; Rev. Canon Lindsay, who acted as Archbishop's Chaplain; H. B. Good, Gerald Elliott, and J. E. Preston, Rector of Julianstown. The Archbishop stated that he learned with pleasure that Daily Intercessions had never been neglected since the beginning of the war.

Methodist Church, Dalkey.—Harvest Thanksgiving Services will be held in this church on Sunday, at 11.30 a.m. and 7 p.m. The special preacher will be the Rev. Alexander McCrea, B.A., of Clontarf. On Tuesday, October 10th, Rev. James M. Alley will lecture on "The Holy Land under Turkish Tyranny," illustrated by one hundred views. The chair will be taken at 8 p.m. by Mr. M. O'Toole.

DUBLIN METHODIST COUNCIL.

The meeting of the Dublin Methodist Council held last night in the Centenary Church parlour was largely attended by ministerial and lay members. After a social hour, Rev. W. R. Budd presided, and the business was introduced by the Secretary, Dr. H. G. Smith. The election of officers and committee for the session 1916-17 resulted as follows:—

President, Rev. W. R. Budd; Vice-Presidents, Rev. H. M'Keag, Mr. A. D. Codling, B.A.; Treasurer, Mr. J. L. FitzHenry; Secretaries, Rev. C. S. Greaves, Dr. H. G. Smith, together with the following additional members—Revs. J. M. Alley, F. E. Harte, M.A.; W. B. Lumley, J. N. Spence; Messrs. J. B. Coade, J.P.; W. R. Macookey, R. Morgan, J.P.; and R. J. H. Walker.

The following resolution was unanimously passed, upon the motion of Rev. J. M. Alley, seconded by Mr. R. W. Booth, J.P.:—

That this Council, representing the Methodist Churches of Dublin and district, desires to express its heartfelt sympathy with the objects of the National Mission of Repentance and Hope. It earnestly prays that the richest blessing of Almighty God may rest upon this great national effort. It rejoices to learn that in some districts the work of preparing for the Mission has already brought about a blessed revival of religion, and it trusts that through the Mission great and abiding good may come to every part of the United Kingdom.

The question of the establishment in Ireland of a Methodist Historical Society was debated, upon the motion of Mr. R. Morgan, J.P.

The subject for the evening's discussion was, "Can we Improve the Organisation of our Church in Efficiency and Economy?"

FAREWELL TO IRISH MISSIONARIES.

The valedictory meeting to outgoing Irish Missionaries of the Hibernian Church Missionary Society was held last night in the Mission Buildings, Townsend street, Dublin. Sir Algernon Coote, Bart., H.M.L., presided over a large attendance, and in the course of his remarks said that he was deeply thankful that he had been spared to preside at another valedictory meeting of the Hibernian Church Missionary Society. (Applause.) In these days when they heard a great deal of war economies he was afraid a great many were inclined to think in what way they might reduce their subscriptions to charities. Real self-denial affected the individual, and there was no self-denial in curtailing their subscriptions to charities. The very last thing which should be touched were the contributions to God's work. He was informed that the Society was about £1,000 behind the position they occupied in the corresponding period of last year, and every endeavour should be made to raise the necessary means for carrying on the work.

Rev. Canon Gibbings announced that the following missionaries had already sailed for their several mission fields:—Right Rev. Bishop Molony, D.D., Chekiang; Dr. J. C. P. and Mrs. Beatty, do.; Miss A. O. Stott, do.; Rev. and Mrs. Sills, Fukien; Miss J. C. Clarke, do.; Miss E. E. Little, do.; Miss M. G. Howe, do. They had with them that evening Rev. W. E. and Mrs. Hipwell, of Pakhoi, South China; Dr. C. G. S. Baronsfeather, do.; Miss B. G. Brownrigg, Persia. Rev. W. G. Shorter, Ceylon, and Mrs. Baronsfeather, South China, were unable to be present.

Rev. H. F. Davies, Sudan; Miss Brownrigg, Persia; Dr. Baronsfeather, Rev. W. E. Hipwell, Rev. H. T. C. Weatherhead, Uganda, gave short and interesting accounts of foreign missionary work.

Rev. Canon Day delivered the valedictory address, in the course of which he said that love, manifesting itself through the spirit of sacrifice, was one of the great things of the world—that was the one thing that won victories, and the one thing that brought about whatever little good, charity, and kindness there might be in their lives to-day. They had realised this fact as never before during the past two years, when they had seen the very flower of their youth dying for their country. (Applause.)

FINANCIAL NEWS

DUBLIN STOCK EXCHANGE.

ADJUSTMENT SALES CONTINUE. COATS LOWER. MARCONIS EASY.

DUBLIN, Thursday Evening.

There were further adjustments registered in prices of securities on 'Change to-day to the new level determined by the apparent extravagant terms of borrowing recently announced by the Treasury. The further losses shown may, therefore, be more correctly described as belonging to the immediate past rather than to to-day, although the business done and the actual quotations were registered only this afternoon. There was only one change for the better in the prices of the Funds. Consols improved 1/16 to 59 1/16. War Loan 4½ p.c. opened ¼ lower at 93⅛, but later ¼ more was paid. Local Loans 3 p.c. fell 1⅛ to 58⅛, and India 3 p.c. 1⅛ to 58⅛, while do. 3½ p.c. show no change at 69½. Corporation Stocks were offered, but did not quote. The Bank section was again fairly idle. Hibernians eased 1/16 to 4⅝; all others were neglected. Prices in Breweries and Distilleries were weaker. Dublin Distillers Debs. gave way 2½ to 70, while the Ord. and Pref. Shares closed on sale without quoting. Guinness Ord. were not so good in tone as on yesterday, and closed unaltered at 27 for a few shares, but the Pref. fell ¼ more to 11⅛. The Marconi market was again dull in sympathy mainly with surroundings. The Ord. fell 6d. to 59s. 6d., but the Pref. were wanted. There was still very little business in Home Railways. Great Southern and Western Ord. fell back ⅛ to 80, and the Pref. repeated 81¼. Midland Great Western eased ¼ to 29½. Great Northern Pref., at 81¼, show no change. West Carbery Baronial Shares fell 1s. 6d. to 8s. 3d. Tramways were very sparsely dealt in. Dublin United Pref., at 11⅛, were steady, but the 3½ p.c. "A" Debs. for a small lot fell 1½ to 69 x.d. Provincial Ord. were sellers at 18s., or a shade under, with 17s. 6d. apparently bid. Dunlop issues were quiet, but steady. Gas and Bakery Shares were neglected. Drapery Shares were quite featureless. There was a decline of 1/16 to 6⅜ in J. and P. Coats Ord. Shares. Calico Printers marked 1½d. lower at 11s. 10½d. x.d. Lever Bros. "C" Pref. closed firm. Burke Pref. rose 2s. 6d. to 82s. 6d., Jacobs Hutton Ord. 2s. to 72s. 6d., and W. Drummond and Sons Pref. 6d. to 73s. An odd lot of Dockrell Ord. was sold at 7s., or about 6d. under last marking. Liverpool Warehousing Shares were still bid for without any shares coming on the market. Components shares remain very scarce on report rumours. The 7 p.c. Pref., with four years arrears, improved in Birmingham to 20s. 6d., the Ord. to 15s.-15s. 6d., and the Def. to round about 13s. Tempeh (Java) Rubber Plantations fetched 3s.

LONDON MONEY MARKET.

Bank Rate (changed July 13th, 1916) ...... 6 p.c.

Floating balances were increased in the Loan Market by the disbursement of dividends on Gilt-edged securities to a total of about seven millions. Conditions were thus very easy. Overnight accommodation at the finish offered down to 4½ per cent., though the more general rate for the day was 5 to 4½ per cent. Weekly loans were mostly arranged at 4½ per cent. £2,000,000 of French Treasury bills fell due, against which there was a small amount of new bills to be paid for. The Discount Market was quiet and about unchanged, though the tendency of rates was easy, in sympathy with loans and on the stronger Bank return. There was a good demand for short-dated Treasuries in the open market, November changing hands at 5¼ per cent., and December at 5¼ to 5⅛ per cent. There was also a good demand for short-dated Treasury bills at the Bank of England. It remains to be seen whether any important amount of floating debt will be got rid of by the Government's decision to allow Treasury bills issued prior to this month to be tendered as subscriptions to the new French Loan under discount to those who are paying in full on application.

LONDON STOCK MARKETS LESS ACTIVE.

HOME RAILS IRREGULAR.

AMERICANS STRONG.

(FROM OUR FINANCIAL CORRESPONDENT.)

LONDON, Thursday.

After the improvement recorded yesterday the Stock Markets were less vigorous, most departments being inclined to rest. The gilt-edged section lost its forward tendency, and quotations slipped back a little here and there. The favourable Bank return had some helpful influence upon the undertone, but on the other hand pre-occupations incidental to the new French Loan were not calculated to assist existing Government descriptions. The success of the London portion of the French Loan is regarded as assured. Consols rose ⅛ to 59⅛, but the 4½ War Loan weakened that fraction to 93⅛, while the 3½ p.c. Loan was ⅛ down. Other gilt-edged issues finished with a checkered appearance. Indian Government issues were rather higher at one time, but they finished without net change, the Threes being finally 59, and the 3½ p.c. 69. Colonial issues were steady to dull, without pronounced tendency either way. Bank of England Stock was steady around 208½.

FOREIGN BONDS QUIET.

In the Foreign market transactions were on a limited scale throughout. French Fives went back a little to 80½, but Russians were steady without net change. Greek Bonds were dull and nominal, awaiting the outcome of the latest political crisis, but prices were no lower to quote. Japanese Bonds were moderately brisk. Among Argentine and Brazilian Bonds there were many falls ranging up to a point.

AMERICANS STRONG.

In the American market there were some imposing gains, which were more or less nominal locally owing to the very limited amount of "free" stock on this side. Norfolks were hoisted 6 dollars to 152. There was a jump of 1½ to 159 in Union Pacifics, while New York Centrals gained 3½ at 117½. There were many other gains ranging up to 2 points in the general list, but Steels still hung fire, and the Common was finally only ¼ to the good at 123½.

CANADIANS AND MEXICANS STEADY.

Canadian Pacifics moved with Americans, and were fairly active. On balance the Stock was ⅛ higher at 188⅛. Grand Trunk Stocks were slow. The 1st Pref. lost a point.

Mexican Rails showed steadiness, though the political news from Mexico was not reassuring. Among Argentine Rails there were some scattered falls ranging from ¼ to 1. Buenos Ayres Westerns marked the latter loss at 87. San Paulos, in the Brazilian group, weakened a point to 192.

INDUSTRIAL SHARES HEAVY.

In the Miscellaneous and Industrial Market there were few outstanding features. Armament issues were again offered on the new regulations governing contracts. Armstrongs fell 6d. to 40/-. Cargo Fleets and S. Durham Steels marked similar falls. Among Land Shares, Hudson's Bays were up to 7, but Forestals were offered back 1/16 to 2⅛. Marconis remained on the dull side. The Ordinary closed about unchanged at 3, after being lower. The American Shares flattened 6d. to 17/6. Brazilian Tractions further drooped a point to 58. In the Supply group, Lyons were steady around 4⅝. Maypole Dairy Def. fell 1/3 to 20/9. Van den Berghs were 1/16 down. British and Argentine Meat made a dull finish at 21/-. Eastmans did not vary. Smithfield and Argentine changed around 26/6. Textiles were quiet, but Courtaulds were harder at 6¼. Cements were quiet, and Associated Ord. fell slightly.

MINING MARKET UNCERTAIN.

There was only a moderate volume of transactions to report in the Mining Market, where prices pursued a rather uncertain course. Kaffirs were steady to dull. The Finance counters sagged here and there, and the Far Eastern group was also irregular. There was an absence of steadiness in the Rhodesian and Diamond groups, where, however, there was no important pressure to sell. Westralians were quiet, and Russians hesitating; but some fresh demand sprang up for West African Tin Shares, which were spottily good. Tintos advanced on the overnight dividend, and some other copper specialities were firm. The price of copper metal was unchanged, but the price of tin rose 20/- per ton.

RUBBER SHARES ACTIVE.

The spot price of plantation rubber was better at 2/4½ per lb., while for January-June delivery there were buyers at 2/5½. The slightly easier tone which prevailed in the Share Market for a day or two led to an increased volume of business. Anglo-Dutch offered at 20/-, but Bantam Java were 36/- bid, and Bandar Sumatra in keen demand around 46/3. Bidor firm at 75/-, and Carey United maintained their rise at 41/9. Cromlix were 36/3 bid. Eastern Sumatra were bought in large numbers up to 2/5, and were a strong market. Java Amalgamated kept hard around 37/9, but Jugra Lands offered at 56/-. Merbau were firm at 3/4. Pahang Para taken at 52/6 x.d., and Pilmoor at 50/- and over. Pegoh offered at 52/6, but Sedenak at 38/6, and Selaba at 47/3, were firm spots. Sungei Bahru kept very active around 43/-, and the Pref. Shares done at 42/-. Telogoredjo higher at 41/9. In the Borneo group, Bangawan Non-Guaranteed Shares spurted sharply during the week to 17/-, but have since reacted to 15/6. Kimanis wanted at 20/3. Langkon were about 18/3 c.d. (5 per cent.), and Lok Kawi were changing hands at 18/3. Manchester North Borneo distinctly strong, with large dealings around 30/3. Sapong done over 30/6. Tenom appeared to be wanted at 50/3.

The resignation will take effect on 31st December next.

BIRMINGHAM SMALL ARMS COMPANY.

Sir Hallewell Rogers, presiding at the annual meeting of the Birmingham Small Arms Company at Birmingham, spoke of the very large share which the company had had in providing guns and rifles for the Army. The Daimler Company, which was owned by them, had, in its particular direction, effected great service to the country. It had utilised the capacity of its greatly extended works and the brains of its organisation in embarking on new work of national necessity with great success, in addition to largely increasing the output of material peculiar to its original manufacture, and now required for the purposes of the war.

PROVINCIAL PARAGRAPHS.

High Price for Barley.—At the Gorey Corn Market on Thursday the high price of 29s. per barrel was paid for the best samples of barley. Black oats brought 15s. 9d. per barrel.

Outdoor Relief in Newry Union.—The expenditure on outdoor relief in Newry Union for the half-year ended the 30th September, 1916, amounted to £985 9s. 6d., which is a decrease of £182 0s. 6d. on the corresponding period of last year.

Newry Flax Market.—The opening market of the season was held yesterday. There were 11 tons of flax offered, and all was bought up at prices ranging from 17s. to 21s. per stone.

Promotion of a Bank Official.—Mr. Thomas J. Robinson, who has been an accountant in the Midleton branch of the National Bank for several years, has been promoted to the position of manager of the branch at Killorglin, Co. Kerry.

The Potato Crop in Mayo.—Owing to the scarcity of potatoes, due to the partial failure of the crop in County Mayo, following a late planting, and the early appearance of the blight, the price at the local markets has gone up to 1s. per stone, a price for which there is no precedent at this time of the year.

District Inspector Welcomed.—On taking the chair, at the Claremorris Petty Sessions on Thursday, Lord Oranmore and Browne, on behalf of the Bench, extended a welcome to District Inspector B. O'Connor, on his transfer to the charge of the district. Messrs. Hinkson, R.M., and James McGarry, J.P., and T. D. Leetch, on behalf of the solicitors present, associated themselves with the welcome, which Mr. O'Connor suitably acknowledged.

Athy Barley Market.—Barley brought 30s. a barrel in Athy this week. Some years ago the same quantity brought only 12s. and 13s. The yield this year is poor, averaging on good land 10 barrels to the acre.

Judge Brown and the War.—In opening the Cavan Quarter Sessions yesterday, Judge Brown, K.C., addressing the Grand Jury, said that the war had taken a decided turn in favour of the Allies, and they would not have long to wait for victory. This was a source of gratification for every right-thinking Irishman.

Concert Tour in the West.—Madame Borel, Mrs. Oulton, Miss Penrose, Rev. R. Arthur Oulton, and Rev. J. Jackson, assisted by local talent, have given concerts at Tuam, Sligo, Claremorris, and Castlebar, in aid of the Red Cross and Prisoners of War Funds. The concerts were most successful, and a sum of £80 has been raised and distributed among the local branches of these funds.

Tributes to a Tipperary Clergyman.—Monsignor Ryan, when presiding at the Tipperary Technical Instruction Committee, proposed a resolution regretting the resignation, through ill-health, of the Committee's Vice-Chairman, Rev. J. D. Forde, M.A., late Rector of Cullen, and expressing high appreciation of Mr. Forde's splendid work for technical education. Mr. John Cullinan, M.P., in supporting the resolution, which was passed unanimously, said that Mr. Forde had given most valuable assistance in getting through with negotiations for land purchase in his district, and was an example of what could be done by men in his position in bringing about a real reunion amongst the Irish people.

The Crops in County Roscommon.—Reports from various districts of the County Roscommon go to show that the early promise of a bountiful harvest has not been fulfilled. This is largely due to the severe weather of the past month. Oats in many cases were "lodged" before being reaped. Late haysaving resulted in injury to the crop before it was gathered in. Potatoes, which, in the early part of the season promised well, are yielding badly, and it is anticipated the return in many districts will be far below the average of other years. Turnips and cabbages and mangolds are showing a fine yield. Turf has been well saved, but prices are exceedingly high.

Seaman Drowned in the Foyle.—At an inquest in Londonderry on the body of a navy man, Robert Watson, 47 years of age, unmarried, a native of Aberdeen, and a deck-hand on board a trawler, it was stated that on Sunday night, 24th September, while Watson was attempting to step on board he fell. His head struck the side of the ship, and he was drowned. The body was not recovered till nine days later. The jury returned a verdict of accidental drowning.

Military Funeral in Limerick.—Private Christopher Brummel, Royal Munster Fusiliers, was buried yesterday in Mount St. Lawrence Cemetery, Limerick, with full military honours. The Leinster Regiment furnished the band and a firing party. Private Brummel was only a few weeks home from the front. He was a National Volunteer before enlistment, and several National Volunteers walked in the funeral procession.

Kerry Council and Conscription.—At the meeting of the Kerry County Council in Tralee yesterday a resolution was unanimously passed, protesting against any attempt to enforce conscription on Ireland, and against the partition of Ireland in any shape or form.

Lieutenant-General Sir Aylmer Hunter Weston, Unionist nominee, and Rev. Humphrey Chalmers, Baptist minister, Wandsworth, London, Independent, were yesterday nominated for North Ayrshire. The polling takes place next Wednesday.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY COMPANY.

ANNUAL MEETING.

(SPECIAL CABLE.)

MONTREAL, Oct. 4.

At the annual meeting of the shareholders of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company to-day the report of the directors was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Wilmot D. Matthews, Mr. Augustus M. Nanton, Mr. George Bury, and Sir Vincent Meredith were elected directors.

The agreement respecting the Toronto, Hamilton, and Buffalo Railway Company, referred to in the annual report, was approved, and the directors were authorised to carry out the arrangement regarding the ocean services, as outlined in the annual report.

In moving the adoption of the annual report, the President (Lord Shaughnessy) said:—On behalf of the directors, I have the honour to submit for your consideration and approval the thirty-fifth annual report of the company. The information contained in the report with reference to the outcome of the company's operations during the year and the condition of its affairs generally must be as gratifying to the shareholders as it is to the directors. While the gross income from the business of your railway lines was below the maximum that had been reached, the net revenue was in excess of any previous year. The statements and statistics give evidence of improved operating effectiveness and of greater financial strength and stability. Although the amount of taxes that the company may be called upon to pay in Great Britain and Canada in connection with special war assessments is not as yet definitely determined, it will, no doubt, be considerable, and prudence suggests preparation to meet it.

Then, as you are aware, most of your ocean steamships have during the past two years been engaged in Admiralty service. Some of them were lost, although in this respect we have been singularly fortunate; some were taken over by the Admiralty, and the character of the service that others have been performing will make extensive rebuilding necessary whenever the steamships are released. To make provision for these excess war profit taxes, and other war assessments that your company may be required to pay, and for the rehabilitation of your ocean fleets at the prices now current, and that are likely to prevail for some time to come, the directors decided to transfer to a fund for contingencies a very substantial sum that would in other circumstances have gone to special income. I am confident that this policy will meet with your hearty approval.

It is very comforting to know that on June 30th last the cash in hand, including temporary investment in War Loans, readily convertible, was nearly $46,000,000, or about $30,000,000 more than at the end of the fiscal year, although in the meantime no capital securities of any description had been disposed of; but, of course, important works requiring large expenditure that were not immediately necessary were postponed until a more opportune time. In addition to cash in the Treasury you have available for sale upwards of $40,000,000 of 4 per cent. Consolidated Debenture Stock for additional railway mileage, built when funds were advanced by the shareholders.

In the opinion of the directors, the time has arrived when the company should arrange to carry its own fire and marine insurance, or the greater portion of it, instead of paying large annual premiums, as at present. To that end a transfer of $331,000 was made to the fund last year, and a further transfer will be made year by year until the fund is sufficient for the purpose in view.

In Eastern Canada the outcome of the farming operations this year was generally satisfactory, but the grain crops in a portion of the Western Provinces were injuriously affected by unfavourable weather conditions during the late summer, and it is now thought that the total yield will be little more than half of last season's phenomenal crop. These conditions will naturally be reflected in the company's revenue returns during next year, but general business is showing a decided improvement, and in any event there is every reason to expect that the company's net income for the year will be quite sufficient to meet the ordinary dividend distribution without encroaching on the surplus of the previous year.

The progress and prosperity of your company during a few years tempted other railway companies to enter the field, and they received encouragement and support from the Dominion and Provincial Governments in the shape of cash bonuses and guaranteed securities, with the result that hundreds of millions of dollars were invested in railway lines throughout Canada, many of them in territory already served by your railway years before they were required or could be made self-sustaining. It has been necessary for the Government on more than one occasion to come to the aid of these companies by advancing large amounts of money to prevent liquidation and collapse. As a consequence, a situation fraught with anxiety and some apprehension has developed within the last few months. A Board of Inquiry, composed of expert and capable men, has been selected by the Dominion Government to study every phase of the railway problem, and to make a report incorporating suggestions and advice that may serve to guide the Government in dealing with the subject hereafter. It is to be regretted that a Board of this kind was not asked to give information and advice before these large expenditures and obligations were incurred rather than afterwards; but there is little doubt that its report and recommendations will be very useful to Parliament and the Government.

I cannot too highly commend the Vice-Presidents and their assistants for the splendid organisation, intelligence, and energy that were manifest in every branch of the company's service, and to which may be attributed the very gratifying outcome of the year's business. The vacancy on the Board of Directors caused by the death of the late Sir Sandford Fleming has not been filled. Your directors recommend that Sir Vincent Meredith, Bart., be elected a director to fill the vacancy, and his name will appear on the ballot paper to be submitted to you to-day.

Mr. Huntly Drummond, commenting upon the report and position of the company in most complimentary terms, referred to the rumoured retirement of the President, and expressed the opinion that much apprehension would be removed if the President were left at liberty to say anything reassuring on this subject. Mr. Drummond also referred to the enormous assistance which the Canadian Pacific organisation had been in matters connected with the prosecution of the war, and to the generosity of the company, and its employés generally, in their contributions to the Patriotic Fund and other war purposes.

The President replied briefly, placing himself in the hands of the directors for so long a time as they might consider his services of value. He referred in feeling terms to his thirty-four years' connection with the company, seventeen of them as chief of the executive, and to the organisation and esprit de corps prevailing throughout the staff and employés, which were a source of great pride to him. He mentioned the fact that many of his assistants and advisers on his staff had been with him from the beginning—indeed, that some of those now holding the positions of greatest responsibility he had known as boys in very subordinate positions in the company's service, and he assured Mr. Drummond and the shareholders that his advice and co-operation would always be at the command of those associates while he was mentally and physically capable, and in any position that might be allotted to him.

At a meeting of the Board subsequently held, Lord Shaughnessy was elected President, Mr. George Bury Vice-President, and Mr. E. W. Beatty, K.C., Vice-President and General Counsel of the company; and the Executive Committee was appointed as follows:—Mr. Richard B. Angus, Mr. E. W. Beatty, K.C.; Mr. George Bury, Sir Herbert S. Holt, Sir Edmund B. Osler, and Lord Shaughnessy.

CO. CLARE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.

The autumn show of fruit, flowers, and farm produce of the Clare Horticultural Society was held on Wednesday at the County Courthouse, Ennis. There was a very fair attendance. The chief feature of the show was the splendid display of the apples, for which Clare has gained such a reputation. Though the conditions of this season were much against the crop, quality was well maintained, and the judges spoke in terms of unqualified praise of the excellent exhibition.

Most of the growers of the great fruit-producing district of Thradaree were exhibitors, and the principal winners were:—Mrs. G. U. Macnamara, Mrs. Vere O'Brien, Miss M. Quin, Mrs. Frost, Miss S. Frost, Lord Inchiquin, Mr. R. J. Stacpoole, Mr. J. Hickey, Mr. M. Reidy, Rev. R. Scott, Mrs. B. Lynch, Mr. W. Lynch, Mr. H. Frost, Mr. J. Andrews, etc.

In farm produce, honey, and flowers, the chief winners were:—The Fergus Reclamation Syndicate, Mrs. Vere O'Brien, Mr. T. J. Casey, Lord Inchiquin, Mr. F. W. Parker, Miss L. Frost, Mrs. Delany, Miss Frost, Mrs. R. J. Stacpoole, Miss Greene, Mrs. Wilson Lynch, Mr. Frank O'Brien, Mr. P. Liennane, etc.

All the arrangements worked smoothly under the personal direction of the Hon. Sec., Rev. R. Scott, to whom so much of the success of these shows is due.

CLONMEL OLD FAIR.

The supply of cattle at Clonmel Fair yesterday was small for October, and it was mostly comprised of stores, which met a ready sale. Trade was draggling, but a good deal of business was transacted, with prices holding up to those recently paid, and there seemed to be a firmer tone all round. Demand for beef was slightly better than at recent fairs, and a good clearance was effected. Three-year-olds from £24 to £26 10/-; two-year-olds from £19 10/ to £22, and young stores from £13 10/- to £15. Beef cost from 85/- to 90/- per cwt., and mutton was 11d. per lb.

DUBLIN AND DISTRICT.

Market Day Shipments.—Most of the live stock carrying steamers from the Liffey yesterday made early departures, thus saving electric light in the inspection yards and other items of expenditure entailed when the vessels are held back for night sailings. The facilities for shipping the various classes of live stock were ample in the cases of some lines, but at others the inevitable Thursday crush took place, with the result that not all the offerings could be accepted for forwarding across Channel. Ballinasloe Great Fair did not appear to exercise much effect on yesterday's exports from either the North or South Walls.

Exports Which Could be "Worked" at Home.—By the principal steamship lines from Dublin to various ports in Great Britain a steady export trade is almost daily being carried on in hides which go to tanning yards across the Irish Sea. Dublin at one time was famous for the number of tanneries it possessed. They gave constant and well-paid employment to a large number of men, who prepared the skins for the market, the leather thus produced having a character for an excellence all its own. It appears to be a pity that a revival of the tanning industry could not be brought about in Dublin at present—especially in view of the high prices that leather commands at present.

Arabs of No Nationality.—The wanderings and comings and goings of "Arabs of no nationality," as the Gipsy tribe are dubbed at the port of Dublin, are interesting to more than the tribes themselves. They invariably travel to and from steamers in their living vans. During the past summer the number of Gipsy van dwellers who crossed to Ireland was not, perhaps, as large as in former years.

Miss Carr's Homes for Destitute Children.—A Committee meeting was held on Wednesday at 6 Northbrook road—Mr. P. H. Grierson in the chair. The usual routine business was transacted, and a resolution was passed expressing sympathy with Mrs. Figgis and family on the loss sustained by them on the death of Mr. H. W. Figgis, who had for many years been connected with this Committee, and was a generous friend to the Homes. It was also resolved that a special appeal be made for funds in order to pay off the debt due to the bank of between £400 and £500, and to pay current expenses, the present high prices of food making it difficult to provide for about 170 children.

Exorbitant Freights.—The following resolution was passed at the last meeting of the Executive of the Dublin Citizens' Association:—"That the Executive of the Dublin Citizens' Association (Incorporated) are of opinion that the present exorbitant freights on goods and foodstuffs call for prompt ameliorative action on the part of the Government; and that copies of this resolution be forwarded to the Prime Minister and the President of the Board of Trade."

The Metal Bridge and Liffey Ferries.—The Executive of the Citizens' Association's meeting this week was presided over by Mr. James H. Clark, J.P. (Chairman). Sir Charles Cameron sent a Public Health Committee report recommending to the Municipal Council a change in the by-laws suggested by the Association for the betterment of juvenile street trading. The question as to the future of the Metal Bridge, the lease of which recently expired, was discussed, and adjourned, along with proposals re the Liffey ferry boats, to the next meeting.

Carrier Pigeon.—A carrier pigeon has been caught at 20 Emorville avenue, S.C.R., Dublin. It has a metal ring on its right leg, with the following numbers:—U. F. 12, and reversed No. 6816. On the left leg is a rubber ring, on the inside of which is the number 869, C. or G.

The Courtmartial on Sergeant-Major Pollock.—Further evidence was given yesterday at the courtmartial at Portobello Barracks in the case of Regimental Sergeant-Major Pollock, who was charged with being drunk in the mess room on the 16th September, refusing to place under close arrest Sergeant Kenny, who, it is alleged, was drunk, and also refusing to stand to attention when requested to do so in presence of the commanding officer. Lieutenant Moore deposed that he ordered Sergeant-Major Pollock, who was drunk and failed to stand to attention, to be arrested. Sergeant-Major Pollock was examined on his own behalf, and denied that he was drunk. He also stated that when the order "Attention!" was given all present in the mess room, with the exception of Sergeant Kenny, responded. Sergeant Brennan, caterer of the sergeants' mess room, stated that Sergeant-Major Pollock was perfectly sober. Several other witnesses were examined in support of the statement of Sergeant-Major Pollock, who, replying to a question, said he was awarded the Rhodesia Medal (1896), Queen's Medal, South Africa (six engagement bars), King's Medal, South Africa (two bars), and the Good Conduct Medal. The Court found him not guilty, and he was discharged from custody.

Water in Milk.—At the Kingstown Police Court yesterday, before Mr. Swifte, K.C., Catherine Broderick, 57 Lower George's street, Kingstown, was fined 10s. for having sold milk adulterated with 8.9 per cent. of added water. Previous samples of milk had been tested and found pure. The defendant stated that she purchased the milk from a farmer and sold it just as she had received it.

Institute of Journalists.—At the monthly meeting of the Committee, Dublin and Irish Association District, Institute of Journalists, held at 185 Great Brunswick street, yesterday, there were present:—Mr. Hugh Curran, Chairman (presiding); Messrs. T. W. Murphy, T. A. Stodart, W. M. Kenealy, T. Quilty, T. F. McGahan, F. H. Wayland, and J. R. Molloy. On the motion of the Chairman, seconded by Mr. Wayland, the following resolution was passed:—"The Committee of the Dublin and Irish Association District of the Institute of Journalists have heard with profound sorrow of the death of Mr. William Ritchie, editor and proprietor of the Fermanagh Times, Enniskillen; and desire to convey to his family their deep sympathy in the loss they have sustained. Mr. Ritchie was a Fellow of the Institute of Journalists, and for many years a member of this Committee; and his loss is deeply deplored by his colleagues of the Irish Press." On the motion of Mr. T. W. Murphy, seconded by Mr. T. A. Stodart, the following resolution was also carried:—"The Committee of the Dublin and Irish Association District, Institute of Journalists, have learned with deepest regret of the great bereavement that Mr. J. T. Jameson has sustained in the death on active service of his son, Mr. James Jameson, and tenders to Mr. and Mrs. Jameson and family an expression of their sympathy."

COMING EVENT.

Hibernian Church Missionary Society.—The annual meeting of the Ladies' Union will be held this afternoon at 3.30 p.m. in the Gregg Memorial Hall, Dawson street. The chair will be taken by the Dean of Connor, and the speakers will be Miss D. C. Joynt, who has worked both in China and Japan, and Miss B. G. Brownrigg, who has been working in Persia.

COMPENSATION FOR LOSS OF A HUSBAND.

At the City Sessions yesterday the Recorder of Dublin heard an application, under the Workman's Compensation Act, by Mrs. Robertson, of Sunderland, against the Ministry of Munitions, for the loss of her husband, James M'Cready Robertson, who was accidentally killed at the National Factory for Munitions in Dublin on the 18th July last.

Mr. E. Fitzgerald (instructed by Messrs. Bradley and Son), for the applicant, explained that Robertson had been a marine engineer, and that he had escaped from the wreck of a ship that had fallen a victim to a German sea raider. After that he came to Dublin, and took employment at the Munitions Factory, where his average earnings were £2 9/9 a week.

Mr. M. Good, for the respondent, put forward the case that the applicant was not wholly dependent on her husband's allowance to her, which, she said, was 30/- a week when he was at sea, and £1 a week while he was working in Dublin. She had a daughter who earned £60 a year as a schoolteacher in Sunderland.

The applicant and her daughter were examined, and, in reply to Mr. Good, they said that they did not come over to the funeral, as the mother was ill at the time. The daughter said her father was very good to her, and had regularly given her money for clothes.

The Recorder fixed the compensation at £250, and allowed four guineas costs.

26 Stephen's Green, N., Dublin, & 28 Cornmarket (late George McAfee), Belfast.

CAPTAIN Blank was pleased, ever so pleased. He had managed to secure another pair of Lotus Service Boots.
"Never thought I'd have such colossal luck," he confided to a civilian friend. "Lotus are so fearfully hard to get—factories busy with army work, don't you know. And then, when I was walking down Stephen's Green yesterday I saw the very boots I wanted in that fine bootshop window—Stephens & Bourke's, you know—went in like a shot, and found they had a pair in my size. So I'm all right for the winter. They had some more Lotus too, civilian boots. So, if you want a pair, I advise you to go there sharp."

WORKS OF RELIEF.

"Children of the Empire Fund."

Lady Adelaide Taylour would like, through the medium of the Irish Times, to express her grateful thanks to all those who have so kindly helped her to make the above fund known to the children of Ireland, and whose response has been so generous. Subscriptions have also come from Australia, Canada, India, New Zealand, Bahama Islands, etc., besides those in England, Scotland, and Wales; and so have enabled her and the other members of the Executive Committee to send up to "Lord Roberts Memorial Fund for Disabled Soldiers and Sailors" and for the blind at St. Dunstan's £1,550 up to date. It has been arranged that the money allocated to the Lord Roberts Memorial Fund is to be used in the name of "The Children's Empire Fund" to provide dining and recreation rooms in connection with the workshops, and so prevent crippled men having to go any distance for their mid-day meal. If any other children and schools would like to collect, will they kindly apply for papers to the Hon. Sec., Miss Menzies, 23 Royal avenue, Chelsea, London?
